The Fortland Press Club has extended the Irish committee an invitation to sucretain Mr. O'Couner at luncheon during the hours from 11 to 5 o'clock.

Following this he will probably be shown about the city for an hour or more in an automobile, after which he will give a public reception at the hotel pariors. In the evening he will address the citizens of Fortland at the Armory. A nominal entrance fee will be charged with which expenses will be mat. He will probably remain in Portland over night and leave Monday morning for Spokane.

Spokane.

In a stirring speech Mr. Deery beseeched the rish people of Portland to come forth and make every effort to make the visit of Mr. O'Connor a success. He told the advantages of home rule and told of the work being carried on by Mr. O'Connor and party of Parliament members that is now doing missionary work among the Irlsh citizens of the United States and Canada.
