A BROWN SERVANT.

'I have a little brown servant in my kitchen, who is a treasure of a cook. She changes odds and ends of inspid 'left-overs' into savory dishes. The fowls she cooks come to the table, hot, tender, juicy and delicately flavored. She serves all food piping hat, accompanied by delicious sauces enveloped in appetiating odors. Yet no one need envy me this jewel of a cook—every woman can have one, too, for they are not expensive. My little servent is my good little earthenware casserols."
