

ELECTION OF DIX SEEMS PROBABLE

Plurality of 45,000 Predicted with 145,000 Lead in New York City.

HEARST VOTE WILL BE BIG

Disaffection Up-State Expected to Cut Down Republican Vote and City Cannot Help Out—Loss on Congress Is Likely.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(Special)—Unless there is an unexpectedly large Republican vote upstate, John A. Dix will be elected Governor Tuesday by not less than 45,000.

The normal plurality upstate has not fallen below 125,000 for the past ten years. This year, with the disaffection upstate, all hands agree that there will be a falling off in the Republican vote.

The Republicans have been fighting desperately to keep down the vote in the greater city. So far as can be ascertained they have failed.

Big Vote for Dix in City.

One year ago The Oregonian printed the order of the Mayorial candidates with the vote they would receive. Gaynor headed the list with 266,000 and his official total was 250,378.

This would give Dix 145,000 in New York City and insure his election by at least 45,000.

This poll also shows that Hearst, who is running for Lieutenant-Governor, will come near to doubling the Hopper vote. Indications are that Hearst will receive 63,000 in New York City as against Hopper's 48,000.

Republicans to Lose Congressmen.

The heavy sweep to Dix in the city probably means the loss of several city Republican Congressmen. In fact, the only ones who are regarded as sure of election are Cocks, first (Roosevelt's district); Lee, fifth, and Stinson, fifth.

The State Legislature will be close, but probably Republican by a small majority on joint ballot, insuring a Republican to succeed Chauncey Depew.

In Jersey, Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, will probably be elected Governor, but the Legislature will be Republican. Connecticut Republicans will save the state for Governor by 10,000 and retain the Legislature.

ROOSEVELT WORKS TO LAST

Dix Rests After His Reply Saturday Night to Stimson.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The New York gubernatorial campaign passed into history today with Henry L. Stimson, the Republican candidate, and John A. Dix, his leading backer, making last appeals for votes.

The final word on the Democratic side was spoken Sunday night, when John A. Dix, leading the ticket, sent Mr. Stimson his answers to the 12 questions telegraphed by Mr. Stimson to Mr. Dix. Mr. Dix sent the last day of the campaign at home.

Mr. Stimson's telegram to Mr. Dix accused him of evading the issues advanced by the Republican candidate's first message. It answered several accusations which Stimson considered Dix had left unanswered.

Dix leaders declare that the quiet that prevailed today on their side of the campaign was itself evidence of confidence.

"Our party machinery up-state is in better shape than at any other time in 35 years," said Chairman Rodie. "We have not had a single message today, which indicates to us that everything is satisfactory."

Chairman Prentice, of the Republican state committee, said: "I am absolutely confident we'll carry the whole ticket, and I don't think the vote will be close."

Lloyd C. Grimes, chairman of the Republican county committee, said: "The situation looks better today than it did two days ago."

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, kept his opinion to himself.

The Democrats have hopes of ousting three Republican Congressmen. In the 13th district, Herbert Parsons, ex-Republican county chairman, is opposed by Jefferson M. Levy, who once represented the district and who has attacked Mr. Parsons for alleged sugar trust affiliations.

In the seventh district, William S. Bennett, who was mentioned for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, is opposed by Henry George, Jr., son of the single tax advocate.

Tammany Hall hopes to defeat W. M. Bennett, whom the Republican nomination from Congressman Van Vechtel O'Neill. On account of the Bennett-O'Neill fight, Thomas Patten, the Democratic candidate, expects to overcome the normal Republican plurality.

ALBANY COUNTY FOR STIMSON

Old Guard Rallies to Support of Man Who Routed It.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 7.—William Barnes, Jr., who recently resigned from the Republican state committee, following the decision of Chairman Prentice not to continue him on the executive committee, declared to a friend of his will vote against Henry L. Stimson, the Republican candidate for Governor.

Mr. Barnes was the leader of the old guard forces defeated at the Republican state convention.

The local Republican managers said tonight Albany County would give Stimson 300 plurality.

Bets Favor Montana Republicans.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 7.—The cam-

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

Candidates who, deserted by the party organization with the exception of George H. Thomas, chairman of the county committee, dubbed themselves "the tall of the ticket," and made their fight independently, denouncing the Bourne-Chamberlain machine and one-man domination of their party.

He declared the Republicans would easily re-elect Cyrus A. Sulloway Representative and Frank D. Currier, John B. Jamieson, chairman of the Democratic state committee, said indications pointed to the election of Clarence E. Carr by a substantial plurality and to the defeat of Representative Sulloway by Eugene D. Reed.

ILLINOIS VOTERS APATHETIC Both Sides Retire Extravagant Prophecies on Election Eve.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—(Special)—The usual cessation of hostilities and the resting on arms on the night before the battle failed to materialize in Illinois tonight.

Except in Chicago, in fact, the interest has been so little that opposing campaign general, in frenzied effort to wake the voters from their lethargy, kept up the fire of argument to the very last.

Twice the Democrats have elected a Governor and twice the Republicans have elected a legislative majority and the greater part of their state ticket.

Chicago has several close fights on one product of the approach of election day was the retirement of extravagant prophecies by both parties and acknowledgment at last that the apathy in general made all estimates only guesses.

FOSS TELLS OF CONFIDENCE Massachusetts Democrats and Republicans Both Claim Victory.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Tomorrow the voters of Massachusetts will decide whether the Republicans, with Eben S. Draper, Governor, at the head of the ticket, shall continue in office or give place to the Democrats, whose aspirant for the highest office in the state is Representative E. N. Foss, who is a former Republican. Odds are 2 to 1 today that Foss would win.

Both sides claimed the election tonight, the Republicans by 47,000 and the Democrats by 50,000.

Representative Foss, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, issued the following statement tonight: "On the eve of election I feel more confident than ever of a Democratic victory in Massachusetts tomorrow. I feel absolutely sure we shall come to Boston winners by 25,000 and am equally certain Boston will add from 25,000 to 30,000."

REPUBLICANS STRONG IN IDAHO Election of Entire State Ticket by 10,000 Is Predicted.

BOISE, Ida., Nov. 7.—Chairman Heitman, of the Republican State Central Committee, adheres to his figures, which give Brady for Governor, 10,000 plurality and elect the entire Republican ticket.

Democratic Chairman Nugent a few days ago claimed the election of Hawley, Democrat, for Governor, by 15,000, French, Republican, for Representative, will probably be elected by 15,000.

North Dakota Democrats Hopeful. FARGO, N. D., Nov. 7.—The Republican campaign managers today held that C. A. Johnson would defeat Burke, Democrat, for Governor, by 7000 and claimed the election of a Republican Legislature, assuring the return of Senator McCumber. The Democrats say Burke will be elected by 15,000.

Kansas Forecasts Not Changed. TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 7.—Chairmen of both the Democratic and Republican state committees found no reason to change their election forecasts.

The Real Cause Guido Gialdini

For years we have said it and now practically all of the highest scientific authorities agree with us: Eye strain is NOT the result of headache. NOT the result of neuralgia. NOT the result of nervous disorders.

It is the CAUSE of all these ills. It follows, therefore, that to help the eyes is to help the health.

A word to the wise means action.

We have the most scientific eye testing instruments in the optical field today.
