Positively Declines.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10 .- Several new names were advanced today in connec tion with the Senatorship to succeed Chauncey M. Depew. Among them were Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall; Mayor Gaynor, Thomas M. Osberne, of Auburn: Norman E. Mack and Martin W. Littleton, Representative-elect from the Oyster Bay district.

John R. Stanchfield, William F. Sheehan and Edward M. Shepard continue to figure in the gossip.

Charles F. Murphy quickly denied any ambition to become Senator. Nothing could induce him to seek the position, he said. He also announced that he will start tomorrow either for Hot Springs. Ark. or Mount Clemens, Mich. for a rest.

Although Mayor Gaynor refused to be a candidate for Governor, those who desire to put him in the race for Senator argue that in view of the election results, the reasons that impelled his refusal no longer exist. The Mayor said nothing.

Judge Alton B. Parker authorized the following statement tonight:

"I am appreciative of the fact that a great many good people favor my selection as a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Depew. I am indeed most grateful to Depew. I am indeed most grateful to them for suggesting a most attractive opportunity for useful public service, but my obligations are such that I could not accept the office, even if it should be tendered to me.

D. Cady Herrick, mentioned as another probability, said today that he should certainly accept the Senatorship were it offered him.

Edward M. Shepard, also spoken of, was non-commital.
