Good Warm Knit Fall Underwear for Women

Priced at a Fraction of Their Regular Values

—At the outset we want to say to you that these are not regular goods. THEY ARE SECONDS and sold to you as such. This in no way diminishes the quality, the worth or the service of these garments. The imperfections are so small as to be scarcely noticeable. A dropped stitch, an imperfect buttonhole, a faulty thread. In most of the garments it would be difficult for even you to see why this particular manufacturer rejects them as imperfect.

—They are big values—big bargains—for the money. They go on sale Friday and Saturday. We are certain none will be left at the close of this sale.
