President Josselyn Announces That He Is Ready to Meet School Authorities Half Way.

COUNCIL REJECTS SANITARY COMPANY FRANCHISE.

Reconsideration Asked by Annand Is Refused—Three Vetoes Are Sustained.

Efforts made by the Portland Sanitary Company to gain a 25-year franchise for the gathering of garbage were rebuffed by the City Council yesterday morning. The action of the Council was in accordance with the report of its committee on health and police, which took a decisive stand against the granting of the franchise.
 Councilman Annand asked that the franchise be returned to the committee, saying the members had misunderstood its purpose. Speeches were made, however, by other Councilmen,

 By request of Councilman Cellars, the communication from Mr. Josselyn was referred to the judicial committee, of which Mr. Cellars is chairman. Mr. Cellars said last night that he would first find out what the school authorities wanted in regard to the ticket regulations, and then would present these demands to Mr. Josselyn.
 "The street railway company seems prepared to treat the matter fairly," said Mr. Cellars last night, "and I feel confident that the matter will soon be settled satisfactorily."
