Delegation Anxious to Sound Sentiment of Portland and Protest Against Changes.

A delegation of leading business men of Lane County arrived in Portland yesterday and additional committee-men will come in today and Monday for the purpose of quietly sounding senti-ment in the metropolis upon county division. Among those in the clff, and including others to arrive this morn-ing, are: J. M. Shelioy, George Gross, W. A. Bell, C. S. Williams, George D. O'Connor, J. W. Hobbs and Manager Freemon, of the Eugene Commercial Club.

Freemon, of the Eugene Commercial Club. A bitter fight is on in the southern part of the Willamette Valley against the proposed creation of Nesmith Coun-ty which Cottage Grove county seat boomers, the committee says, want carved out of the heart of Lane and Douglas Counties. If left to the peo-ple of Cottage Grove, Lane and Doug-lass Counties. If left to the peo-ple of Cottage Grove, Lane and Doug-lass Counties. If left to the peo-ple of Cottage Grove, Lane and Doug-lass Counties it is said the sentiment-al boom of Nesmith would overwhelm-ing situation, terminating in volumin-ous litigation, would undoubtedly re-sult as the proposed boundary lines overlap one another. "It's purely a local question," said a member of the committee, "and thus far we are gratified in our canvas, to find that the disposition of the city voters is to vote no or not at all on all county division questions. Still, the indifference of the non-voter on these matters, wherein a grave in-justice may be done to the people of the interior of the state, should be dis-couraged."
