GILL'S CONSCIENCE CLEAR

Scattle Mayor Makes First Public

Appearance Since Return.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 2.- (Special)-"My conscience is clear. Despite the charges made sgainst me I believe I have not violated any of the piedges I made before election. I have endeavored to perform the duties of the Mayor's office to the best of my ability and knowl-edge, and to do the things that the citi-mens of Seattle chose me to do. I still am a firm believer in personal liberty, in so far as the liberty taken does not interfere with the personal welfare of the tediretimals." the individuals."

centrate his battle below the Bronz, believing that he will be able to split the Democratic vote nearly in half. Hearst's strength has always been the most pronounced in New York City, while up-state he has invariably made a pitiful showing. The league will make little effort to secure votes in the rural sections and will therefore have more money to spend in the city. The Republican campaign will really open Friday night, when a meeting will be held at Carnegie Hall, under the auspless of the Republican Club. Seth Low is to preside, and the orators will include Candidate for Governor Stimson.
