Gelwin's mishap left Roebling as Dawson's chief competitor. Roebling lost nearly a minute by a stop for fuel and was going strong until the last lap, when his car crashed, crashing into a tree and damaging the gear and control. Undaunted, he sent the crippled car on, finishing second after being reported out of the race.

MINIDOKA PROJECT AIDS

Snake River Valley Irrigated District Shows Bountiful Crops.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The substantial success of the farmers on the Minidoka irrigation project in Idaho this year places this region well to the front among the irrigated districts of the Snake River valley.

seekers from all parts of the country. Its many and varied attractions in climate, soil and crop possibilities, as well as the numerous opportunities afforded by its large areas yet undeveloped, are drawing to the state thousands of homeseekers. The Snake River Valley in Southern Idaho, which a few years ago was a desolate and uninhabitable desert, has undergone a wonderful transformation. An area as large as the cultivated area of Rhode Island and Delaware is today producing good crops, and a cosmopolitan population of probably not less than 20,000 people is now residing in this once sterile waste.
