President Called Constructive Genins of Former Regime, and Only Executive Who Has Ever Kept Faith With All People.

ST. LOUIS. Oct. 28 .- Charles Nagel. ST. LOUIS. Get. 28.—Charles Nagel. Secretary of Commerce and Labor, tenight declared in a speech here that President Taft was "the constructive genius of the previous administration." Much of the success of the so-called Rosseyclt ideas, he said, was due to the administrative ability of Taft as Secretary of War and as Governor of the Philippines.

"I believe," he said, "the preceding administration rendered enormous ser-

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 28 .- The first stage of the grand jury investigation of the Times disaster—establishment of he fact to the satisfaction of the inquisitors that it was a dynamite ex-plesion which wrecked the newspaper plant—was completed today. The next move will be to name the conspirators responsible for the crime.

That the ground work for indict-ments had been completed was indi-cated this afternoon, when, after hear-ing the testimony of Dr. Julius Koebig, a chemist and analyist, the jury ad-journed until Monday. Koebig's testimony was highly important, as it was upon his findings primarily that the special investigating committee respecial investigating committee re-ported to the Mayor that the Times building undoubtedly had been dyna-

BRITISH COLUMBIA MACHINIST DIES AFTER ATTACK.

Pounced Upon at Night, He Lives Several Days and Before Death Implicates Two Men.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 28 -- (Special.)-That Robert Johnson, whose brujsed and battered body now lies upon a slab at the New Westminster morgue, met death as the result of the injuries received by him at the hands of striking machinists of the Schaake Iron Works, is the very serious charge formulated by leading residents of the Royal City, in consequence of which an autopsy and inquest have been ordered which will decide as to whether or not a charge of murder or manslaughter shall be pressed against two residents of New Westminster, who are now under surveillance.

Johnson was employed at Schaake Machine Works, having been brought from the East as a "strikebreaker." On the night of October 5, he attended a Scot-tish concert in New Westminster and while returning to his home, was set upon and received injuries which it is now alleged were the cause of death. Johnson did not die at once after the assault, nor even remain in hospital. He returned to his employment and worked intermittently and with difficulty until forced to seek the hospital on Monday last. He died on Wodnesday morning, after making and signing an ante-mortem statement in which it is sujed he direct-ly implicates two of the striking ma-chinists in the attack upon him. In-ternal injuries are believed to have caused his death, although his body shows numerous bruises, one in particular on the left side directly above the heart, and one on the side under the right arm.
Johnson was of Scottish birth, 39 years of age, and leaves a widow in the old

There seems to be a conflict of testimony as to the events immediately sub-sequent to the assault. While Chief of Polic Bradshaw asserts that the attack was never reported to the Royal City police and that they knew nothing of the incident, H. Schaake declares that a complaint was filed by Johnson himself, although the police took no action in the matter. The Schaake Machine Works has had a strike on for the past five of months and has been employing nonun-workers ever since its declaration.

Strikebreakers Badly Hurt in Charge by Mob of Union Adherents.

STONES AND CLUBS USED

Wagons Attacked on Leaving Barns. Jersey City Scene of Furious Battle-Strikers Gain Recruits to Demands.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 .- Stones and sticks flew in a clash arising from the express strike here today and scores of persons were injured and many felled to the street unconscious before the police succeeded in breaking up the The clash occurred when a mol swooped down on eight wagons as they were pulling out of the Wells-Fargo stables in Jersey City. A large number of the express company strikebreakers were injured and 16 of the more seri-ously injured were taken agross the Hudson River and placed in a hos-pital in Manhattan.

The first outbreak of violence in this city occurred today at Fifth avenue and Forty-sixth streets. Some 150 strikers and their sympatitizers were gathered at the corner when an American Express Company's wagon drove up. Th mod pelted the driver with stones and grabbed the reins. Two policemen suc-ceeded in driving the attackers back as the express driver turned about and galloped the horses back to the stables. There he abandoned the outfit. Shortly after the first attack another took place at Madison avenue and For-ty-second street. The driver of this eam, when he saw the crowd rushing oward him, abandoned his horses and fied. The police dispersed the crowd.

The Adams Express Company made no effort today to gend out any of its wagons. On the other hand, the American Express Company determined to carry on its street deliveries and collections.

All of the drivers of the Adams Ex-press Company in Manhattan, who re-mained faithful to the company yesterday, went on strike today. Two hun-dred more of the helpers and drivers of he American Express Company also the American Express Company also joined the ranks of the strikers.

There were more disorders in Jersey City today. An Adams Express wagon was attacked near a ferry by a crowd of men, all armed with clubs and sticks. Stones were thrown and the strike-breakers were hadly beaten. The horses were unhitched and the wagon was toppled over across the railroad tracks. The police drove the mob away. One strikebreaker was found unconscious. The union leaders announced tonight that the entire force of the Long Island Express Company would be called out tomorrow.
