O. J. Mann Is Missing.—O. J. Mann, a New York timber dealer, has written to The Oregonian that his brother, J. Basil Mann, who was in Portland several years ago, has not been heard from for two years and asks that an effort be made to locate him. The missing man is an engineer and has been identified with engineering firms of Portland, according to his brother. When last heard of in Portland, Mann was staying at the Clayton Hotel. The New York timberman writes that his mother is much concerned over her son's disappearance and as she is getting old an effort is being made to discover the lost son.

INGRATE IS SENTENCED.—Because he robbed his benefactor of $2.75 and some wearing apparel and a watch fob, Judge Taxwell yesterday sontenced R. A. Bolin, to 260 days, or one year, on the rockpile. Bolla is the man that preyed on the sympathies of C. W. Bondurant, a liberal-hearted lodger at the Hotel Rheinpfalz, with a hard-luck tale for lodging for the right, and then stole the clothes and money. Bolin pleaded that he was drunk but Judge Taxwell decreed that any man who will rob his benefactor deserves no pity. Bondurant's clothing was recovered by the police.

George Stewart, a young laborer, was arrested.

GEORGE STEWART ARRESTED.—George Stewart, a young laborer, was arrested yesterday morning at 1:30 o'clock, at Third and Everett, by Policemen Abbott and Hensen, after endeavoring to shoot the proprietor of a lodging-house. Stewart entered the lodging-house and picked a quarrel with the landlord and created a general discurbance. A fight ensued and general disturbance. A fight ensued and in the melee Stewart pulled his revolver and tried to shoot. Passing policemen were summoned and placed Stewart under arrest on a charge of being drunk and discolarity and corrected and disorderly and carrying concealed DRUNK FIGHED FROM RIVER.—Answering a call at the foot of Washington street early yesterday morning. Policeman Oelsner arrested Ernest Florence on the charge of being drunk. The night watchman of the dock had just pulled Florence out of the river, and his clothing was dripping wet when the officer arrived. Florence, who is middle aged, wandered onto the dock and fell into the river. His lusty yelling for help brought the watchman to his rescue with a boat hook, and he was soon landed on the dock.

Furnace Starts Firm.—Fire in the furweapons.

FURNACE STARTS FIRE.-Fire in the fur-FURNACE STARTS FIRE.—Fire in the furnace for the first time this season badly damaged the residence of Major and Mrs.
Morrow, of the United States Army, at six Marshall street yesterday. A fire was started in the furnace early in the morning and supposing the apparatus to be in good condition the family paid no attention. The flames gained such headway before the Fire Department arrived that the neighbors attempting to save some of the furniture were soon driven outside. Major and Mrs. Morrow just outside. Major and Mrs. Morrow just moved into the house this week.

Hams spraduled Lack Weight.—Two young men saying they were from the country are reported to have been selling short-weight, home-cured hams to restdenis in Rose City Park and suburbs. One purchaser made the suburbs. One purchaser made them re-fund his money when he discovered that the ham was several pounds short in weight. When threatened with arrest they pleaded that they had wives and children who would suffer. They were cautioned and allowed to go free. MEET me at Wooster's, 408 Wash.

JAP HELD AS MURDERER

Prisoner on Rockpile Denies He Is Man Wanted in Sacramento.

Aikichi Marakami, alias K. Kondo, a young Japanese, was arrested yesterday by Detectives Coleman and Show at Linnton as a result of information obtained through the Japanese Association at Sacramento, where he is wanted on a charge of murder. A description sent to the Portland police by Sheriff Reese, of Sacramento, tallies exactly with that of the man now in custody, although he denies his identity. The crime for which Marakami is wanted was committed at Wanut Grove, in Sacramento County, Cal., in November, 1908. It was said that Marakami had been paying attention to the wife of Yoso Ito. A quarrel between Ito and Marakami ensued, in which Marakami drew his revolver and killed ito. Then he shot Mrs. Ito, seriously wounding her. Alkichi Marakami, alias K. Kondo, a Several posses were sent after him but failed to intercept him. Nothing more was heard of him until the Japanese Association heard that he was in Portland. When arrested he was at the rockpile at Linnton, where he was serving a sentence of 30 days for a statutory offense. California officers are on their way here.

FIRST FALL FROST IS HERE

Low Temperature Kills Vegetable Tops at Castle Rock.

For the first time this season Jack Frost made his appearance here yester-day morning, when he paid a fleeting visit to Portland and vicinity and out-lying districts. However, so light was his touch that only in spots was it no-ticed in Portland and no damage has been reported to any fruit or garden products.

A mantle of white frost covered the earth at Castle Rock, Wash., yesterday morning, the first that has appeared there this Fall, and as a consequence everything green in that vicinity that is susceptible to the effects of frost is now withered and blackened. Persons in that district had up to yesterday been gathering cucumbers and Summer squashes and mussirooms have been coming in. Prom Woodland, Wash., comes the report that the ground there was a mass of white crystals yesterday morning. Many of the farmers of that section have not harvested their potato crops yet, as the tops have been too green and heavy. earth at Castle Rock, Wash., yesterday

Attack by Rev. W. B. Riley May Lead to Libel Action.

SUIT TO START THIS WEEK

Long Island Episcopal Minister Takes Exception to Being Called "Renegade" by Minneapolis Pulpit Orator.

MEDFORD, Or., Oct. 26.—(Special.)— That Rev. W. B. Riley, of the First Bap-tist Church, Minneapolls, now preaching at the White Temple, Portland, will be the defendant in a suit for criminal libel and a civil suit for heavy damages was the declaration here today of Rev. W. A. Wasson, pastor of Grace Episcopal Church, Riverhead, L. I.

This action by the Far Eastern minister will be taken, it is said, because the former attacked him, he save in his ser-former attacked him, he says, in his ser-mon last Monday at the White Temple when Mr. Riley called him a "renegade

'According to a statement made today by Dr. Wasson, he will begin proceed-ings against Dr. Riley with his return to Portland the last of this week. "Advantage was taken of my absence from Portland to begin a scurrilous attask upon my character and reputation," said Dr. Wasson today, "an attack altogether unwarranted and without the alightest foundation of fact.

"Me attention was called to the Unions."

'My attention was called' to the libelous article, quoted from the lips of Dr. Riley and appearing in The Oregonian, by Archdeacon Chambers, of this diocese, yesterday, and I immediately got in touch with Portland counsel regarding the matter. I have instructed that com-plaints be drawn up and proceedings will be taken in both the Federal and Circuit Courts of the state if need be to secure redress for an attack which is too cow-ardly and untruthful to be passed by unnoticed.

"Dr. Riley will be given the opportunity without delay to prove these baseless charges before a court and jury. "In the quoted interview appearing in The Oregonian Dr. Riley did not dare use my name directly, but no one can mistake the intent of his inferences and innuendoes. These will be made the base of the action to be brought."

"DRYS" WILL MAKE CANVASS

House-to-House Campaign Planned by Ministers.

At a special meeting of the Ministerial Association yesterday afternoon work to be carried on by the churches during the remaining weeks of the "dry" campaign was discussed. A house-to-house canvass of Portland will be carried on. It was reported by the chairman of the different wards of the city that 260 citizens had volunteered their services to the work volunteered their services to the work of the canvass and the distribution of prohibition literature.

PROHIBITION IS DEFENDED

Lecturer Says Crime Is Most Rife in "Open" Towns.

ATHENA, Or., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—George DeKay, of Berkeley, Cal., delivered a temperance lecture to a large audience in the opera-house Monday ## night, replying to the arguments of ex-Mayor Rose, of Milwaukes, Captain Dan Morgan Smith, Clarence Darrow and Sid-ney Storey. Mr. Dekay denied that there was more violation of the law under prohibition than with licensed and regulated saloons. He declared that more violations of the law occurred in the "open" towns. He added that it was not believed by prohibitionists that they could bring about absolute prohibition. There was no law on the statute books that was not violated to a certain extent, he said, but he added that prohibition did prohibit and would continue to do so.

PROHIBITION AGAIN REBUKED

Minister Tells Medford Audience "Temperance" Is Misnomer.

MEDFORD, Or., Oct. 26.—(Special.)

—Rev. William A. Wasson, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, of Riverhead, L. L. addressed a large andience at the Medford Theater Monday night in opposition to state-wide prohibition.

"Prohibitionists," he said, "have the could be a movement a tempernerve to call their movement a temperance movement. It is not a temperance movement at all; neither in the object it seeks to accomplish nor in the method it employs. Prohibition is on a par with the get-rich-quick scheme."

HOME RULE

Nothing is more foolish, nothing more utterly at variance with sound policy than to enset a law which, by reason of conditions surrounding the community, is incapable of enforcement. Such instances are sometimes presented by sumptury laws, by which the sale of intoxicating liquors is prohibited under penalities in localities where the public sentiment in the immediate community does not and will not sustain the enforcement of the law. In such cases the legislation usually is the result of agitation by the people in the country districts who are determined to make their fellow citizens in the city better. The enactment of the law comes through the country representatives, who form a majority of the Legislature, but the enforcement of the law is among the people who are generally opposed to its enactment, and, under such circumstances, the law is a dead letter. The constant violation or neglect of any law leads to a demoralization of all laws.

It is plain to see that the West is growing much more rapidly than the East, and particularly the Western cities. If you will go back to Boston, New York, Philadel-phia, Chicago-to any of the large cities, you will find many of the wealthiest men made their start by modest inmade their start by modest investments in real estate. Such opportunities are closed in those cities now, for they are so large that it takes a lot of money to swing any deal worth while, even a lot or two.
