

MONDELL SCORES PINCHOT'S IDEAS

Representative Argues Against Roosevelt's and Ballinger's Plans.

DOCTRINE HELD RADICAL

J. H. Worst, President of North Dakota Agricultural College, Unanimously Elected President of Dry Farming Congress.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 5.—An argument against the National conservation policy... Representative Mondell declares the policy of "permanent government ownership" of the timber business in a few hands.

Worst is President. J. H. Worst, president of the North Dakota Agricultural College, was selected as the unanimous choice for president of the Dry Farming Congress.

Official Roster Long. Other officers selected are as follows: Honorary American vice-presidents, Bryant R. Brooks, Wyoming; Edwin L. Norris, Montana, and Frank Mondell, Wyoming; first vice-president, Alfred Atkinson, second vice-president, E. H. Webster, Kansas; third vice-president, Ed R. Kene, Texas; international vice-presidents, W. R. Mott, Idaho; G. A. Duncan, Marshall, Alberta; P. Jakonyt, Hungary; Colonel M. Malcor, France; General Both, South Africa; H. McColl, Australia; Dr. Aranson, Turkey; and Dr. Theodore Kryzstofowicz, Russia.

The executive committee are as follows: Tillman Reuter, Oregon; E. E. Dalancy, North Dakota; W. E. Phillips, Idaho; Lewis A. Merrill, Utah; G. R. Maloney, South Dakota; Leroy Hall, Nebraska; C. R. Root, Colorado; F. R. Crompton, Wisconsin; G. A. Martin, Texas; E. O'Donnell, Montana; E. D. Wheeler, Kansas; R. W. Thatcher, Washington; J. D. Tinsley, New Mexico; E. C. Buffum, Wyoming; L. Briggs, District of Columbia; A. L. Moritt, Oklahoma; and W. E. Brunson, Ohio.

Many Cities Seek Congress. Formal application for the honor of entertaining the next Congress has been made by Lethbridge, Canada, and Colorado Springs, Colo., the latter being endorsed by five state societies. It is expected Los Angeles, Cal., will also be a candidate. The decision is to be announced by the executive committee Thursday afternoon.

This evening the newspaper representatives at the convention were the guests of local newspaper men for an excursion up the Spokane Valley to Hayden Lake, where a game supper was enjoyed.

The $250 cup for the best collective exhibit by any state outside of Washington has been awarded to Alberta, Province, Canada. A. M. Axelson, of Paxton, Colo., has won the sweepstakes premium as the winner of the largest number of prizes in class one and class two.

IDAHO DESERTS LEAGUE

New Debating Combination Planned With Pacific and Whitman.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Idaho, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—The University of Idaho has dropped out of the triangular debating league with Pacific University and Whitman College. The debate with the Pacific University will be held early in January. Two teams will represent each institution, and one debate will be held at Moscow and the other at Pacific University. With Whitman College the debate will be held early in May.

The law department of the university is also planning to secure debates with the law department of Willamette University at Salem and the law department of the University of Oregon at Portland.

BIG ORCHARD IS PLANNED

Company Organized to Develop 2600 Acres in Linn County.

ALBANY, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—The Linn County Orchard Company has been organized to plant and develop a big orchard. The company has secured 2600 acres northeast of Lebanon, adjoining the Linnhaven Orchard Company's tract on the south and east. The directors are: H. L. Sumption, of St. Paul, Minn., president; Dr. W. R. Ehen, of Albany, vice-president; C. W. Tebbutt, of Albany, secretary and manager; William Bain, of Albany, and S. C. Carrow, of Illinois. The capital stock is $400,000.

OREGON GRAPES PAY WELL

Applegate Valley Crop Commands Highest Price on Coast.

GRANTS PASS, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—The local markets are this week receiving their first shipment of the justly celebrated Tokay grapes from the Carson vineyard in the Applegate Valley, nine miles from Grants Pass. The grapes from this famous vineyard are known the whole Pacific Coast over for their excellent flavor, size and shipping quality. Thirty acres of Tokay, Rose of Peru and Malaga grapes for European varieties are producing about 3000 crates, which find a ready sale in all the markets of the Pacific Northwest at a higher figure than those grown in any other section of the Pacific Coast. While the crop is light this year, prices are good and Tokays are selling in the Coast markets at $1.25 a crate, Rose of Peru at $1.25, and Malaga at $1.15, while the same varieties are selling from $1.25 to $1.75 in the Grants Pass market, fancy pack. These grapes are grown entirely without irrigation.

It is conservatively estimated that over 5000 acres of land have been planted to Tokay during the past year. Mr. Carson's crop is always reliable and nets in favorable years from $200 to $300 an acre. Mr. Carson has planned a magnificent exhibit for the Southern Oregon District Fair, which opens in this city on October 6.

1 KILLED, 5 WOUNDED

HUNTING ACCIDENTS NUMEROUS IN ROGUE VALLEY.

Salmon and Deer Are Plentiful and Whole of Medford Is Interested in Sport.

MEDFORD, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Hunting and fishing stories are the main subjects of conversation on the streets of Medford. One would judge that half the population was on the point of starting or had just returned from a hunting or fishing trip.

Game and fish are plentiful in the Rogue River Valley this fall. There are daily excursions of automobile parties to Rogue River on fishing expeditions. It is said that there is a panther's skin which measured 10 feet, three inches long. He came across the mountain lion as it was springing upon a deer. The deer escaped and the feline, grunted, turned toward the hunter. He killed the cougar as it stood facing him.

The hunter refused to accept the bounty of $10 offered by the state for panthers, as the acceptance would have necessitated outting the claws from its skin.

Almost all the hunters are having good luck this year. One party killed 22 deer while others who have never before been successful have won their antlers.

There has been much careless shooting, especially along the Upper Rogue River. One man was killed near Woodville early in the season and a number of others have been wounded recently. Last Sunday a man by the name of Littid, while fishing with his father, was struck with a 22 ball, which tore a furrow through his scalp.

Later in the same day a man at the Washburn place received a load of shot in the face. But the force of the shot was nearly spent and no permanent injury will be suffered. George Thornton and John Ingram are two other men who were wounded by careless hunters during the past week. The first was shot in the right thigh, while the second was hit in the palm of his hand.

Constable Gets Hart. Pursuit of Five Weeks Ended at Eugene. Man Whose Wife Obtained Warrant Has Letters From Her Written in Endearing Terms.

ROSEBURG, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—After a chase lasting five weeks, Thomas Hart, wanted in this county on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, was arrested by Constable Singleton, of Roseburg, at Eugene this afternoon.

According to an affidavit furnished the District Attorney for Mrs. Hart, the prosecuting witness, Hart held a loaded rifle within two inches of her head and threatened to kill her if she refused to deed away a certain tract of land, to which she asserts exclusive title.

Before the officers could serve the warrant Hart escaped to the woods. Singleton learned yesterday that Hart was at Eugene and left immediately for that place.

Hart says that he had intended to return to Roseburg and that his wife will refuse to prosecute. On his person were found letters from his wife bearing a recent date, in which she addressed him in affectionate terms. In one letter she implored him to return.

170 TEACHERS ATTENDING

Joint Institute for Three Counties Is Held at The Dalles.

THE DALLES, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—The annual meeting of the joint Teachers Institute of Hood River, Sherman and Wasco counties, was held in this city yesterday afternoon with an enrollment of 170. The teachers will be in session until Friday noon. The instructors who have gathered are State Superintendent Ackerman, H. D. Sheldon and L. R. Alderman of the University of Oregon; E. D. Resler of the Oregon Agricultural College; Miss Maude Lauscha, primary instructor of Albany schools; and A. C. Strange, city superintendent of The Dalles schools. The sessions are held in the High School building.

Tomorrow evening Dr. H. D. Sheldon will deliver a lecture "Thanksgiving as an Educator," in the local Methodist Church.

Annexation to Be Discussed.

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—The Oregon City Commercial Club on Friday night will discuss the proposed annexation of a portion of Clatsop County to Multnomah. It is the belief of the anti-annexation committee, of which County Judge Dimick is chairman, that the organization of the forces opposed to county division should be the first step and it is up to the members of the Commercial Club, the business men and property-owners of Oregon City to start the ball rolling.

A Generous and Charitable Wish. "I wish I might know of the beneficiary received from Your Policy's Kidney Remedy," says L. N. Regan, Farmer, Mo. His kidneys and bladder gave him so much misery and discomfort that he could not work, nor sleep. He says Foley's Kidney Remedy completely cured him. Sold by all druggists.

PEARE TO RUN CAMPAIGN

First Meeting of County Central Committee Is Largely Attended and Much Enthusiasm Is Manifested for Success.

LA GRANDE, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Harmony of the true-blue sort is to mark the campaign in Union County. The Republican county central committee reorganized, new members have installed added interest, and nothing but unanimity marks the political horizon.

So solidly and so effectively is the committee harmonized that it is believed the aim of the committee to elect the Republican ticket from top to bottom will be successful. J. H. Peare was re-elected chairman by a unanimous vote at the meeting attended by practically every precinct committeeman nominated at the primaries. Secretary Mattott was re-elected. The executive committee, of which the chairman and secretary are ex-officio members, consists of John P. Casey, R. C. Mays and C. Bedwell. C. E. Cochran was named as state Republican central committeeman, but he sent his proxy to Portland by his brother, George T. Cochran. R. C. Mays was elected to the office of Congressional delegate.

"Away with factional issues and give us 'unity'" is the keynote of the campaign and watchword of the precinct committeemen. The campaign managers will not countenance any attempt of the Chamberlain and Bourne factions to bring issues that have no particular bearing on the general election into the campaign. The Republican ticket is to be voted straight in Union County next November.

EXPENSE REPORTS ARE FILED

Henry E. McGinn Spent $260.50 to Secure Nomination for Judge.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Many statements of expenses were filed today with the Secretary of State by candidates.

The report filed by W. M. Davis for Henry E. McGinn, candidate for Circuit Judge, Fourth district, shows an expenditure of $260.50. In this connection it is also shown that Henry McGinn paid Davis $25 for furtherance of his campaign.

Other expense accounts filed are: R. R. Turner, Democratic candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, $20; John E. Hodges, candidate for District Attorney from the Tenth district, $40.65; Wallace McCamant, candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court, $38.19; Samuel W. Stark, candidate for Circuit Judge from the Seventh Judicial district, $4; Louis E. Bean, candidate for Joint Senator from Linn and Lane, $26.60; Fred K. Water, candidate for Secretary of State, $23.90; John E. Cleland, candidate for Circuit Judge from the Fourth Judicial district, $40.60; G. Wingate, candidate for Secretary of State, $23.90; James E. Godfrey, candidate for State Printer on the Democratic ticket, $20.75; Turner Oliver, candidate for Secretary of State on the Democratic ticket, $20.75; Turner Oliver, candidate for Secretary of State on the Democratic ticket, $20.75.

In Bean's statement it is shown that he himself expended $125.50, and the Republican Judicial committee $40.60. Attorney-General Crawford in an opinion today states that it is necessary for a candidate-elect to file an acceptance of nomination either to the Secretary of State or to the County Clerk, and that he cannot file this acceptance until after he has filed his statement of expenses. Without the acceptance duly and regularly filed, the candidate cannot have his name placed on the ballot at the general election.

W. L. JONES AGAIN CHAIRMAN

Marion County Republican Committee Elects Officers.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—W. L. Jones, of Jefferson, was re-elected chairman of the Marion County Republican Central Committee today. The only contest was made by Jerome Simmons, who received four votes. Fred R. Waters of Salem was re-elected secretary. E. L. Martin of Turner, state committeeman, and H. A. Johnson, of Salem, congressional committeeman.

The chairman was instructed to name five members of the executive committee. In addition to the chairman and secretary, Hal D. Patton, Statement No. 1 candidate for State Senator, was present and urged harmony among Marion County Republicans.

PARTY IN MORROW UNITED

Leading Republicans Enthusiastic Over Success of Ticket.

HEPPNER, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Morrow County Republicans will give their hearty support to the entire Congressional, state, district and county nominees. Such old-time Republicans as Frank Gilliam, E. E. Notson, W. W. Smead and E. M. Shutt, and in fact all so far as an expression has been made, are united in their belief that the time has come to drop all differences that existed at the time of the primary election and unite in working for the whole ticket.

Morrow County will give the Republican ticket a large majority.

FALL SEEDING UNDER WAY

Eastern Washington Farmers Take Advantage of Rain.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Fall seeding began today with a rush, following the rains of the first part of the week. In the Prescott and Watsburg districts, the work has been going on for the past few weeks, and grain is even beginning to grow through the ground in some places. Around Walla Walla, however, little grain has been put into the ground, but work from now on will be rushing. While some of the farmers are not seeding yet, fearing the rains up to this time have not been sufficient to sprout all the weeds, and that they will come up rather than to have the winter rains catch them with little of their seeding done.

Last year, and the one previous, saw little fall seeding done, as the rains came early. Last year only about one-third the usual amount of fall grain was put in, and farmers say this is the cause of the shortage in the yield this year.

SHOE

Popularity is, after all, only the logical sequence of superiority in some form. The popularity of "Queen Quality" lies in the fact that it is the World's Best Shoe for Women at the price. Points of superiority in the "Queen Quality" shoe are not hard to find, but are displayed, even to the unpracticed eye, in its unrivaled styles, its choice materials, its thorough workmanship, and, after you have worn a pair sufficiently long—in its durability.

FROM THE GREAT, GREAT THINGS ARE EXPECTED. The greater a man becomes—the greater his accomplishments, the greater are his responsibilities—the more he is expected to accomplish. This is a law of human nature and applies to every walk of life—religion, politics and business. Baker's great organization, because of unprecedented past performances in the matter of inimitable style presentations and incomparable values, has taught the people of Portland to expect great things of it. How magnificently we have responded to their expectations can be realized only by an inspection of our amazing array of combined unrivaled Fall styles and matchless values now on exhibition. This strain runs through our entire stock for men and women. Everybody is invited to call.

FAIR IS REVELATION

Washington County Apples Show First-Class.

CULTURE METHODS BETTER

Result of Exhibition Is Organization of County Applegrowers Into Association for Putting Fruit on Market.

HILLSBORO, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—For the first time in its history Washington County has given practical demonstration of what can be done in the Tualatin Valley in apple growing. At the recent street fair held here the Board of Trade was requested to take the initiative in gathering the apple exhibits, and Secretary N. H. Alexander was given charge. For years the exhibits consisted of plate exhibits only, and the results were not satisfactory. This year he conferred with dozens of growers and had full-size displays, and the result was a revelation.

Washington County was the first orchard spot of the West. In the '50s farmers were taking apples to Portland, hauling them 20 and 25 miles. At that time orchard pests were unknown, and a fine product was raised. In time these old orchards became diseased. With legislation many of the old trees have been cut down and burned, while others have been pruned to the trunks and grafted with new varieties. New orchards have been planted and are now beginning to bear. Apple orchards are now selling for $200 to $400 per acre. The large display shown at the fair would have done credit to either Hood River or Rogue River sections.
