Miss Keating Most Popular Young Woman.—Miss Molile Keating won the contest for the most popular young woman held in connection with the bazaar of the Holy Redeemer Church on Portland Boulevard and Dekum avenue, in Piedmont. The vote was counted at the close of the baznar Saturday night and was as follows: Miss Keating, 1800; Miss close of the baznar Saturday night and was as follows: Miss Keating, 1800; Miss Nannle Clark, 1400. Miss Keating is a member of Holy Redeemer Parish. She and Miss King conducted booths during the bazaar. Miss Gaville, of St. Mary's Parish, won the gold watch offered by the Sisters of Vancouver. All returns are not in for the piano contest and hence the winner is not yet known. At the close Saturday night there was a large attendance. Proceeds will not be known for several days, but a large sum was realized for improvement of the church property.

CARMEN ARE DISMISSED.—Thomas R. Rayburn and Ora Miller, motorman and conductor of the streetcar which collided with the automobile of Dr. Edna Timms, at Nineteenth and Flanders streets and caused her death, last Friday night, were arraigned in Municipal Court yesterday morning on a charge of mansisughter, but upon motion of the District Attorney were dismissed. Deputy District Attorney Hennessy said to the court that District Attorney Cameron, who attended the inquest, thought that no charge would lie against the car crew, although the Coroner's jury found that although the Coroner's jury found that the car was exceeding the speed limit. The dismissal is not a bar to further proceedings if the grand jury wishes to take the matter up.

SENTENCE MAY BE CHANGED. John Murphy, who recently pleaded guilty to a charge of assault with a revolver, was a charge of assault with a revolver, was sentenced by Presiding Circuit Judge Cieland to a year in the Penitentiary yesterday. But before the sentence had been entered, other information came to the court regarding the circumstances surrounding the case, and he ordered that Murphy be brought before him today for a change in the sentence. Murphy is said to have held up a young girl at the point of a revolver intending to rob her. She said she didn't have satything worth taking, so he is said to have allowed her to go. DR. THEMS' FUNERAL HELD.-Funeral services over the body of Dr. Edna Timms, which were held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday afternoon, were attended by as many persons as could crowd into the edifice. More than 100 stood throughout the services. Members of the medical proservices. Members of the medical pro-fession were present in large numbers. Floral offerings were unusually profuse. The services were conducted by Rev. Henjamin Young and Rev. Boudinot Seley pronounced the eulogy. The body was interred in Riverview Cemetery, be-side the body of Dr. Timms' father, who died several months ago.

Owners Ston For CEMERT PIPE Property owners in the Holgate-Kenliworth sewer district are signing a petition, asking the City Council to have the City Engineer prepare estimates for glazed cement-sewer pipes for that district. E. F. Moldenhauer is circulating the petition and up to resterday had secured the largest property owners in the district. Several property owners who had signed a petition asking for terra cotta haxe signed a statement to the effect that they signed that petition through a mis-understanding and now favor glazed cement pipe.

East Sine Has Orne House.—Under the auspices of the East Side Business afen's Club the present week is the build-ing trade week for that district of the city. Tonight no goods will be sold, but all stores and business houses are ex-pected to keep open house for their customers and friends. Proprietors and clerks will be present to show the peo-ple around and make demonstrations. At four of the larger business houses or-chestras will provide music between 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock, during which time the public will be made welcome.

DISORBYING POLICEMAN COSTS $50 .-Chris Killeen, one of the proprietors of the Oregon Cooperage Company, was fined $50 in Municipal Court yesterday, as the penalty for disobeying the orders as the penalty for disobeying the orders of Traffic Officer Sherwood at East Water and Morrison streets. Killeen was driving a team and attempted to go east on Morrison street after Sherwood had informed him that the passage was blocked. When the officer took charge of the team Killeen threatened to strike him with a 50-pound weight.

GRANT FIGHTS INJUNCTION.—City Attorney Grant left last night for Salem, where he will remain until after he appears before the Supreme Court Thursday to present arguments against the injunction restraining the city from issuing the Broadway bridge bonds. William C. Benbow, one of Mr. Grant's deputies, will assist him in preparing the argument and presenting it to the court. The hearing will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and will probably be completed in one day. "I have every reason to believe," said Mr. Grant yesterday, "that when the members of the Supreme Court learn the real conditions they will not continue the injunction against the city."

BOULEVARD DELAT IS REGRETED.—
Resolutions deploring the delay of the Park Board in carrying out its plan of acquiring land for the proposed boulevard system in South Portland were adopted by the United Improvement Clubs at a meeting held recently. A committee was appointed to take the matter up with the Board. It was the sense of the meeting that the delay on the part of the Board would endanger the city's right to valuable lands that have been donated to it.

HAS NO POWER TO CONDEMN TO EXTEND BELMONT STREET.

Court Refuses to Withdraw Injunction Restraining City From Interfering With Railway's Line.

United States Judge Bean yesterday overruled a motion to dissolve the proliminary injunction recently obtained against the City of Portland by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. This injunction restrained the City of Portland from condemning the right-of-way of the street railway company so as to extend, widen and pave Belmont street.

The city contended that it had the right to lay a street over the right-of-way because it did not interfere with the use of the street for railroad purposes. The court ruled that the city United States Judge Bean yesterday poses. The court ruled that the city ordinance would appropriate the prop-erty in its entirety and without resererty in its entirety and without reservation, not permitting the company the use of its tracks on land which it owned in fee simple. The court denied the city's right to condemn and allowed the injunction to stand until the case is decided on its merits.

"If the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company will agree to pave between the tracks of the road on Bel-

REGISTRATION BOOKS CLOSE.

Registration books closed last Registration for Multnomah County is 37,024. This figure will be increased by several hundred when the reports come in from notaries who have been registering in the out-lying districts of the county. The total is only 4604 more than the registration for 1908.

The registration yesterday included 680 names, 436 being Republicans, 124 Democrats and 120 miscellaneous. The total registration this year is now as follows: Republicans, 29,-649; Democrats, 5678; miscellaneous, 3197. ment street, there would be no further controversy," said City Attorney Grant

Mr. Grant explained that the city Mr. Grant explained that the city would go ahead and pave the street on each side of the right of way of the streetcar company, as by so doing there would be no infringement of the order of the court. He said that as far as the injunction proceedings are concerned, there was nothing more to do until the case was tried on its merits in court.

questions that have confronted them in their experiences.

The aim of the transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which issued the call for the gathering, is to lay before the business interests of the city the wonderful advantages possessed by Portland as a transportation and distributing center. That more general information on this vital subject and a consequent impetus to trade with outside points will result fro mine meeting is the belief of Chamber of Commerce officials. It is pointed out that this is a subject to shich very few local people have given proper investigation. It is one, it is shown, that daily affects the interests and future welfare of the entire community. The officials think that many merchants are not familiar with many of the advantages think that many merchants are not familiar with many of the advantages that they might enjoy in the transportation of goods and that they are consequently losing money.

While this session is primarily intended as one of education on already existing conditions, it is probable that some effort will be made to remedy such conditions as are shown to be at fault. Better knowledge of transportation

Better knowledge of transportation facilities, it is declared, will result in additional manufacturing establishments and the improvement of plants already established.

The jobbing trade of the city also presents a field of investment that might be utilized if merchants united to secure the best the railroads have to offer in the way of feather railroads.
