

FORECAST GIVES BOWERMAN 7000

Hawley's Election Presaged by 6000; Lafferty's Majority May Be 8000.

WET VICTORY PUT AT 4000

Oregonian Correspondents Asked to File Fairest Possible Conservative Reports—Deductions Based on These Returns.

Cook, Curry, Harney, Jackson, Klamath, Lane, Marion, Morrow, Multnomah and Tillamook. Clackamas, Douglas and Washington are named as doubtful, and while a report from Gilliam County was received on Governor and Congressmen, no statement was received as to the probable vote on the prohibition question.

The reports indicate that the remainder of the Republican state ticket will receive the normal Republican plurality throughout the state.

INTEREST KEEN AT EUGENE

Bowerman Expected to Carry Lane County by 500 Votes.

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—As the time for the general election approaches interest in the results and issues are increased. It is expected that a large vote will be polled in Lane County, owing to the many interests involved, and particularly on account of the bitter contest over the division of Lane County. Leaders of both sides claim a victory. The indications, as far as the election for Governor, Representative and state ticket is concerned, are that Bowerman will carry Lane County by 500 votes, Representative Hawley by approximately the same number, and that each Republican on the state ticket will be elected, as far as Lane County is concerned, by a substantial majority.

It seems probable that Eugene and Lane County will vote dry, that is, in favor of statewide prohibition. On account of the defeat in the petitions of those who wish to make this a local issue, there will be no vote, as far as city or county is concerned, excepting on statewide measures, and it will not be a great surprise to many if statewide prohibition is carried. It is expected that Bowerman will carry Lane County, because this county has been very well satisfied with the local option law, and there are many people who would prefer to let each locality settle its own question.

MARION COUNTY GOING WET

Bowerman, Too, Will Be Given Easy Lead Over West.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Marion County probably will give Jay Bowerman a majority of from 200 to 250. Democrats say the county will go for West, because of his residence here, but it has been practically assured that he cannot overcome a majority of over 1000 votes, which is a decidedly conservative estimate of normal conditions. There seems to be absolutely no doubt now that Bowerman will succeed in securing a narrow margin in the voting.

Hawley probably will receive a normal Republican majority or a trifle better, while the rest of the ticket promises to receive from 1000 to 1200 from Republicans, with the possible exception of the candidate for State Printer, who may see his vote cut down to some extent.

Prohibitionists are hoping that Marion County will go dry, but a conservative estimate places it wet, from 400 to 500 majority, some precincts that are now dry being practically assured in the wet column. Salem is expected to give a very narrow margin for the wet.

BEASON AND CRAWFORD TO WIN

Douglas County Democrats and Republicans Concede Victory.

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—So bitter is the strife in the present campaign in Douglas County that it is almost impossible to predict the result tonight. Leaders of both the Republican and Democratic party in Douglas County claim a majority for their respective Governors, ranging from 150 to 300 votes. Conservative Republicans, however, say that Bowerman will carry the county at least 200 votes. Hawley will defeat Smith in this county by about 300 votes. It is conceded by both Republicans and Democrats that Beason and Crawford will lead the ticket in Douglas, while the Republican state candidates will carry the Bowerman vote. It is impossible to predict the result of the "wet" and "dry" fight, other than both sides claim a victory. Strife is keen here, and money is being wasted freely on the state candidates.

JOSEPHINE ALL REPUBLICAN

Wet and Dry Fight Most Bitter in Campaign.

GRANTS PASS, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The closing hours of the present election are filled with much interest. Great discussions arise over "wet" or "dry." Partisan lines are sharply drawn, with both sides in the field filled with lecturers. At the last campaign the county carried "dry" by a majority of 350. Owing to Jackson County being "wet," the sale asserts the sentiment has changed, while on the other hand drys are counting noses of all Eastern settlers who will vote for the first time. The state ticket interest has been in the foreground, with things centers upon the county ticket and prohibition.

FOLK AGAINST PROHIBITION

Wets Say County Will Defeat Proposed Statewide Law.

DALLAS, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Leading Republicans unanimously predict victory for the Republican state ticket in Polk County. Conditions have not changed greatly since the primary when Bowerman carried the county by a substantial plurality. Hawley, for Congress, is also strong, and will receive better than his party vote.

Prohibition managers say Polk County will give a majority for statewide prohibition, and that on the county level the question the county will go dry by 250 votes, 100 voters more than the dry majority of two years ago. Opponents of prohibition say the county will not only defeat the proposed statewide law, but that it will reverse the small dry majority of two years ago and declare for stringent regulation of the liquor traffic by a majority ranging anywhere from 800 to 500 votes.

BAKER COUNTY WILL BE CLOSE

Indications for West in Eastern Portion of State.

BAKER, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—With election but one day away, the situation in Baker County points to a very close fight for all offices, both state and county with one or two exceptions. The vote for Governor will be close with the indication of a slight majority for West, and for Congress, it is believed that Manning will poll more votes than Lafferty. In fact, it looks as if Baker County would return a Democratic majority, probably very small on the whole state ticket, but even the most sanguine Democrats would not make the prediction too strong, for the county is too evenly divided to make safe a very certain forecast.

For county officers, however, there will be a split, with the almost certain election of a Democratic Sheriff and County Clerk Combs, the present Democratic incumbents, have a large following and will be returned to office. For Basche, B. M. Basche, the present Democratic County Judge, is looked upon as certain to meet defeat at the hands of his Republican opponent, For Basche, B. M. Basche, the only county offices about which there is much doubt.

MEDFORD WILL GO FOR WETS

Political Situation in Jackson County Is Quiet.

MEDFORD, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The political situation in Jackson County is quiet. It is generally conceded among the leaders of both parties that Oswald West will carry Jackson County by about 200. A fight is expected over the Representative, but Robert G. Smith, although a Democrat, probably will carry Jackson County because of his personal popularity, having lived in this section all his life.

HAWLEY AND BOWERMAN SURE

Yamhill County Going Republican With Wets Victors, Too.

MINNIEVILLE, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—A conservative estimate made by Chairman Conner, of the Republican County Central Committee, based upon advices received from the different precincts, places the probable majority of Bowerman and Hawley for Governor and Congressman at the coming election at from 300 to 500, this applying also to the entire Republican state ticket.

YAMHILL COUNTY GOING REPUBLICAN

With Wets Victors, Too.

While Yamhill County is expected to give a large vote in favor of state prohibition, it is believed by many and some of the most prohibitionists themselves, that the 800 majority that the county gave to county prohibition two years ago will be quite materially reduced; that 500 probably will be the margin of the prohibition amendment at this election.

CLATSOP RACE DUE IN CLATSOP

West and Bowerman Fighting; Lafferty to Win by 500.

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—To give a reliable estimate on the vote of Clatsop County in the gubernatorial contest is a difficult matter. The county is normally Republican by a large majority, but West's former residence here and his personal acquaintances are having their effect, and both the Republican and Democratic leaders admit the contest will be close, each side laying claim to the county by from 100 to 150 votes; for Representative, Lafferty will carry the county by probably 500 and the balance of the state ticket will go Republican by about the same plurality. While the indications are that a heavy "dry" vote will be cast, especially in the country districts, the "wets" are expected to win by a majority of between 300 and 400 votes.

UMATILLA COUNTY DOUBTFUL

Bowerman Will Carry by Less Than 200, Is Forecast.

PENDLETON, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—With the election but one day distant, estimates of the probable result of the vote for Governor and Representative in Umatilla County vary greatly. Bowerman, however, probably will carry the county by less than 200, while either Manning or Lafferty may win by a few votes.

CLACKAMAS FOR BOWERMAN

Democrats, However, Declare West Will Carry County.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Conservative Republican estimates give Jay Bowerman a majority of 100 to 150 in Clackamas County. The Democrats are confident that West will carry the county by a majority ranging from 200 to 700. Hawley is expected to carry Clackamas by 400 and the remainder of the state ticket will have majorities of upward of 100.

MORROW IS BOWERMAN CAMP

HEPPNER, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Morrow County will go strong for Bowerman, probably giving him a plurality of 250. Lafferty it is believed will carry the county by 450.

WHEELER TO 1 BOWERMAN

POSSIL, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Wheeler County is expected to give Bowerman a two-to-one vote over West. Lafferty will lead Manning by a good majority. Thomas Kay will receive the entire Republican vote. The county will go dry by a good majority.

REPUBLICANS STRONG IN SHERMAN

MORO, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Governor, Congressional and state ticket will carry by about 200 majority Republican, according to forecasts. The "wet" and "dry" vote will be very close, but it is thought the "wets" will win.

CRONK COUNTY TO GO "WET"

PRINEVILLE, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Everything indicates that 2000 votes will be polled next Tuesday in Crook County for Governor. The contest will

BOVERMAN IN LEAD

Coos and Curry Counties to Give Him Majority.

PROHIBITION MAY LOSE

Indications in Two Counties Are That "Wets" Will Win Though Opponents Assert Contrary.

Hawley to Carry Curry.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Fair estimates of the election next Tuesday give Bowerman a plurality of about 800 in Coos County. Some say that he will not get more than 600 plurality. It is thought that Hawley, for Congress, will get as much as 1000 plurality. Hugh McLain, Democratic candidate for Hallway Commissioner, will get almost solid vote in county on account of being a resident of this city. Otherwise the Republican state ticket will carry by from 600 to 800 in the county. It is likely that statewide prohibition will lose in this county. The local option vote is close, but it is estimated the state and county wet tickets will carry by a possible 100.

The drys assert they will win in the county. In Curry County Bowerman will get a majority of probably 100, the vote there being light.

Hawley will also carry Curry County. Curry has been dry for a number of years, but there is a bare possibility of its voting wet on the county proposition. No prohibitionists are registered there and the statewide prohibition probably will lose.

Judge John S. Cole, of Coos, and Judge Hamilton, of Douglas, will carry both Coos and Curry for Circuit Judge.

SCRATCHED TICKET EXPECTED

Union Forecasts 250 Majority for Bowerman, 500 for Others.

LA GRANDE, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—In a county normally 500 Republican Bowerman and Lafferty are acclaimed victors in the county tonight, after an exhaustive tour and handshaking trip by a half dozen local Republicans, by 250. The remainder of the ticket will, it is believed, carry straight, and with the full Republican vote, with the possible exception of the Secretary's office on account of the fact that Turner Oliver lives here. Chairman Pearce, Secretary Matott and others, giving the benefit of doubt in the gubernatorial and Congressional tickets named.

The Democrat leaders, who tonight returned from a trip around the county, claim an even break. As to prohibition, the "wets" claim victory by about 100, while the dry leaders count on 700 to the good. The farming vote, they say, is almost unanimously for Prohibition.

LEAD IN WASCO PLACED AT 400

Lafferty Is Expected to Carry County by 700 Plurality.

THE DALLES, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—In a forecast of the possible result of Tuesday's election, it is estimated that the only offices on which there will be much contest are Governor, Congressman and Judge of the Seventh District, for the registration this Fall shows 1574 Republicans to 489 Democrats.

A conservative estimate places Bowerman's lead at 400. Lafferty will probably lead by 700 votes. Bradshaw, the Democratic candidate for Seventh District Judge, will carry the county over Stark, the Republican candidate, by 700 votes.

The vote in favor of wet or dry will be nearly an even break, with a possibly low majority for the wets.

PROHIBITIONISTS CLOSE CAMPAIGN

GRANTS PASS, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Prohibition workers closed their campaign in this county today by holding a large rally at City Park. Senator Northington produced the speakers. A. Booth of Eugene, was among them. Sanguine Prohibitionists expect a large vote for their side of the question.

SCOT'S PLEA WINS CASH

WIDOW GIVES $32 TO MAN WITH THOUSANDS COMING.

Minister Furnishes Meal and Ticket and Dean $5-Accent and Missing Teeth May Betray Currie.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Asserting himself to be a grandson of Sir James Currie, who died leaving an estate of more than $15,000,000 in Scotland, a man giving his name as Harvey Currie succeeded in obtaining a meal ticket from Rev. H. S. Templeton, Presbyterian minister; $5 from A. Hosack, a deacon of the church, and $12 from Mrs. Jane Sutherland, a widow, who keeps a bakery here. A warrant for the arrest of Currie has been issued from E. M. Scanlon's Court. Currie was last seen here Thursday.

Currie is described as being five feet six inches tall, weighing 165 pounds, about 24 years old, and having a broad Scotch accent. Two upper front teeth are missing. He met Mrs. Sutherland, a Scotch woman, whom he told he was waiting for an allowance of merely $40,000, but needed money, as some one in Portland had stolen his baggage containing his letters of credit. She gave him $2. To Mr. Templeton he told a similar story, and got a meal ticket and a letter of recommendation to A. Hosack, church treasurer and deacon, from whom he got $5.

Currie called on Clement Scott, manager of the Clark County Harvest Show, a native of Edinburgh, and well acquainted in Scotland. Mr. Scott suspected Currie after several questions. To Mr. Scott and J. C. Cunningham, also a native of Edinburgh, Currie said he was a lieutenant in the English Army, and here to investigate the workings of the United States Cavalry, and that he was to be detailed as a veterinarian in the regular service.

When asked how he happened to have two teeth missing he replied that he played the bag pipes and that the teeth had been removed to admit the tube.

Currie is believed to have obtained money similarly in Spokane, Seattle and Tacoma. He would be recognized by his Scotch accent and the two missing front teeth.

DEAD CASHIER TAKEN TO TACOMA

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The body of the late Edmund M. Henninger, the bank cashier who committed suicide at Seaside a few days ago, was taken to Tacoma this evening for interment. Mrs. Henninger and her brother, V. Eisenberg, of Tacoma, accompanied the body.

APPLES PACKED FOR SHOW

HUSUM, Wash., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Miss Edna Cameron, secretary of the White Salmon Valley Development League, for the past week has been conducting the packing of fancy exhibit boxes of apples for the National apple show at Spokane. Leading varieties were selected from the orchards of Cameron, McCrackens, Olson, Fordyce, Slade, Ogelsby, Martin and Gregg, located along the White Salmon River.

Miss Cameron will have charge of the exhibit at Spokane.

JAMES E. GODFREY

Flat Salary Candidate for State Printer

With the State Printer on a flat salary and the fee system abolished, he would not make something like $25,000 a year, which is more than his services are worth.

I have been employed on the state printing for over 12 years; was foreman for the past 20 years. My opponent says that I possess unusual skill and technical knowledge. If I am elected I will give to the state all the skill and technical knowledge I possess for a flat salary in place of the exorbitant fees received by my opponent.

I will also make a detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the office under the fee system.

If you have this information now you would vote for me. Elect me and get it.

he close but may be led by West. Lafferty will get twice as many votes as Manning. Wet interests may prevail by a close margin but the contest will be close. There is much interest in the contest for Circuit Judge, and Stark will perhaps carry this county for this office by 500 votes. In most other offices the Republican candidate will win by the party plurality, which is about 500.
