

SUPPORTS URGED FOR WHOLE TICKET

Dr. Harry Lane Is Unwilling Tail-End Candidate Shall Be Neglected.

R. A. MILLER IS SPEAKER

George H. Thomas and Robert E. McKay Declare Party Shall Be Released From Clique Domination for Fighting Basis.

"You may cut a snake's head off, but the tail continues to wag so it is with the Democratic party," said Dr. Harry Lane, addressing an audience in a hall at Seventeenth and Thurman streets last night.

Mr. Lane's address was mainly in support of the candidacy of C. L. Daggett for Sheriff. Mr. Daggett was superintendent of the city crematory during Lane's term as mayor.

George H. Thomas and Robert E. McKay spoke briefly, urging their hearers not to forget the Democratic candidates for legislative honors and county offices in the interest aroused by the gubernatorial contest.

SATURDAY RALLY IS PLANNED

Republican Spellbinders to Appear at Masonic Temple.

Extensive arrangements are being made by the Republican State and County Central Committees for the big opening rally of the campaign at the Masonic Temple at West Park and Alder streets, next Saturday night.

The night before, October 28, Mr. Bowerman will address two district meetings, under the auspices of the Multnomah County Central Committee.

Stephen A. Lowell, of Pendleton, is entering actively into the campaign in support of the anti-Republican ticket.
