

WHEAT PRICES ARE DROPPING EVERY DAY. DEMAND ENTIRELY STOPS

Wheat prices continue to work toward a lower level. Quotations are dropping at the rate of half a cent to a cent every day.

Farmers coming down in their ideas, but still above the market—Shipments are on a large scale.

The continued slump in prices has put an end to all demand in the market. Exporters cannot sell cargoes and therefore are doing nothing in the way of buying.

At the same time, country offerings are not as large as in the Walla Walla section there is said to be some pressure to sell on the part of a few farmers, but in general there is no disposition to unload.

Local receipts in cars, were reported by the Merchants' Exchange as follows: Wheat barley flour oats hay...

United Kingdom—Favorable results indicate a crop generally better than last year. Seeding is progressing slowly.

France—Seeding is being done under favorable weather conditions and an increased acreage over last year is expected.

Germany—Seeding is progressing slowly and the weather is rainy. Supplies of native wheat are rather light.

Hungary—Showers have fallen, which is beneficial for the wheat seeded, but more rain wanted.

Spain and Italy—The outlook is mostly favorable. The weather is very dry.

North America—The weather is very dry. The outlook for the seeding is favorable.

Our agent says that he believes the outlook in the south is excellent and that the crop will be a bumper crop.

Yakima advices were that a good demand existed there for low grades of wheat.
