CONCERT ON SECOND FLOOR—This evening, 7:30 to 9:30, special engagement of Smith Concert Orchestra.

Today, 4th Flr. Children's Day Wilbur's Juvenile Menagerie

Commencing today and continuing for one week we announce an engagement extraordinary of Wilbur's celebrated Juvenile Menagerie in our Auditorium, fourth floor. This splendid attraction consists of 60 trained monkeys, raccoons, two gorillas, birds, trained geese, etc. They will entertain the children from 9 A. M. to 9:30 P. M. No charge for admission. Plan to bring the children here today.

Today, the Great

Carnival of Spooks

Witches and Ghosts, With Their Family Connections, Make a Halloween Visit to the Toy Store, 4th Floor. If you don't believe it possible, go to the toy store and see for yourself. The place is alive with all sorts of natural and unnatural phenomena. There are pumpkin boys with gnomish faces, "A-squint-in" at you cross-eyed, and a "pintin" at you so—" and ghostly little creatures robed in white vestments whose rational and almost human office it is to hold candy and other Halloween goodies. And the Cats! There are thousands of them. It reminds you of the famous journey to St. Ives, where "each wife had seven bags, each bag had seven cats, each cat had seven kits; kits, cats, sacks and wives, how many were going to St. Ives?" Mephistopheles is on hand, too, with his usual lack of backwardness. In fact, there are so many favors and toys and candy receptacles that we can only mention a few of the very newest. Don't fail to visit this department.
