NEW THRILLS NOW IN NEBRASKA FIGHT

Treasury Embezzlements of Years Ago Figure in Political Campaign.

AFFECT SENATE CANDIDATE

Charges Made by Country Editor Revive Scandal and May Result in Disclosures, Involving Prominent Cornhuskers.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 26.—(Special)—The specter of the Joseph S. Bartley defalcation as State Treasurer has arisen in the Nebraska campaign this year, just as it has in every political campaign, with two or three exceptions, since Treasurer Bartley about 13 years ago was convicted of embezzling nearly $600,000 of state funds and for his crime sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary. Bartley was elected as a Republican, and his act was one of the contributing causes that drove that party out of power for several years.

This year the Bartley specter strikes for the first time at a Democrat—G. M. Hitchcock, nominee of his party for United States Senator, and because he had by his own admission dealings with Mr. Bartley during his incumbency as Treasurer the charge has been published that he was a beneficiary in the defalcation, and the demand is made that he retire from the ticket.

New Nominee Sought.

This demand is made by a Democrat, Judge Edgar Howard, long a leader in the councils of the party, and with his demand personally on Mr. Hitchcock is coupled a second demand, that the Democratic state committee insist that Congressman Hitchcock retire and that the vacancy be filled.

"Joe" Bartley is again a free man. After serving less than four years of his 25-year sentence, he was unconditionally pardoned by Governor Ezra P. Savage at the behest—it is generally admitted, of influential men of the state, many of whom had been befriended by the defaulting Treasurer in a financial way.

It has been asserted that Bartley did not personally benefit greatly by his embezzlement, that his incumbency of the office of Treasurer began at a time when Nebraska was going through a period of financial stress, and with state funds he tied over many business and political friends, although he knew by lending them money he was disobeying the law. Some of these loans were never paid. A few months before his second two-year term of office expired Treasurer Bartley made a feeble effort to collect the numerous loans. In this, it is alleged he specu-

Alton B. Parker Answers Roosevelt's Remarks.

SPEAKER GROWS SARCASTIC

Democratic Orator Also Takes Opportunity to Say His Party Stands for Business' Peace and Opposes Wild Doctrines.

OSWEGO, Oct. 26.—Judge A. B. Parker, in a political speech here tonight, referred at length to Colonel Roosevelt's remarks concerning "the alleged political circular, alleged to have been mailed by somebody in Tammany Hall to some alleged person in Wall street."

Quoting Mr. Roosevelt, Judge Parker said: "This is what our Colonel says: 'Now, one of the honest men of Wall street has sent me a letter, and in it he has put one of the circulars sent out by Tammany Hall to the Wall street ticker crowd. The circular says that this campaign more than any other will affect the business of the financial interests and every Wall street man ought to give it serious thought.'

"Observer in passing that the Colonel admits that there is one honest man in Wall street. So that will make two honest men in this state that this campaign has thus far developed. Possibly, with accustomed modesty, he told you when here today who the other one was."

"The Colonel is unnecessarily disturbed. He would make a legitimate appeal for the funds needed for the legitimate expenditures of a campaign. 'The issue of the hour' a vital issue as he puts it. No, that won't do. Nobody will take that seriously. Everybody knows by this time that the Democratic party in this fight stands for tranquility and business peace and is opposed to the wild doctrines of Roosevelt, which would unsettle values, disturb business and renew the panic from which the country suffered during his administration. That is the fact, the truth. In the Colonel such a stranger to truth that he doesn't know it when he meets it."

Charge of Stealing Made.

Speaking of the charge that Mr. Dix, Democratic candidate for Governor, was connected with the "wallpaper trust," Judge Parker said: "Mr. Dix asks for an apology from his detractor. Will he get it? No. The Colonel will continue to steal away the good name of Mr. Dix. He will continue to tell you not to steal. This big 'Roosevelt doctrine' resolves itself into this: 'Don't do as I do, but do as I tell you. The King can do no wrong.' Is this waging a decent campaign for decency?"

Not in a year has the market broken to this point for bluestem, and farmers who have been holding for higher prices are considerably worried over the market's outlook. There is no immediate prospect for relief, and the pinch may catch many farmers who have been holding off obligations in hopes of a higher market.

 Gentlemen: I am very particular about the coal I use, always buying the highest grade. A friend told me about your offer of two tons at a low price as a test. I am very glad I availed myself of that offer and secured some of your coal. It is as good as any high-grade coal I have ever used. It is clean, spotless, leaves little ash, fires quickly and holds heat well. I consider that you have done me a great favor in the service you have rendered. I will most certainly want more of it. You are at liberty to use this letter as a sincere testimonial.
 Yours very truly,
 J. J. FOLEN.

The Master Eye

ONE EYE is usually more important to the individual than the other, and receives most of the visual impression. The predominant eye is called the master eye. To find that this is so in many cases, point the finger at some object with both eyes open, then, keeping the finger stationary, close first one eye and then the other. It will usually be found that the finger is pointing correctly for the one eye—the master eye—but not for the other.
