Citizens Are for Bowerman.

The cattlemen claimed that for years they suffered losses through shrinkage in their stock entailed by railroad delays. Their bill, devised to remedy that condition by placing restrictions on the railroads, seemed assured of success, cattlemen claim, when West, as Railroad Commissioner, aligned himself with the railroads' lawyers to defeat its passage. Leading in the fight on West is Judge A. S. Bennett, Democratic leader and widely known anti-corporation manager of Wasco County. The cattlemen have placed on West the brand of "corporation man" and are fighting him under that standard.

LOCAL ISSUES ARE UPPERMOST

Contest for County Judge and State Senator Warm at Pendleton. PENDLETON, Or., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The most hotly contested and probably the bitterest political campaign in this county has been in many years brought to a close in this city tonight. State issues and state candidates, though not forgotten, have almost been lost sight of in the local issues of local candidates. The liquor interests of the county, ably assisted by the local branch of the Home Union, have been the main factor in every effort to restore the Unimatta county to the "wet" ranks. The "dry" on the other hand have carried on a strenuous campaign in every town, hamlet in the county to the hope of being able to increase their 700 "dry" majority of two years ago.

BE FREE FROM RHEUMATISM

By Keeping Your Blood in Good Condition. Read This Denver Man's Experience Even if You Are Certain That Your Rheumatism Is Incurable.

The system which is run down through overwork or worry, or debilitated from any cause is in constant danger from an attack of rheumatism.

In rheumatism the blood is always thin. Nobody has ever seen a true case of acute rheumatism in which the blood was rich and red.

A course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills makes rich, red blood and thereby creates a condition of the system in which rheumatism is impossible.

A recently reported cure by this treatment is that of Mr. O. N. Jones, of No. 3410 West Thirty-first avenue, Denver, Colo. "I was very much run down from overwork," he says, "and rheumatism followed. I had steady pains across the back and at times would get so stiff that I could hardly straighten out. Sometimes the pains would extend down the sciatic nerves of the limbs, then again there would be shooting pains through other parts of my body.

"I kept using flesh, and could not get a good night's rest. My stomach was in bad condition and I had no desire to eat. All the medicine I took was of little account until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had but little faith in their doing me any good, but after taking one box I felt so much better that I sent for more. They absolutely cured me and although my work of mining engineer takes me in the damp and wet a great deal I have never had the rheumatism since."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are guaranteed to be safe and harmless to the most delicate constitution. They contain no morphine, opiate, narcotic, or anything to cause a drug habit. Owing to their blood-building property they are invaluable in the treatment of such diseases as anemia, green sickness, rheumatism, and the after-effects of fevers.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

IS THIS POLITICS; IF NOT, WHAT?

VOTERS OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY: Do you approve of a Judiciary who sets aside a fine of $100 imposed on a White Slave dealer?

The Evening Telegram on Oct. 29, 1910, published on its front page the fact that George Kavalin, a Greek, was arrested by Patrolmen Hunter and Ellis, for installing two white women in a house of ill-fame. Kavalin was tried before the late Judge Bennett, who imposed on him a fine of $100.00. The case was appealed to the Circuit Court, and the fine was remitted by Judge William N. Gatens, who told Kavalin to leave town for good. Kavalin left Portland long enough to solicit new recruits for immoral purposes, when he returned and was arrested after his house had been raided the second time. And Judge Tazwell has fixed his bail at $1000.

The question for the voter who is asked to vote for Gatens to decide is this: Did Judge Gatens remit this fine on account of his being a Candidate? If not for that reason, why?

The Morning Oregonian, date of Nov. 16, 1909, quotes the late Judge Bennett as follows: "I have evidence that there is an organized gang of officials in this city who are affording protection to a gang of crooks. I may be able to give the facts to the grand jury in a few days."

Chief Cox said in the same issue: "I will leave nothing undone to get at the bottom of this. Judge Bennett would not make such accusations unless he had grounds for it. I do not want to make charges against anyone now. I have relied upon members of the department for my information and may have been misled."

On Oct. 15, 1909, the Hon. Judge Earl Bronough, was the presiding judge of our Circuit Court, and as such it was his duty to pass upon bonds. But William N. Gatens turned loose on the community one Frank Watson, who had been convicted and sentenced to the rockpile by the late Judge Bennett.

The Oregonian of Nov. 17, 1909, says in its editorial column: "Of course the State Bar Association now in session, being concerned with the open and orderly administration of justice, will take up courageously and discuss freely the question as to whether a judge in chambers, or at home, or in ex parte hearing—not to call a mere visit—from the attorneys of a notorious malefactor, should modify and in effect set aside the judgment and sentence of a minor court by releasing the notorious malefactor on a nominal bond while his case is on appeal."

"Is this a seemingly proceeding? Does it tend to cultivate that respect for the courts which the lawyers yearn for so loudly and do so little to inculcate?"

Every thinking man knows that Portland's prosperity is mainly due to her shipping. What disgrace then can be attached to a man who has been a sailor? Besides, "Jack" ashore—be he Captain or deck-hand—is accorded the respect of every self-supporting citizen.

Does any American citizen aspire to hold an office under his flag and for his Government? Then, no matter what his qualifications, let him steer clear of the Navy or Merchant Marine in his early life.

Wm. N. Gatens' principal call to fame is that he was once employed in a sawmill, and the Lord ordained that he should be Portland-born and a Bowerman-Chamberlain adherent.

If every voter could only know John Ditchburn, called by his political enemies "Dutch John," the sailor—by his friends, "Honest John"—if they knew that he had neglected his personal campaign duties to visit sick friends and fraternal brothers, and that he spent the best part of two days arranging and overseeing the funeral details of a fellow-lodge member who died recently; and that when no minister appeared at the grave it was kindly, dignified, benign John Ditchburn who took charge of the last sad rites for his brother—if the voters of Multnomah County knew these things, then they would know John Ditchburn.

He is a capable lawyer and will make an efficient and honest judge, and he is the regularly elected nominee of the Republican Party.

P. E. STRUCK, Staunch Republican.
