Hall-Street District People Oppose Paving Overcharge.

REMONSTRANCE IS FILED

Councilman Devlin Requests Rigid Probe of Work, Which Let for $ 22,905, Doubles in Cost by Engineer's Order

Contending that they are being assessed two and one-half times the contract price of the paving improvement tract price of the paving improvement of Hall street district, property owners have filed a remonstrance. The complaint promises to bring about sensational developments concerning methods followed in handling such contracts.

The photest, drawn up for the property owners by Attorney A. E. Clark, was referred by the Council yesterday afternoon to the Ways and Means Committee. Councilman Devlin asked that the committee be requested to give the subject thorough investigation, saying he believed that such contracts would result in litigation damaging to the city. The district improved embraces Hall street from Fourteenth street to Heights Terrace and from Hall street to the Terrace and from Hall street to the west line of Sixteenth street. The City Engineer estimated the cost of the improvement at $13,652, and the contract was let for $12,905.83. Extra work authorized by the City Engineer brought the cost to $30.844, and it is against this icrease that the protest is made. Important parts of the protest are:

Macadam Not Used?

"The street pavement specified was acadam. Competent engineers state that there is not a single yard of real macadam on the improvement. Upon at least two-thirds of the alleged street improvement the so-called macadam is composed of yellow clay and broken rock, the rock being broken into fragments the size of an egg or larger. The street was never rolled and at present there is hardly any appreciable difference between it and any other ordinary clay or mud street in the suburbs of the city. Furthermore, the sidewalk work is very defective. In places it is break-ing away from the retaining wall, cracking and sagging. There is at present about a block of the sidewalk that has fallen away several inches from the retaining wall, has sagged down for a considerable distance and is cracked and Other defects are apparent from the most casual examination. Contract Called Defective.

"We further protest upon the ground that the proceedings leading up to the securing of the contract and the letting thereof are so defective that the Coun-thereof are so defective that the Coun-cil never acquired jurisdiction.

'The original estimate was for 2955 cubic yards of earth excavation and the bid was 75 cents a yard. Probably not a yard of this dirt had to be moved more than 100 feet, and most of it was used upon the slopes. Competent engineers say that the dirt could be handled at a profit of 20 cents a yard. The final esti-mate for excavation was 4585 cubic yards, an increase of 50 per cent over the first an increase of 80 per cent over the first estimate. In addition to this 25 cents a yard was bid for embankments, which were made by merely throwing the ex-be led to believe by engineers estimates and bids submitted thereon that the cost of an improvement will be approximately a certain figure, and upon the faith of these permit the improvement to go on, and then be finally assessed for several times the estimated cost."
