Soldiers Gone From Streets, but Portugal Is Still Under Martial Law.

IRISH MONKS CAN STAY

Provisional Government Trying to Curry Favor With England by Move—Compulsory Military Service Next Step.

LISBON, Oct. 11.—Although the city remains under martial law, pending a reorganization of the administration, the soldiers have been gradually withdrawn from the streets. Hardly any were to be seen today. The people have resumed their occupations and tranquility prevails. Several churches were reopened this morning.

Guards have been supplied to those establishments of the religious orders that are still occupied and are flying foreign flags to prevent possible attacks. The Papal Nuncio, Monsignor Tosti, has hoisted the Austrian flag over his residence at Cintra, but there was no sign today of hostile demonstrations.

Irish Clergy Exempt.

The government has announced that the Irish Dominican fathers and nuns, who have conducted a school here for many years, will be exempted from the order of expulsion. This step doubtless is due to the desire of the Republicans to keep on good terms with Great Britain.

It is said that Foreign Minister Machado has requested Great Britain to grant immediate recognition to the new regime, ostensibly so that it will be in a position to communicate its full programme to the British government.

Casualty List Not Large.

The casualty list from the recent fighting falls below the most moderate estimates. The official estimate gives the number killed as between 180 and 250. Unofficial estimates place the number still lower.

One of the plans attributed to the organizers of the coup d'etat on October 5, when King Manuel was visiting the Premier in the northernmost province of the kingdom. It was arranged that the king bearing the king should continue through the frontier and the soldiers there would prevent the king from re-entering Portugal.

Ministers Were to Be Taken.

In the meantime the ministers who had assembled in a body at the station to see the king off, were to be surrounded and arrested after the departure of the train. The republic was then to be proclaimed.

The provisional government has taken possession of the houses of several religious bodies. No opposition was met. The contents were inventoried and the houses sealed.

It has been decided to issue a decree enforcing compulsory military service. Brazillio Telles has declined the portfolio of finance and the duties of this post have been temporarily undertaken by Foreign Minister Machado. Eventually Jose Relvas probably will be appointed to this office.

MONKS FLOCK TO FRONTIER

Spanish Government Will Seek to Prevent Invasion.

MADRID, Oct. 11.—Spanish monks and nuns who have fled from Lisbon are arriving at Vigo, Badajoz and other points on the frontier. At Badajoz, on the order of a bishop, the nuns are sequestered at the Carmelite convent. Owing to pending legislation affecting the religious orders, the influx of refugees is embarrassing to the Spanish government.

Premier Canalejas said today that the government was moved to pity to receive the exiles but that a permanent invasion could not be tolerated.

FILMS GO TO TUMWATER

Olympia Major Bars Fight Pictures, Which Seck Suburb.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Mayor Mitchell Harris, of Olympia, says the Johnson-Jeffries pictures cannot be shown in Olympia. Friday night, as scheduled, but the promoters are now trying to show them at Tumwater, which is easily reached by streetcar from Olympia.

Mayor Harris was waited upon today by a delegation asserting that it represented the Olympia Ministerial Association and the Olympia School Board. The delegation demanded that he refuse to let the pictures be shown. Mayor Harris, who is a candidate to succeed himself as Mayor at the Fall election, late in the afternoon decided to put the ban on them.

This set the showmen to work and they sent Mayor of Tumwater, an Olympia suburb, will have no such qualms concerning the morals of Tumwater.

TRAIN JUMPER IS INSANE

Bank Is Uncertain About Validity of His $600 Travelers' Checks.

ROSEBURG, Or., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—William Booth, the young man who attempted to jump from a fast moving Southern Pacific passenger train near Leiland late Sunday night, and who was taken in custody by the Glendale officers and brought to Roseburg, was adjudged insane by the County Physician today.

Although he carried over $600 in travelers' checks, payable at First National Bank of Great Falls, Montana, all telegrams sent to that city have been ignored, other than a reply from the cashier of the bank, who said that he might have funds there, but he did not know. Local officers say they intend to investigate the case thoroughly that the money may be returned to his parents in the event they can be located.

Naming of Committees Monopolized. Interest of Those Who Will Draft Laws.

PHOENIX, Arizona, Oct. 11.—Two brief sessions of the constitutional convention permitted little to be done today beyond the developing of a difference of opinion among the delegates relative to the degree of elasticity with which to endorse the rules which shall govern procedure.

The rules committee debated the question all day and meantime the interest of the delegates centered upon the personnel of the committees which will shape the main features of the constitution. The members of these committees will be named tomorrow.

Those which monopolized the interest of the delegates are the legislation committee, which will have charge of all proposals, which will have charge of all initiative and referendum, and the committee on executive impeachment, which will shape the constitutional provision dealing with the recall.

Arizona Democrat Speaks for Initiative and Referendum.

SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 11.—The adoption of the thirty reports of the committee on rules and a speech by Delegate H. B. Ferguson, Democrat, of Bernalillo County, denouncing corporate interests, were the principal features of the afternoon session of the constitutional convention in session here today.

Mr. Ferguson introduced a minority report of the committee on rules, signed by the Democratic members of the committee. This report failed of adoption. Mr. Ferguson then charged that corporate interests were at work in the convention and made a speech in favor of the initiative and referendum.

WILLIAM KUNZE, WHO STOLE PAINTING, SENT TO PRISON.

Efforts of Women to Have Sentence Suspended in Vain, and Judge Gives Him Two Years.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—William Kunze, who first attracted public attention some months ago by stealing the Millet picture from the Golden Gate Park gallery, appeared in Judge George Cabanis' department of the Superior Court today and in spite of the pleading of women and the suggestions of Assistant District Attorney Layne, was sentenced to serve two years in state prison.

The women assured the judge of their belief that Kunze's violation of his parole, consisting of stealing saws, was due to hunger, and promised that if the court would let the probationer go once more they would see to it that he never would suffer hunger again.

Judge Cabanis declared that to do so in this case would be a very bad effect on the thirty other probationers, giving them the idea that they might be let off easily. He then turned to Kunze and asked him how he got to San Francisco from Oakland to steal the tools. The culprit admitted that he had ridden on the car to the ferry and crossed.
