

SENATOR'S DEATH WIDELY MOURNED

Funeral Services of Dolliver to Be at Fort Dodge on Thursday.

PUBLIC MEN PAY TRIBUTE

Widow Receives Telegrams of Sympathy From Taft and Others of Promise—Senator Is Hopeful, Until Demise.

FORT DODGE, Ia., Oct. 16.—Funeral services for Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver will be held on Thursday at 2 o'clock, it was announced today. The suddenness of Mr. Dolliver's death yesterday from heart disease, while a physician was listening to the irregular beats of the organ with a stethoscope, took everyone so much by surprise that some of the funeral arrangements were only tentative.

According to plans, the obsequies will be in charge of Rev. W. H. Spence, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Fort Dodge; Bishop Luther B. Wilson, of Pennsylvania; Dr. Frank Gonsalus, of Chicago; Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of New York City, and Governor B. F. Carroll of Iowa, have been invited to make funeral orations for the senior Senator of Iowa.

Funeral Services May Be on Lawn. If the weather is good on Thursday the services will be held on the lawn of the Dolliver home. If this is not feasible, the orations will be delivered in the First Methodist Church.

Burial will be in Oakland Cemetery, Fort Dodge, by the side of Senator Dolliver's parents.

Senator A. P. Cummins arrived today to assist the family and to aid in carrying out the arrangements for the funeral. Everybody in Fort Dodge is in mourning today for the Senator's family.

Senator Was Hopeful. Mr. Dolliver had spoken hopefully of his recovery to District Judge R. M. Wright, who called to ask after the Senator's health.

During the afternoon Senator Dolliver took a walk in his garden, which had been one of his pleasures. He seemed normal in appearance and talked to several callers in the shade of a large tree, where he had formerly rehearsed many of the speeches that had made him famous as an orator.

To those who called, the Senator talked pleasantly and optimistically. He repeatedly expressed the belief that he would soon be completely recovered. He even spoke incidentally of some plans for the future.

Hundreds of telegrams of sympathy poured in on Mrs. Dolliver today from all parts of the country. Nearly every member of both houses of Congress sent condolences. Messages also came from most of the Governors and from the President, Cabinet officers and public men.

CONDOLENCES SENT BY TAFT

Senator Dolliver's Death Is Great Loss, Says President.

BEVERLY, Mass., Oct. 16.—President Taft today sent the following telegram to Mrs. Dolliver: "Mrs. Taft and I extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in your great sorrow. The Senate has lost one of its ablest debaters and most brilliant statesmen. The country has lost a faithful public servant."

Senators Will Attend Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Vice-President Sherman has designated the following members to act as a committee from the United States Senate to attend the funeral of the late Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, at Fort Dodge, on Thursday, October 20, at 2 P. M.: Senators Cummins, Bailey, Elkins, Paynter, Nelson, Burrows, Keam, Clapp, Beveridge, Shively, Burckett and Money.

DEMOCRAT OUTLOOK GOOD

dominated in Congress, one is in danger of defeat, and one of the arguments who won the nomination over a regular is facing a hard fight. The rest of the Republican ticket seems reasonably safe. F. C. Rockefeller, cousin of John D., is the Democratic nominee who is opposing the doubtful insurgent.

All six districts in Maryland are in doubt, and likely to be close. Michigan has three seats in the balance, one represented by Edwin Denby, a member of the Pinchot-Bullinger committee; another by Joe Fordney, lumber baron who is a member of the Pacific Northwest; Fordney is a member of the Ways and Means Committee, an extreme protectionist, and is threatened because of his work on the Payne-Aldrich bill. All three doubtful districts in Michigan are now Republican.

Representative Tawney was defeated for re-nomination by an insurgent. In the primary campaign Clifford Pinchot, James R. Garfield, and other outsiders "buted in" and worked against Tawney. This has caused considerable resentment among Tawney's friends, and in consequence it is found that the Democratic nominee has more than an even chance of election. One Democrat and one other insurgent Republican in Minnesota are facing possible defeat.

Four districts in Missouri, now Republican, may swing back into the Democratic column in November, and in Nebraska two more Republicans are said to be in danger, one of them, Geo. W. Norris, being the leader of the House insurgents, and the man who forced Speaker Cannon off the Committee on Rules. The chances favor the re-election of Norris. New Hampshire presents a single doubtful district, now Republican.

No one is as yet venturing predictions on the probable outcome in the 13 doubtful districts in New York. The state campaign will have marked effect on the insurgent fights in all these districts. All doubtful districts are at present represented by Republicans, Hamilton Fish and Herbert Parsons, insurgents, being among those who may not be returned.

Three Republican and two Democratic districts in North Carolina are doubtful. Great interest will center around the fight in Ohio, the President's state, and also the state which is putting forth a likely candidate for the next Democratic Presidential nomination, Governor Harmon. The result in Ohio this year will be important, and it is found that nine districts, four of them now only Republican in name, are in danger. J. SOCIETY LEADER'S TWO BEAUTIFUL DAUGHTERS WHO FIGURE IN ART STORY WHICH ASTOUNDS LAUREA CITY.

ART WORK WORRIES

All Washington Gazes on Barney Home Figure.

NUDE STATUARY COVERED

Crowds of Curious Gather About Capital City Residence to See Masterpiece—Mother Denies Her Daughter Posed for Statue.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Not since the advent of Kuhne Beveridge's work of art, "The Vampire," has society been wrought up as at the present time over the controversy as to who posed for the recumbent nude figure which was recently received here at the beautiful Barney home on Massachusetts avenue.

Mrs. A. C. Barney has denied that her youngest daughter, Natalie, posed for this magnificent work of art. Be that as it may, all social Washington is stirred over the piece of statuary which is occupying a most prominent place in the Barney home garden. In fact, this figure has attracted so much attention this past week that the Barneys were compelled to cover it.

With the return of those who annually make Washington their winter home, crowds have been seen strolling in the vicinity of the Barney residence, one of the most beautiful in the capital, that they might catch a glimpse of the much-talked-of figure of marble.

Laura Barney, the sculptress, has ably followed the footsteps of her mother in painting and sculpturing. In fact, the mother and her beautiful daughter have almost given up entertaining as of yore, but they are devoting their time to art for the love of the same.

It was not the artistic excellence of the figure which created the sensation in the case, but the fact that it was supposed to have been modeled from the figure of Miss Barney's sister, Natalie, who is well known in society here.

The work is entitled "Miss Barney Rising from the Bath," but it might have been and all Washington is sitting up and taking notice, as it stands exposed to public view in the Barney home yard.

What the Barneys will finally do with the statue remains to be seen and a decision is anxiously awaited by Washington's "W" and more.

ATTACK MADE CAPITAL

ANTI-LIQUOR MEN ACCUSED OF SEEKING PUBLICITY.

Pendleton "Wet" Leaders Say Ministers Planned Egg Incident for Press-Agent Purposes.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Alleging that the disturbance outside the Oregon Friday night when eggs of doubtful antiquity were aimed at the ministers, was in itself deliberately occasioned by the Portland ministers for press agent purposes, a number of Pendleton business men have been engaged today in collecting data for a signed statement.

According to members of the Home Rule Association the prohibitionists stationed themselves outside the theater when people came out stirred by the eloquence of the Home Rule speaker, Clarence Darrow. They are known to have told persons to "wait for there will be some fun." Indeed this same statement was made in churches today regarding street meetings this afternoon.

It is said that even when it was seen the temper of the crowd was changing from good-humored tolerance to sheer bad temper, the anti-liquor men kept on. Now they make no secret of the fact that they will tell the Pendleton story wherever the fight for prohibition is being waged. There is a strong feeling in Pendleton against the action of the Portland ministers endeavoring to make capital of an incident deplored by all.

250 MILE FLIGHT MADE

AVIATORS, WITH PASSENGERS, GO FROM PARIS TO BRUSSELS.

Wynmalen Makes Nearly Half of Distance on Return Trip to French Capital in One Day.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—Henry Wynmalen, the Dutch aviator, and holder of the world's altitude record, and M. LeGagneux, the French aviator, each with a passenger, made remarkable trips in balloons today from Paris to Brussels. They started an hour and a half apart, in an attempt to win the $50,000 offered by the Auto Club and the $50,000 offered by the municipality of Paris, for a successful flight with a passenger to Brussels and return.

Wynmalen, after reaching the Belgian capital, left almost immediately on the return trip and arrived safely this evening at St. Quentin. LeGagneux decided to stop for the night in Brussels and will start for Paris early tomorrow morning.

The distance between the two points is about 170 miles as the crow flies, and the distance between Brussels and St. Quentin approximately 80 miles. The daring Hollander therefore covered about 250 miles with a passenger.

On the trip to Brussels both aviators were landing at St. Quentin to replenish their gasoline. Wynmalen made a second landing a little further along to inquire the way. The weather was ideal and the trip was without incident. Wynmalen covered the distance to Brussels in 6 hours, 28 minutes. LeGagneux, with only one stop, made it in five hours.

CAESAREAN SECTION WINS

Successful Is Operation at St. Vincent's When Twins Are Born.

Scores of prominent Portland physicians, surgeons and nurses, witnessed a successful Caesarean section at St. Vincent's hospital yesterday morning, when twins—a boy and a girl—were born to Mrs. Albert Wagner of Beaver-ton.

One of the physicians said the time from the beginning of the incision until the babies were delivered was less than one minute. The entire operation was completed in 20 minutes, and the boy weighs seven pounds, and the girl five and a half pounds.

This is the operation by which, history states, Julius Caesar was brought into the world. From this theory it derives its name. The operator suggested that Mrs. Wagner name the boy Julius and the girl Julia to commemorate the manner of their birth.

HURTZ CAPTURED; CONFESSION MADE

Slayer of Ketchel Says He Shot Pugilist in Self-Defense.

FARMER TAKES FUGITIVE

Ranch Hand Says He Ordered Champion to Throw Up Hands and on Refusal Shot to Keep From Being Killed.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 16.—Walter J. Hurtz, who shot and killed Stanley Ketchel yesterday, was captured at the home of Thomas Haggard, one mile from Nungava, Mo. Hurtz was taken to the Webster County Jail at Marshfield, where he is being closely guarded.

After being placed in his cell the prisoner made a confession in which he declared he shot Ketchel in self-defense. He said he ordered the prizefighter to throw up his hands and fired when Ketchel refused to obey.

Farmer Guards Sleeping Fugitive. Late last night, overcome with hunger and fatigue, Hurtz reached the home of Thomas Haggard, where he applied for a place to sleep and something to eat. His wife, given food and bed at that time Haggard had not heard of the shooting. Later he learned of the affair and also received a description of the slayer. For several hours, while Hurtz was sleeping, Haggard stood guard with a shotgun.

Shortly after 4 o'clock this morning Haggard secured the services of three neighbors and they awakened Hurtz at the point of a gun. They forced the man to roll up his sleeves and, finding a tattoo mark there, accused him of having killed Ketchel. The man then broke down and admitted the shooting. Later he was turned over to officers and taken to Marshfield.

Ketchel Insults Held as Cause.

Hurtz, in telling the story of the shooting, asserted that Ketchel made insulting remarks to Goldie Smith, a cook employed at the farm. He said words passed between Ketchel and himself and he then demanded that the pugilist throw up his hands. When the champion refused to do this, Hurtz declared he was so frightened, and Ketchel a revolver, that he fired and without fully realizing what he had done, fled.

Goldie Smith, the woman in the case, has been taken to the Webster County Jail and will be held pending an inquest, which will be held tomorrow.

Funeral services over the body of the fighter were held at the Elks' Club today and tomorrow the corpse will be taken to Grand Rapids, Mich., the home of Ketchel's parents.

Local officers assert that Ketchel's slayer tonight admitted that his real name was Walter Dipey; that his home was at Webb City, Mo., and that he was a deserter from the United States Army.

DYNAMITE RAZES HOUSE

LOS ANGELES SUBURB EXPLOSION IS MYSTERY.

Occupants of Honigman Home Escape and Say No Explosives in House—Stories Conflicting.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—This morning at 2:40 o'clock a terrific detonation, felt and heard in the heart of the city, a distance of six miles, shattered the home of Henry Honigman, in East Hollywood. About three minutes before neighbors had discovered the occupants, consisting of Honigman, his wife and two daughters, a flash of light from about the middle and fore the building in fragments, which the fire quickly consumed.

Neighbors declare they saw Honigman and two men playing cards in the house 15 minutes before the fire was discovered and saw them going to the barn with a lantern. He and his wife say they had been in bed all night. Honigman escaped fully dressed, and the others in their night clothes. He says he heard no explosion. John B. Fletcher, who helped build up the ruins of San Francisco after the fire, lives near the scene. He declares dynamite wrecked the house.

SYNOD SESSION ENDS

PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS SEE INDIANS AT CHURCH.

Moral Training in Public Schools Urged and Special Committee Appointed to Promote It.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—With Pastor temperance niammeeting held in the First Methodist Church, the largest auditorium in the city, the 29th annual session of the Presbyterian Synod of Oregon was brought to a close this evening. During the afternoon the local ministers and elders of the Presbyterian churches of Oregon were the guests of the Pendleton Commercial Association.

They were taken by automobile to the Tutuila Indian Mission on the Umatilla Reservation, where a meeting of Indians arranged and participated in by Indians was held for the benefit of the public schools. The spectacle of Indians singing and singing in their own language was an entirely new one for most of the visitors.

The business of the Synod was really closed last evening. This morning the visiting ministers were scattered among the different churches of the city. A thousand people attended the mass meeting tonight.

One of the advance steps taken by the Presbyterian Synod of Oregon was the appointment of a special committee on moral training in the public schools. The committee consists of Dr. J. B. Wilson of Portland Academy, the Rev. A. M. Williams of McMinnville and the Rev. J. J. Diven of Portland.

Rev. Mr. Williams, in discussing the proposed movement, said that nothing inconsistent with the constitution of democratic government is proposed. He did not speak for the Presbyterian committee, but personally, he felt that the Presbyterian church would be opposed to any effort to introduce definite religious instruction in the public schools of Oregon. But that the fundamental teachings of the Bible concerning God, human responsibility and the brotherhood of man, as taught in the Bible and the great moral masterpieces outside of Scripture could be taught to the perfection of a better citizenship, the only ground on which the measure is proposed.

ORIENT TOUR ENDS IN JAIL

Six German Musicians, Ignorant of English, Held at Bay City.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Six German musicians, who cannot speak a word of English, arrived on the steamer Mongolia today from Yokohama, and are being held by immigration authorities. When the vessel came in they were on the hurricane deck blowing away in the fog with no audience, as everybody was below eager to land.

It seems these six Teutons started to give them transportation to San out last year to make a tour of the Orient with their instruments. They

Curing Catarrh

Accept Our Advice and Try This Remedy at Our Risk

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membrane. The mucous membrane is, one may say, the interior lining of the body. Catarrh therefore may exist in any part of the system.

When the catarrhal poison attacks the mucous membrane, inflammation and congestion are produced and nature fails to throw off the accumulated poisons. The organ which has been afflicted ceases to perform its proper function as nature intended it should. The result is complication upon complication, which may lead to other even more serious afflictions.

We honestly believe Rexall Mucous-Tone will do wonders toward overcoming catarrh. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician who made a long study of catarrh, and his great success with this remedy was an enviable one.

We want you if you are a sufferer from catarrh in any form, to give Rexall Mucous-Tone a thorough trial. Use it with regularity and persistency for a reasonable time, then if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us, without question or formality we will hand back to you every cent you paid us. This is certainly the fairest offer that any one could make and should attest our sincerity of purpose. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Cor. Seventh and Washington Sts.
