

hold that the Bible is the Word of God, verbally inspired and supernaturally as-sembled and transmitted, and those who hold the modern view. There is less and less standing-room for these who equivo-cate or who deceive themselves and oth-ers by double meanings of words. The truth is, the Bible is not a book, but a collection of books. The truth is, that these books vary greatly in moral and spiritual value. "The truth is that there is no adequate evidence for the traditional view of the Ecriptures. live' is verbally inspired, then all the work for the alleviation and cure of in-sanity during the past 50 years is 'un-scriptural.' "thou shalt not miffer a witch to Psalms Are Cited.

"If the imprecatory panima are verbal-ly inspired, you have "scriptural warrant" for the meanest possible ventreasts by inspired, you have scripture of the meanest possible veugrance. "The truth is, that the Bible is the in-complete record of the religious progress of a people, and especially the utterances of a people, and their great and often may-and lives of their great and often may-tyred leaders. It has the limitations and the glories of its origin. And the glories infinitely surpass the limitations and we are not likely ever to get beyond its su-prement truths. The whole impresses one with an idea of truthfulness. The whole is fundamental in "Third, the Bible is fundamental in thinking forefathers that the Bible, bound in pigekin and held together by heavy brass clasps, had been handed down in that particular form to Moses. "The modern critical and destructive view is that the Bible, for the most part, is the product of uninspired pens. They even manage to read between the lines and find the evidences of abso-lutely unknown and fictificus writers. "The third view is the rational tradi-tional view which recognizes the Bible ference between these two organizations is the persistent attitude of the state committee in conducting a onetional view which recognizes the Bible as God's word given to us through the man campaign in the interest of West for Governor to the exclusion of all consideration for any of the candidates on the county ticket. This position, from which the state committee will not recede, has stirred up much turmoil among the county as God's word given to us through the vehicle of human speech. "We know the history of the old documents, which date back within a few centuries of the autograph copies. We know the history of the formation of the canon and we know the story of the Marsocretes. "We believe the Bible, first, because of its unity. The various writers liv-ing through a period of 1500 years, each a stranger to the other, agreed as to the character of God and had one purpose in view. not exactly rebelled, are not showing the enthusiasm for West that the oneman campaign promoters would like to see As a result of the condition, and Sat-as to the character of dos an an an array of the second, the Bible portrays human character in a way that is true to life. Our heroes and heroines are 'just too good to live." "The sacred narrator tells us that the sacred narrator tells us that the second rest of the second urday night's meeting of the county committee did not serve to heal the sore

The sacred narrator tells us that David was indirectly a murderer, Solo-mon was a bigamisi, Abraham was a common liar, Moses had an ungovern-able temper, James and John moverncans. Now that the primaries have passed into history, there is a general disposition on the part of the Republi-cans to get together and support the entire ticket as nominated in the pri-mary nominating election. On the other hand events succeeding tonius Stradivarius Cremonesis, Facil-but Anno, 17," with the figures "21" added in ink. "A Cremona violin!" gasped Miss Smith, and her family and she had an excited conference. Visions of at least $10,000 floated before them, and they determined upon expert advice. Daniei H. Wilson, the organist and choirmaster of St. Mary's Cathollo Church, of Albina, was consulted, but he is more interested in pipe organs he is more interested in pipe organs and planos than violins, and he tool the prized violin to Charles M. Stow who took it from its brand-new case screwed up the remaining two violi strings and began to play. Mr. Stow shook his head dubiously. "I don" know about this violin," he said. "You violin "You expert." A visit was next paid to Ernest O.

Utterances of Rev. Morrison.

A visit was next paid to Ernest O. Spitzner, and when the project was explained to him, Mr. Spitzner's eyes glistened with pleasure. "We will soon see," he said. "Let me see the violin." One glance at the violin sufficed. "That is a fair imitation of a good Strad," remarked Mr. Spitzner, pleas-antly. "It's worth about $2.50, cash. It is factory work. I know one town in Saxony, Germany, where about 500, 000 similar violins are turned out every 000 similar violins are turned out every in operation another productive star will be comfort those wise enough now to become memadded to the crown of Idaho, and the gold and bers of the company bound to richly profit by the silver and the lead now hidden in its rocky the treasure we are already prepared to mine.

We Never Advertised a Share of Stock for Sale Until We Had Made This a Mine

When we secured the property, 53 weeks ago, it was but little developed. True, it was in the heart of a min-we are shooting 'way below the mark. A mining man of Tacoma, now in Portland, heard of the Swastika and visited the property. He took a full sack of its ore to the Tacoma smelter and had it tested there. The stuff was selected so that it would fairly represent the WHOLE mine, nearly as he could judge, and we have its smelter certificate showing its value to be $78.43 to the ton. If it be a fact that the mine will average that high, and this man is confident it will, there can be no doubt that the returns will be all of 250 per cent profit on our stock. The mining man referred to, whose name may be learned at this office, thought so well of the property that he has since bought 10,000 shares of Swas-tika stock. In our present equipment we have 5 mules and their harness, a saddle horse and saddle, houses for our men, stables for our stock, blacksmith's outfit, drills, pleks, shovels, axes, saws, wheelbarrows, air pipes oper-ated by water power, car track and ore cars, etc., as required for mining purposes, all paid for, and

The would certainly clear the air if it would certainly clear the air if every preacher and pricest in Christen-dom could be required to answer pub-licly and unequivocally the following questions: First-do you believe that the Bible is the word of God, worhally in-spired and miraculously preserved and transmitted? Second-De you believe that the Bible is the word of God, but not verbally inspired and miraculously pro-tected? If so, just what, clearly, do you mean by the expression 'Word of God? If on, do you mean that it is the word of truth, and in that sense the Word of God? If on, do you mean that every word in the Bible is true? But if you do not believe that every word in the Bible is true, just what do you mean by calling it the Word of God? Do you mean by calling it the Word of God? Do you mean that it contains the truth? But this is megsurably true the truth? But this is measurably true of many other books. Third, do you ac-cept the modern view of the Bible?

Why Is Modern View Opposed?

"But if the case for the modern view of the Elbie is half as overwhelmingly clear and strong as modern scholarship has made it, why are the majority of Christians opposed to the modern view of the Elble? I am afraid it is because they are faithful children of tradition and really do not know what modern they are failful childred of the modern and really do not know what modern scholarship has done. I am afaird that they have been brought up to believe that it is wicked even to read the other aids. less they be tempted. "But there is another reason which much the consciences of many

But there is another reach which ought to touch the consciences of many who hold the modern view of Scripture. These who hold the old view of Scripture have too often observed that many of those who hold the modern view are shallow in their religious life and weak in their church loyalty. The actions of in their church loyalty. The actions of tee many who are emancipated on the merely intellectual side of religious life, tend to confirm the opinions of the tra-ditionalistic Degmatics and secularism are mutually propagative. Berne diffonance. Degenators and sectors and are mutually propagative. Better even Bourbonism that somehow menages to keep some of the most precious values of the Bible, than the best of scholarship; in any case where it has managed some-how to lose those values.

Few Take Firm Stand.

deur to the high order of its avowed in-tent, even the revealing of God. "This unique book makes the unique claim. It claims to be the word of God. One of its writers speaking of others whose books he possessed, dechired. "Holy men of old spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." "Their is a most embarrance claim for 'Many a man will hpplaud Dr. Morri-"Many a man will appliant of adort som who will not lift a finger to support him, or the view which he holds, nor will they give the least sign of where they stand on an issue that is of almost inconceivable importance in its implications for or against the moral and spirit-ual progress of mankind. "Nothing but indifference, ignorance, cowardies or duplicity, one or another of these four, can possibly explain any longer the failure of every seriously-minded man or woman to declare by his utterances, his church allegiance, his ac-tions; whether he stands with the tra-ditionalists in an attitude negative, deatractive and irreverent of the deepest intellectual pictics, or with the Unitar-ians and the Tree Christians' and 'Mod-erinsts' of every "church in an attitude erinsts of every church in an artifude positive, constructive and devout; with the strict traditionalists, or with Father Tirrell, Adolf Harnack, Canon Henson, Philip Brooks, Dr. Parkhurst, Hugh Black, George A. Gordon, Lyman Abbot, President Harper.

Modernists Stand Together.

tire.

Lakeview Gets First Snowfall.

The primaries have served only further to estrange the factions within the Democracy. There always has been more or less strife in this county among the Democrats between the state and county organizations. That state and county organizations. That feeling has been seriously aggravated by the determination of the state or-ganization to center its efforts in be-half of West and let the county com-mittee rustle for itself and its candidates. County Chairman Thomas has ar-

Ged.' "Fifth, the Bible brings God down to man. It explains to us why God was made man and why he dwelt on earth; that 'on him the Lord hath laid the in-iquity of us all.' "Sixth, the Bible lifts men to God through the mediation of Jesus Christ." ranged to open the campaign in this county on the part of the Democrats with a meeting in Woodmen Hall, St. Johns, Wednesday night. Bert E. Haney will be the principal speaker. Members of the Democratic legislative ticket have been invited to attend and make addresses. It is the intention of Chair-man Thomas, later in the week, to hold similar meetings at Lents and BIBLE DECLARED WORD OF GOD man Sunnyside. Dr. W. B. Hinson Takes Issue With mmitteemen who, while they have

Breach Growing Wider.

JUDGE LOWELL IN CAMPAIGN

Pendleton Spellbinder Offers Services to State Chairman.

Although Dr. W. B. Hinson, speaking in the pulpit of the White Temple yes-terday mortifug, did not refer to Dr. Morrison by name, his sermon on "The Elble as the Word of God," was with-out doubt called forth by Dr. Morrison's utterness. Dr. Hinson and the arti-

Before the campaign is over, peo-ple in different sections of the Wil-lamette Valley will be given an op-portunity to hear Stephen A Lowell, of Pendleton. State Chairman Notting-ham yesterday received the following batter from Index Lowell. utterances. Dr. Hinson said in part: The Bible is a unique book, consist-ing of 66 books, written by 40 or 50 difing of 66 books, written by 40 or 50 df-ferent writers, extending over a period of some 15 centuries, and marvelously preserved during these 19 centuries since its last line was written; and written by men diverse in life as in expression, bines and finkermen, professional men have promised Governor Bower-man that I will render you such as-sistance as possible in the forthcom-ing campaign, and I wish you would be kind enough to have your secretary by men diverse in life as in expression, kings and fishermen, professional men and men of labor, retaining their peculiar characteristics, and therefore varying in style, yet all uniting in producing a volume whose subject is one-namely, the relation of God to man. in charge of the speaking campaign communicate with me, advising what the present plans may be that I may endeavor to adjust my private affairs so that I can give a week or ten days the relation of God to man. "It is the best textbook of God and of man the world knows today, and its style rises up in its simple massive gran-deur to the high order of its avowed in-tent even the evention of God.

so that I can give a week of ten mays to the work." Just as soon as Secretary Mason can ascertain definitely the time Judge Lowell can give to the committee, ap-pointments will be made for the East-ern Oregon man at a number of West-ern Oregon points. The state commitern Oregon points. The state commit-tee has received requests from a num-her of the principal towns in the Wil-lamette Valley asking that Judge Lowell be named to address them.

REPUBLICAN RALLY IN POLK

Enthusiasm Indicates Success for Entire Ticket.

moved by the Holy Ghost." "This is a most embarrassing claim for any book to make for it will prove a dif-ficult thing to so speak as to keep such a pretentious claim from becoming pal-pably ridiculous and unsupported. Yet does this book so acquit itself of its high task, as to necessitate by its super-iority to all its competitors, the inspir-ation which it claims for itself. "And this unique book making the unique claim, exists all owing to its own statement for a unique purpose; that pur-pose being the establishment of righ con-victions between the soul of man and his God. What proved the biggest political rally ever held in Polk County was conducted by the Republicans at Falls City Saturday night. Walter L. Tooze was chairman of the meeting, which was addressed by Colonel E. Hofer, T. B. Kay, Mayor George F. Rodgers great mission, says: This is written that ye mission believe that Josus is the Hawley, of McCoy: I. C. Powell, of Christ, and that believing ye might have Monmouth, and E. N. Smith, of Dallas.

The enthusiasm displayed indicates a united Republican party and presages the election of the ticket.

Sentiment for Bowerman in Polk year. I also know of one factory de-voted exclusively to the manufacture of 'fake' violin labels." Somebody in South Portland gave a sigh just then.

LODGING-HOUSE PROPRIETORS MUST PROVIDE OFFICER.

Chief Cox Decides That Patrons of North End Hotels Shall Be Protected.

Frequency of reported robberles from the Eagle house and other lodging-houses in the vicinity of Third and Burnside streets forced Chief of Police Cox to issuc yesterday an ultimatum to George Simpson, proprietor of the Eagle house, that he and the other landlords of the vicinity must provide at their own ex-pense a special officer, selected by the Chief, to prevent the thefts. The Chief realized that the order is mithed his power but it to backed by without his power, but it is backed by the alternative that he will, in default of its being complied with place an of-ficer at the entrance of the lodging houses to warn all guests that their val-uables are not safe if they lodge in any of the houses.

Four lodging-houses, on the four corners of Third and Burnside streets, are affected by the order. From each of them have come many complaints of men being robbed while they slopt. The most recent case was one in which Simpson himself was accused of the theft, but he was discharged by the court. It was proved, however, at the trial, that some-one entered one of the rooms of the Eagle house and stole $35 from Herman Hall, a lodger, while he stort. Hill de-clared that he awoke to find Simpson in the room and Mrs. Simpson standing at the door. Simpson showed that he had gone to the room to order the light extinguished.

Simpson agreed to lay the matter be-fore the landlords, and intimated that the order would be compiled with.

AUTOS CRASH: 1 WRECKED

Jack Rapps, Chauffeur of Taxi, Has Narrow Escape.

In an automobile accident at Fifteenth and Everett streets last night Jack Rapps, a chauffeur for the Portland Taxicab Company, received savere bruises and the car he was drivinf was almost totally wrecked. Rapps was driving down Everett street at the rate of 10 miles an hour, he says, when a big touring car owned by Philip Lowengart, coming up Fifteenth street. Towengart, coming up riteenth areet, collided with the taxicab, shunting it with great force against a telephone pole. The tonneau and rear part of the taxi-cab ware smashed almost in twein. There were no passengers in the taxi-shaking up. Besides the driver there was one pas "The modernists in all the churches may differ in many ways, and may justi fy to their own consciences their respec-tive denominational loyalties, each in his

Rapps escaped with only a bad enb.

When we secured the property, 53 weeks ago, it was not fittine developed. Truck it was in the heart of a mini-ing district, rich as the richtest of the earth, and ever examined the property expressed the property expressed in the second second second second second the truck of the second second second second second second the truck of the second second second second second second the deal that transferred its ownership. But he would set the deal that transferred its ownership. But he would second the deal that transferred its ownership. But he would second the deal that transferred its ownership. But he would be deal that transferred its ownership. But he would applied according to some owner what this means. It is provide the president of these weat this means is the provide the president of the company of the second second to the deal that transferred its ownership. But he would be deal that transferred its ownership. But he would be deal that transferred its ownership. But he would be deal that transferred its ownership. But he would be deal that transferred its ownership. But he would be deal that transferred its ownership. But he would be deal that transferred its ownership. But he would a second second second second the second second second second primes when develop second second second second second second primes as the second second second second second second second primes as the second se

A 20-ACRE TOWNSITE WORTH $20,000, LIME AND MARBLE LEDGE OF INESTIMABLE VALUE, A FINE 18-ROOM FURNISHED HOTEL, 2 WATER POWERS, 1500 FEET OF FLUME AND LARGE WATER TANK.

Stock in this company covers all these properties. Now that we have the corporation in this condition and the claims developed to the point where only ma-chinery is needed to make the Swastika immensely profitable, we are inviting the reader of these words to take our stock at 10 cents per share, cast his lot with us and share with us the prosperity we are confident must come to all. We believe it an extremely conservative estimate to predict that $150 invested in Swastika shares, at PRESENT prices, would pay the stockholder $1 every working day of the year, once we have our mill in running order. That same $150 would pay him $6 per,YEAR, if deposited in a bank. Many a man lives comfortably on $1 per day.

Our Shares Are Non-Assessable

And there is no forfeiture of any monies paid us for stock. For example, if the reader should Indeed, we would scorn to make heavier the subscribe for, say, 5000 shares, payable on in- burdens of that person overtaken by adversity stallments (or for any other number), and it and unable to carry his contract to completion. should happen that he could not complete pay- No honest, fair-minded man would harbor such ments as originally agreed, stock will be issued a thought.

for all installments this company has received.

This is a big, rich mining proposition, and as square a deal as was ever known

SHARES 10 CENTS EACH

We sell on installments of one-quarter down and one-quarter per month, because these payments will meet our obligations and result in the same as cash to us.

The Swastika Mining & Development Co.

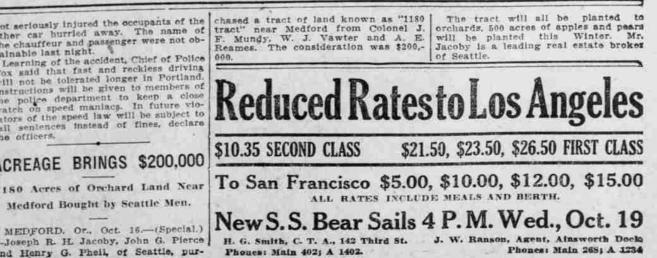

220 Drexel Building, Southwest Corner Second and Yamhill Streets, Portland, Or. Office Open Wednesday and Saturday Evenings.

Phone Main 8726.

J. B. PURCELL, Pres.; C. J. DONDERO, Sec.-Treas.; G. H. MARTIN, Counsel; J. L. Wells, H. W. Manning, C. W. Dowsing and R. L. McCumsey, Directors. See our next ad. in Thursday's Oregonian.

not seriously injured the occupants of the other car hurried away. The name of the chauffeur and passenger were not ob-tainable last night. tainable last night. Learning of the accident, Chief of Police Cox said that fast and reckless driving will not be tolerated longer in Portland. Instructions will be given to members of the police driven by the second the police department to keep a close watch on speed maniacs. In future vio-lators of the speed law will be subject to juil semiences instead of fines, declare the officers.

ACREAGE BRINGS $200,000 1180 Acres of Orchard Land Near Medford Bought by Scattle Men.

A