BROADWAY BRIDGE BOND IN-JUNCTION TO BE FOUGHT.

North East Side Improvement Club Takes Up Campaign-Hard Work Required in Preparing Papers.

H. H. Riddell, C. W. Fulton and Mar-tin L. Pipes, attorneys representing the North East Side Improvement Club, are North East Side Improvement Club, are to assist the City Attorney in the hearing to be given the Broadway bridge bonds injunction before the State Supreme Court on October 20. M. G. Muniy, president of the North East Side Improvement Association, will also be present at the hearing, and in an interview yesterday he said he believed other attorneys will volunteer their services in behalf of the city.

It is the plan of the improvement club

It is the plan of the city.

It is the plan of the improvement club to do all in the power of the members to get the Supreme Court to admit of an early sale of the bonds, according to Mr. Munly, who is affiliated with the

"I have entire faith in the Supreme Court," said Mr. Munly yesterday, "and I feel confident that when the case is presented to the members the injunc-tion will be dissolved."

The bonds, after they are accepted by the buyers, will draw interest at the rate of $27.78 a day, and the city is sub-ject to lose this in case the court re-

...... BUT FIVE DAYS LEFT FOR

TARDY VOTERS. Although it usually requires the services of four or five and some-times six deputies to keep up with the registration of voters in Multnomah County, one deputy clerk has been able to do all the work since the books opened after the primary election last month.

There are but five more days until the books close, yet only 83 voters registered yesterday. There were 59 Republicans, eight Democrats and 18 miscellaneous. The books close at 5 P. M., October 17.

fuses the delivery of the bonds. A bond of $5000 has been filed with the Supreme Court in connection with the application for the temporary injunction that has been issued, but whether this is simply to cover the cost of the case, or is to meet any bill for damages that may arise as a result of the injunction in case the city wins the contest is not understood by local attorneys on the

It was said yesterday by Mr. Munly that it will keep the attorneys who are working on the case busy up to October 20 in getting their arguments pre-

FENDER PROTEST IS MADE

Horace Tillard Jones Asks Judge to Instruct Grand Jury.

Charging that District Attorney Cameron has been "strangely acquies-cent" in the matter of requiring the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company to equip its cars with ade-quate fenders, Horace Tillard Jones yesterday addressed a letter to State Circuit Judge Cleland, asking that the omissions of the streetcar company be called to the attention of the October grand jury by instructions from the

Mr. Jones charges that District Attorney Cameron falled to take notice of his first complaint against fenders, made last August. At a later date, Mr. Jones asserts, he was asked for a list company to supply safety devices. Mr. Jones says that he furnished a list of people who had been injured, but that none of them has been summoned before the grand jury.

Mr. Jones contends that the Nelson fender, recommended last week by the City Council street committee, is not a compilance with the state law on the subject. He asserts that all the street rallway company has ever been re-quired to do was "almost" adopt a safety fender which would be ade-quate to protect life.

FUNERAL RITES MASONIC

Grand Lodge Escorts Body of John M. Hodson to Cemetery.

With highest Masonic honors, the remains of the late John M. Hodson were buried in Riverview Cemetery yesterday afternoon. Meeting at the Masonic Temple, West Park and Yamhill streets, the grand lodge of Oregon marched in a body to the Scottish Rite Catherdal. A eulogy was pronounced by S. M. Yoran, of Eugene, a former business associate of Mr. Hodson. The lodge then escorted the body to Riverview Cemetery, where it was interred.

The honorary pallbearers were John B. Cleland, S. M. Yoran, B. Van Dusen, J. C. Moreland, P. S. Malcolm, D. P. Mason, E. E. Kiddle, Norris Cox and W. E. Grace.

THE HORSE SHOW

Interests Business Houses. The business homes of Fortland have shown much interest in the coming Horse Show. Sherman, Clay, & Co. have by far the most attractive window. It is worth a special trip down town to see it. In the background of course are beautiful pianos but the greater portion of the window is given over to a very effective dieplay well calculated to help popularize the Horse Show.
