

DEMOCRATS BOLT; GO TO BOWERMAN

Josephine County Will Go Republican, Is Prediction.

NORTON OPEN IN SUPPORT

"We Have Had Enough of Bourne-ism in Oregon," Says State Senator and Democratic Leader at Grant's Pass.

JACKSONVILLE, Or., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Josephine County, supposed stronghold of the Democratic party in Oregon, will give to Jay Bowerman, Republican, candidate for Governor, one of the largest majorities ever extended to any candidate for state office in the history of the county.

This was the claim advanced today at Grant's Pass, the county seat of the leading Republicans, and the prediction was made in a speech by State Senator J. H. Norton, Democratic leader, at Grant's Pass. Mr. Bowerman was warmly received at Grant's Pass, where he spent several hours before coming to Jacksonville late this afternoon. Delegations of Republicans and Democrats met him at the depot and entertained him during his brief stay.

Owing to a blizzard in his campaign itinerary, he reached Grant's Pass ahead of time. The Republicans had arranged for a brass band and a street demonstration at 4 o'clock, but it was necessary for him to leave at 1 o'clock in order to reach Gold Hill and Jacksonville.

Democrats Bolt Ticket.

Careful canvassing of the voters of Josephine County has shown that the Republican party is entirely harmonious, but that dissatisfaction exists among the Democrats, because of the dictatorial methods of the Bourne-Chamberlain-West machine, which is regarded as having overstepped all limits of the present one-man campaign for Oswald West, the Bourne-Chamberlain nominee.

"For my part, I am supporting Jay Bowerman openly and actively," said J. H. Norton, State Senator, and Democratic leader. "As a man he stands for something. I have seen him in action in the State House where he was president. I decided then that he was the type of man Oregon needs for Governor. I regard him as a man who could accomplish things for the people if placed in the Governor's chair. I am a Democrat and intend to remain one, but I shall not be a party to any act that will tend to perpetuate Bourne. We have had enough Bourneism in this state. What we need is progression and not retrogression."

Enthusiasm Runs High.

On leaving Grant's Pass the head of the Republican ticket was accompanied to Gold Hill and later to Jacksonville by a delegation of leading Grant's Pass men, the list including J. F. Galbraith, Senator Norton, H. L. Truax, A. C. Hough, J. M. Anderson and H. C. Kinney.

There are 1000 Democratic voters in Josephine County and approximately 1600 Republican voters. The canvass just completed by the Republican committee, which was headed by the late Senator Norton, has shown that he would carry Josephine by about 100 votes above the normal Republican majority or a total majority of not less than 600 votes.

Attack on Bourne Resumed.

The public meeting called here in his behalf brought out an assemblage of voters that filled the opera-house to the doors. The meeting had not been advertised nor had it been known that he would speak until two hours before his arrival. A full carload of prominent Republicans from Medford came over to attend the meeting. In his speech tonight Mr. Bowerman dealt at some length with Jonathan Bourne, Jr., whose literature has been flooding this district for several years past. He said that Josephine learned of the real Bourne rather than the one they have met in flowery pamphlets through the mails.

"Bourne's opposition to me is not a matter of principle," said the speaker. "He wants to defeat me so that he can have in the Governor's chair a man of his own choosing. He wants to build into a machine to do his bidding the 3000 State appointees. The corrupting of men is an old game with him. Some corrupts with money and others through political preference. He wants a man in the Governor's chair who will pass out the patronage of the office so that it will later be of service to him. He is a senior Senator, who desires to succeed himself in the United States Senate. Jonathan Bourne knows that he cannot use me for any such purpose."

Facts Are His Weapons.

"I am a poor man and have to make my campaign without money, as it is right a campaign should be made. Let him use his money. I will fight him with cold facts. I should not pay so much attention to Bourne in my talk here tonight, except that Bourne is the issue to a large extent in this campaign, for Bourne and his Democratic political partner Chamberlain are the men behind the Democratic nominee. In these campaigns of his Bourne uses his money in many ways. He does not limit to the spending of such sums as $50,000 for circular letters. He buys up and subsidizes corruptible newspapers, and through them seeks to reach the voters and the people. I cannot express my contempt for such publications. I tell you this that you may know what is behind some of the bitter and strained attacks that have been made upon me and other Republican candidates by papers of that type."

Wildcat Banks Assailed.

He outlined his ideas on economy in the purchase of supplies for state institutions, and presented his plan for better protection of the depositors of banks.

Clergyman Cites Merry Time Enjoyed in Jail by Man Who Killed Conductor and Sees Danger in Discussing Case.

RIDGEFIELD, Wash., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—"Administration and Perversion of Justice," was the text of a sermon preached yesterday by Dr. James A. Dodds, of the local Presbyterian Church, the clergyman getting his theme from the killing of J. H. Stewart, a conductor, by Merle Fuller at Ridgefield, June 30. Fuller was acquitted by a Vancouver jury, the slayer winning on his plea of self-defense.

Dr. Dodds said in part: "A vile-tempered, profane and insolent fellow could grant a reverer in our streets places of business and in our homes and without reason or even excuse, in cold blood send a bullet to the heart of the man who dared say he was responsible for a recent freight train wreck."
