

WASCO STOCKMEN WANT BOWERMAN

West's Opposition to Law of Vital Interest Will Cost Him Many Votes.

DEMOCRAT GIVES WARNING

Republican Nominee Has Rousing Reception at Hood River and The Dalles—Bourne Handicap Proves Serious.

THE DALLES, Or., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Wasco County will deliver in bulk its solid vote to Jay Bowerman, Republican direct primary nominee for Governor of Oregon.

Not only are the Republicans here zealous for their party's standard bearer, but the Democrats have headed the recent warning sounded by Judge A. S. Bennett against Oswald West, candidate of the Bourne-Chamberlain machine.

Judge Bennett, a Democratic leader and a man of state-wide prominence, has brought out in a circular to Wasco County Democrats the fact that West lobbied in the last Legislature against a measure of vital interest to the stockmen of Oregon.

The Dalles received Mr. Bowerman with enthusiasm tonight when he arrived from Hood River, after a hard day of campaigning.

Hood River County was flattering in its adoption of the candidate this afternoon, and, although no meeting had been arranged there, the Commercial Club decided on an emergency call and the assembly hall was speedily filled.

Hood River's Mind Made Up.

"Hood River has already reached a verdict," said E. L. Smith, the well-known horticulturist, in introducing Mr. Bowerman. "It is entirely unnecessary that he visit us or speak here, but since he is with us, we want to hear from him."

Logan Depicts Bourne.

John F. Logan, chairman of the new Multnomah County Republican Central Committee, a champion of statement No. 1 and the direct primary law, appeared tonight with Mr. Bowerman on the platform.

ROUGHS ATTACK SOLDIERS

Innocent Wayfarers Hurt in Conflicts in Lisbon.

LISBON, Oct. 27.—The announcement was made here today that Mexico would recognize the Republic of Portugal.

Colonel Barreto, the Minister of War, made the statement that after repeated talks with the soldiers quartered in the city barracks, he felt he could count on their undivided support.

A new source of anxiety, however, is found in nocturnal encounters between troops and the rougher element of the city.

Cost to Taxpayers Heavy.

The incident cost the taxpayers $200,000, and a large sum in interest on state money.

Since these records have been one of perpetual mischief-making and bribery, his party repelled him and he rode into the United States Senate in an unguarded moment on the initiative and referendum. At the Senate he has been present to represent Oregon only on such occasions as when the thermometer was too low to make golf impossible.

It is quite in the order of things that he should seek at this time to perfect a machine that will help him hold his seat in the Senate. He knows that it will not be enough for him to spend his fortune recklessly in his campaign for re-election two years hence.

Bourne is the real issue now before you. He has commanded you to kill

Bourne Money Earned.

"I read these clippings merely to show you the true relationship between that vicious machine mouthpiece and Asaiah," said he. "Although it is made out a liar by its own files, yet it cries out against me as favoring the railroad, but it is only following the Bourne methods, which is necessary in carrying out Bourne's money."

"In the Legislature I worked for those laws which appealed to me as any of the laws written on the books desired by the people," continued Mr. Bowerman. "My record—and I invite the closest scrutiny of it—shows that I was always aligned on the side of the people in placing restrictions on corporations."

Views on Primary Clear.

"I was nominated under the direct primary law and have always been its advocate and champion. I shall continue to be. If elected Governor I shall protect the laws of the people and will veto any legislation directed against any of the laws written on the books by the people unless the people themselves make the change."

Mr. Bowerman will return tomorrow morning to Portland, where he will open his campaign in Multnomah County with a night meeting on the East Side.

ABRAHAM TO AID BOWERMAN

ROSEBURG, Or., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—True to the colors of the Republican party, Senator Albert Abraham, defeated candidate for Governor, leaves for Lane County tomorrow, where he will deliver several addresses in behalf of Bowerman and the state and county tickets.

Mr. Abraham says that Bowerman is the man of the hour and he intends to assist him in election.
