LABOR UNIONIST RAPS DRYS

Prohibition Battle Cry Used to Cloud Wage-Earners' Cause.

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—(To the Editor.)—As a workingman, a union man and as a citizen, I am opposed to prohibition.

As a workingman I resent the air of superiority and patronage nearly all prohibition orators assume towards the workingman, his wife and children. These orators want to save the "workingman" from "demon rum." There is never a word in the speeches of the "prohib" against the intemperance of the rich. As a workingman I claim the right to drink or abstain from liquor as I see fit. As a workingman, I know that, given good pay, short hours of labor and reasonable position, I must be temperate in both food and drink to retain health and strength and thereby my position.

As a union man I know that the leaders of the prohibition movement, from John D. Rockefeller down, are opposed to the trades unions. Through the trades unions workers steadily gaining more independence and demanding more and more of the good things of life, and getting them. To cause discussion and distraction in union labor ranks, the prohibition movement is fostered by the over loads of industry who want all the good things of life for themselves. Just as a hungry baby cries for food and is temporarily fooled into quietness by the dangling of a toy in front of its eyes, so the prohibition agitation is now used to distract the attention of the workers from the steadily increasing price of food and clothing. If on demon rum all the sufferings of the poor can be laid, then the Rockefellers, Carnegies, Guggenheims and Morgans are safe in their game of absorbing the wealth of the country into themselves and their following.

As a union man, I have seen through this trick, as have the great majority of my fellow workers. The Oregon State Federation of Labor, at its last annual convention in January, declared against statewide prohibition. The delegates saw the trickery of the trusts and expected it. They only followed in the footsteps of other State Federations of Labor when prohibition was forced upon a state as a leading issue to becloud all other important questions.

As a union man I want no prohibition toy dangled in front of me when I am fighting to retain the initiative and referendum and want an employers' liability law that will protect and compensate me and my dependents against accidents.

of the Home Rule Association, leaves the impression that the visit was merely one of good fellowship, that we fell into each others' arms, and in fact did everything except take a drink together—this omission being presumably due to lack of an invitation. Such was not the case.

ED. ROSENBERG.

SOUTHERN DEMOCRAT OBJECTS

Wants Reorganization of His Party; Meanwhile, It Can't Win in State.

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—(To the Editor.)—I am a simple Democrat. We are going to reorganize the Democratic party in Oregon and we are going to commence by knocking the spots out of certain "gun shoe" candidates on Tuesday.

Mr. Bowerman will carry Multnomah County by 1,000 votes, that's sure. There is not much difference between Os West's speeches and those of the Socialists—the latter are honest and say what they think, while George's shadow, called Os, won't say what he is—probably he doesn't know.

A SOUTHERN DEMOCRAT.

DRYS SOWL AT WET FOES

Prohibitionists Blame Home Rule Folks in Not Playing Fair.

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—(To the Editor.)—A news report in The Oregonian of last Thursday, relative to the visit of members of the Oregon Dry Campaign Committee to the headquarters that this county tax measure is aimed at Multnomah, principally, because its promoters believe enough single taxers and free lunch champions can be mustered into line to fix a local tax law that will tax the "unearned increment" out of Portland real estate. This "society created value" belongs to the "soap-box" orators and public park loafers—according to their creed. Speculation in land and "the profit system" must be eliminated.

COUNTY TAX MEASURE RAPPED

Such Legislation Would Be Single-Tax Foolery, Says Writer.

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—(To the Editor.)—No doubt the people of Oregon thoroughly understand the purpose and intent of the proposed tax measure, authorizing each county in Oregon to regulate taxation and exemptions within its own border. But for fear there might be some who do not, I will say that it is an effort to take the first step toward the single tax in Multnomah County. Thousands of booklets were recently issued by the single tax committee boasting this county tax measure. The booklets were paid for out of the "Joseph Fels fund," and it is well known that Mr. Fels is giving his money for single tax purposes only.

that's the goal toward which the single taxers are pressing. GEORGE W. DIXON.

Losing One's Vote.

WESTPORT, Or., Nov. 5.—(To the Editor.)—In the event that the voter votes neither "yes" nor "no" on the constitutional amendments and other measures to be submitted to the people of Oregon next Tuesday, what will be the effect? Will the omission be counted for or against the measure or amendment, or will it be of no effect? A VOTER.

Failure to vote is not counted for or

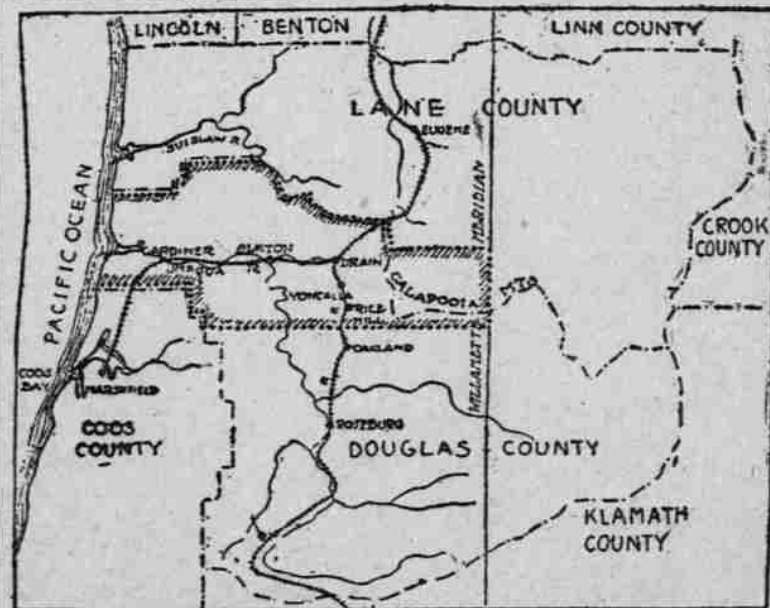

VOTE ANNEXATION DOWN

Because:

- It adds to Multnomah territory she neither requires nor desires. More than doubles road mileage, which Portland will be taxed to improve and maintain. Will confuse court procedure, breed litigation and cloud real estate transfers. Will so reduce area of Washington County as to embarrass county business. Bring to a halt permanent road building, and throw heavy burden of taxation on portion of county left. Annexation means a blow to Washington and confers no benefit upon Multnomah.

The County of Williams Vote Yes No. 324 to Create Williams County

Where the name "Williams" is one held in great esteem, and justly so, by the people not only of the State of Oregon, but of our entire country, and while the State of Oregon could in no way better show its appreciation of the life and public services of the late Honorable George H. Williams than to perpetuate his memory in the name of one of the counties of the State, it is not the purpose of this article to appeal in any way to the voters of Oregon, except through the merits alone of the proposed Williams County.
