RATE GONFERENCE COMES TO NAUGH

Farmers Fail to Get Promise of Reduction on Wheat Shipped East.

RAILROAD MEN PRESENT

Representatives of Three Lines Tell Grain-Growers at Walla Walla Companies Cannot Stand Cut at the Present Time.

WALLA WALLA, Wash, Oct. 21.— (Special.)—Most disappointing was the conference of the railroad officials and the farmers held here today, in an effort to secure a reduction of the freight rates on wheat. No action was taken, the meeting was not adjourned.

no promises, or even hopes of better rates were made. The farmers dropped the idea of the securing of a better rate to the coast and a rate on the O. R. & N. to meet that of the Northern Pacific to Tacoma and decided to center all their energies campaign for lower freight rates

Committee Presents Request.

For the farmers was a committee composed of Dean Hendrick, of Whit-man College; H. H. McLean, A. P. Pear-son, H. D. G. Cox and H. A. Reynolds. sen, H. D. G. Cox and H. A. Reynolds. For the railroads were Traffic Manager Blakeley, of the Northern Pacific; Traffic Manager Robinson, of the O. R. & N., and Traffic Manager Weeks, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul.

The farmers asked a reduction of 25 per cent in the wheat rate from Walla Walla to St. Paul. That would mean a wit of from 56 cents, the present rate.

cut of from 50 cents, the present rate, to 37% cents. This included, of course, a like reduction from other points in the Northwest, to the Missouri River.

Rates Held Prohibitive.

The farmers argued that the rate for lumber is but 42 cents a hundred, while that on wheat is 8 cents more, and should be much less. They asserted that the railroads would get much more business than at present, as the rates now in force were prohibitive. The railroad officials, on the other hand, said that the roads were doing little business and that a cut in the rates would mean a serious loss, one which they could not stand.

And, while the discussion went on.

It came to no point. The men simply talked themselves out and adjourned.

No promise was given them as to lower rates, the only change intimated being that of a "revision upward." The farmers will meet again to de-cide whether or not to take the matter before the Interstate Commerce Com-

MASTER FISH WARDEN RE-PORTS HATCHERIES' WORK.

Prospects on Various Streams Are Declared Bright-Licenses Issued to Many Persons.

Master Fish Warden Clanton has just submitted his report to the State Board. Receipts in District No. 1 amount to $84.50 and in District No. 2 to $2797.58, or total receipts for the department dur-ing the month of $3140.48. The disburse-ments are placed at $5118.44, this being ments are placed at $318.44, this being one of the most expensive months of the year. What is being done at the hatcheries is described as follows:

On the various streams in fishing district No. 2, the prospects for the coming season are very bright, and although fishing has barely begun, more licenses have been issued for the different kinds of gear, cold storage plants and capacites than ever before in the history of the department.

During the freshets of November and December, 1969, the Williamette Falls fishway at Oregon City was damaged to such an extent that a large number of salmon were unable to surmount the falls at the proper time last Spring, and in view of guarding against its repetition I am endeavoring to have the same repaired. The work is well under way and will be brought to completion within the next few days.

In outlining the work done by the hatcheries in District No. L the Master Fish Warden says:

In outlining the work done by the hatcheries in District No. 1 the Master Fish Warden says:

In addition to the subscriptions previously reported for the construction of a series of retaining ponds at the Bonneville contral hatchery, the Linen Thread Company, of San Francisco, Cai., donated $400, making the total amount subscribed $1410. To date 720,000 early chinook eggs have been received at this hatchery from our different substations.

Owing to the extreme low water, very few early chinook salmon reached the Salmon River hatchery, and the egg take was not as great as was expected in the earlier part of the season.

The egg take at the McKenzie River hatchery will exceed our former expectations. To date, there has been taken approximately 2,000,000 eggs, and if conditions remain favorable these figures will be increased considerably.

Although our superintendent at the Wallows River hatchery has been laboring under disadvantages, owing to the extreme low water, our egg take to date is 1,551,500 chinook eggs.

The Master Fish Warden says concerning hatcheries in District No. 2: The superintendent at the Tillamook sta-tion has been handleapped on account of the long dry spell, but has been able to secure 1,700,000 chinook eggs, with pros-pects for as many more before the season is pects for as many more searce to over.

The new hatchery building on the Umpqua is nearing completion. Superintendent Smith reports that his egg take to date is 1,500,600 and has enough parent fish corraled to take several million more.

The Yaquina, Alsea, Stusiaw, South Coos and Coguille stations are all in readiness to care for the season's work, but it is too early to predict results inasmuch as the salmon have just begun putting in an appearance, except at South Coos River, where we have large numbers behind our racks and every prespect for a big year's work.

> Klickitat County Not Named After River, She Declares.

> LYLE, Wash, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—A Goldendale booster recently informed Klickitat visitors that the county was named after the river. "Old Sally," a Klickitat squaw, who is a frequent visitor in Lyle, says the young booster is in error as regards the origin of the county's name. Her ancestors of the county's name. Her ancestors of the Sta-hi dynasty, always spoke of the domain now occupied by the county as Klickitat. The Indian name to the country was continued by the whites. Indian name, Mo-nop-choon of the river was discontinued after the advent of whites.

The translation of the Indian name of river was embodied with two meanings, namely, the largest stream in their country and in the rapid flow there was emitted near the river a constant musical song of departed spir-its. # Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," It is probably better FOR HIM...it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so
