HENEY MAY BRING LAND-FRAUD WRITS

Special Prosecutor Reported Anxious to Close Jones and Mays Cases.

POLICY IS NOT DEFINED

Filing of Mandates Is Only Detail Necessary to Give Effect to Sentenees of Imprisonment Already Imposed.

Francis J. Heney, prosecutor as special assistant to the Attorney-General famous Oregon land fraud cases, is expected to arrive in Portland tomorrow, and it is believed that he is bringing the mandates from the Court of Appeals which will conclude the cases against Willard N. Jones and Franklin Pierre Mays. The higher court has Pierce Mays. The higher court has confirmed the convictions of both Mays and Jones in the Blue Mountain compliancy trials, but the mandates placing the sentences of both men in effect have been withheld from the records of the Oregon courts, while ef-forts were made to secure pardons from President Taft.

Up to the present no announcement has been made that the President would aid Jenes in escaping his pardon sen-tence of one year and one day, while the Mays' application has been sent to Washington only recently.

It was in reviewing the Jones case that the Court of Appeals discovered an error in the sentence and the lower court was called upon to change it.

Mays was sentenced to four months in the County Jail and to pay a fine of $10.000.

It is understood that Mr. Hency tins consistently refused to join in the rev-emmendation that Jones and Mays shall receive the elemency of the President. and when in Portland last Spring the prosecuting officer said that he considered Jones one of the Oregon land frauders who should be imprisoned in explation of his manipulation of the land laws. Mr. Heney is understood to have notified attorneys representing the defendants that he wished to close those cases on this trip to Portland.

It was this statement that hurrled the Mays application for pardon to Washington, and an effort will be made to induce Mr. Hency to defer filing the mandates in court until after January I. Should the documents be placed on record the defendants will be turned over at once to the United States Mar-Should they be not filed no action toward placing the sentences in effect could be taken. It is expected that Mr. Heney will take action while here to relieve the docket of several old indictments, some of which have stood nearly six years. Among them are the cases sgainst Horace McKinley and S. A. D. Puter, which have been held over them Puter, which have been held over them to guarantee their assistance in ferreting out frauds committed by other men. No one in Portland has been advised what action Mr. Heney will take. He may ask to have all the cases set down for trial in December and January, or he may ask that several, if not all, of them be dismissed.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the disposition to be made of the course of preparation. Now being charged with having been associated with Jones and Mays in the Blue Mountain conspiracy. The jury failed to agree at a former trial, and following his return to Roseburg Mr. Hermann suffered a physical collapse. For many weeks he was thought to be dying, but rallied and is now reported to be able to transact minor business. Mr. Hermann has not been in Portland since the close of the trial. Mr. Hency has just concluded a long speaking campaign in the United States es behalf of "progressive" Republican-lam, finishing the last two weeks be-fore election in support of his law as-sociate, Hiram Johnson, for Governor of California. It is understood to be Mr. Heney's desire to close his Western cases to take up the practice of law in New York City.

Stock Company and Farmers Contend for Silvies River Flow.

Peter Clemens, P. G. Smith, James Pirie and J. C. Creasman, Harney County ranchmen, were made defend yesterday in the United States Court in a controversy over the diver non of the waters of Silvies River for irrigation purposes. The Pacific Live stock Company has asked for a permanent injunction, asserting that so verted by the crop raisers that the eattlemen are unable to secure a suf-ficient supply of water for the use of their stock and for domestic purposes. The Pacific Livestock Company as-

The present suit represents the second controversy which has been litt-gated between the parties. The first suit was filed in 1901 and was settled out of court through an agreement which gave the farmers the right to repair one bank of the stream, put in headgates and hulld ditches, they having the privilege of using all water not required by the animals belonging to the livestock company.

It is asserted that the embankment has gone to ruin, that the headgate is in had repair and that a large por tion of the flow of the Silvies escapes into the ditches at all times. It is asked that the right of the stock company to all the water of the stream be approved by the court.

POLICEMEN WHO WILL BE REWARDED TODAY FOR BRAVERY EXHIBITED ON DUTY.

Semi-annual inspection of the police force will take place tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, at the Armory, before the Mayor, the Police Commissioners and the public, which is invited to be present. The battalion will be commanded by Captain Moore, and the companies by Captains Baty, Bailey and Slover and selected sergeants. Sergeant Kiley will act as adjutant. During the inspection the city will be policed by special officers. The inspection will be followed by a parade through the principal streets, headed by the police band. This will be the first appearance of the police in a body, wearing the new caps, concerning which there has been much discussion. Commissioner Sichel, who fathered the change of uniform, is looking to the occasion for vindication in the public opinion, and contends that the caps will be held to be more dressy in parade than were the helmets.

An unusual feature of the inspection will be the decoration for bravery of two police officers. The policy of bestowing medals for meritorious services, recently adopted, was to have been put into effect at the June inspection, but the medals had not yet arrived. Tomorrow morning comemmoration will be given of acts of bravery by Patrolmen Croxford and Stahl, each of whom killed a highwayman at great personal risk, during an epidemic of saloon robberies, last January.

Larceny - Winters Narrowly

Escapes Contempt Penalty.

Because he thought the law permitted him to selze anything he could find to en-force the payment of a debt, H. D. Winters, a capitalist of the East Side, found himself in the Police Court yes-terday on a charge of larceny. The complainant was T. H. Nelson. Winters said that Nelson was in arrears for lodg-ing. Nelson said that he tendered a check in payment, but that Winters, having once accepted a bad check, refused to accept one on this occasion.

Judge Taxwell imposed a fine of $25.
"It's robbery," cried Winters.
"You would better modify your language, or it will be four times twenty-five,"

Winters left the courtroom in half a daze, shaking his head and muttering. He was before the same court a few months ago on the charge of detaining a lodger's trunk without warrant, sen-

Oregon and Washington to Draw Heavily in 1911.

Unusual activity in industrial publicity is manifest in every portion of licity is manifest in every portion of the Columbia and Willamette Valleys, as well as across the ranges into Wash-ington and Eastern Oregon. Reports received by Publicity Promoter Chap-man, of the Portland Commercial Club, from all sections are remarkable in the detailed account given of the interest and activity shown by Oregon and Washington boosters.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the disposition to be made of the Binger-Hermann case. Mr. Hermann pamphlets of the 1911 stamp are being by every town seeking indevelopment. Among creased are Portland Salem. River, The Dalles, Ashland, Me Roseburg, Pendleton and Baker. Medford,

"There never has been a time," said Mr. Chapman, "when there was so much stirring in the work of making known the resources of the state to the people in the Middle West and the East. Every thriving railroad center in the Mississippi and Missouri River Valleys has literature on Oregon, plenty of it.

The railroads have on display in their big plate-glass windows the beautiful apples of the state. The raiload exhibit cars are now on their way throughout the East, sending out in each town the gospel of our glorious climate, soil and possibilities. Estimates of Various Departments Reduced to Come Within Allowance.

SERIOUS PROBLEM OFFERS

Change of Charter Necessary to Obtain Funds for Street Cleaning Department--General Fund 1s Insufficient.

Six mills will probably be the city tax levy for next year. This is the opinion of Mayor Simon, who will complete the compilation of his annual sudget within the next few days. It has been necessary for the Mayor to cut down the estimates of various departments as much as possible, but the growth of the city has made it necessary to provide considerably more money for running it in 1911 than was used this year.

"I shall recommend to the Council." said the Mayor yesterday, "that the levy be not more than six mills." Last year the levy was only 4.9 mills, out that was less than the year previous. The limit allowed by the charter is seven mills. How to get money to meet the expense of the streetcleaning and sprinkling department is becoming a serious ing cities: Weiser, Payette, Emmett, Caldwell, Nampa, Mountain Home, Gooding, Halley, Twin Falls, Pocatello, Blackfoot, idaho Falls and Montpeller. problem at the City Hall, for the law does not permit the Council to levy a tax for that expense. At the time Blackfoot, idaho Falls and Montpeller,

"I have come to Portland to arrange for hotel accommodations for the excursion, which we have already named the 'Boosters of Idaho,' said Mr. Gibbons, "and while I am here I shall arrange for accommodations during the entire trip. We expect to get either a special train for the girls or else to

New Streets Make Burden Heavy.

With the great increase in the miles of paved streets, the cost of this department has grown so rapidly that in 1911 it will not be possible to care for also our plan to visit the chief points of scenic interest on the Coast and to have theater parties, sight-seeing tours it from the general fund. The growth of expense in the department can be understood when it is explained that in 1903 it amounted to $43,913.48, while for this year it will reach $248,750.48, or almost six times as much as it was seven years ago. The head of that department has asked for an appropriation for next year of $329,566.50.

The estimated receipts for the gen-eral fund, from which the money for the streetcleaning and sprinkling de-partment must be taken according to the present law, for next year is $689,the present law, for next year is $003, 682, while the estimated expenditures amount to $899,235.60. Thus there must be a deficiency, if the estimate is approved, of considerably more than $100,000, and there is no way for the Council to meet it, unless the charter is charged to so to permit the city to cil to meet it, unless the charter is changed to so as to permit the city to levy a tax for the street department.

Almost every year one or more of the funds for which a tax has been levied is depleted before the year ends, and this deficiency must be made up from the general fund. The amount of money thus transferred to other funds from the general fund this year will amount to about $74,000. In 1908 if reached $103,005.

It is believed now that in order to keep the departments dependent on the general fund from realizing a deficit in future years, it will be necessary to ask the people to change the charter so as to permit the city to levy a tark to ray for the street department. tax to pay for the street department.

One thing that may increase the general fund next year is the proposed ineral fund next year is the proposed in-crease in the price of liquor licenses from $890 a year to $1000 a year. An ordinance providing for this is now be-fore the Council. It was introduced by Councilman Wallace.

Anti - Treating Movement Begins in Suburb

Rose City Park Folk Will Pay Own Carfare as Test of Plan.

THE Rose City Park Improvement Association has started a movement that may eventually break up the treating system. The reform is to begin with abolishing the practice of paying each other's streetcar fare. The mem bers of the association have agreed that no matter what the circumstances, they will pay only their own fares on the streetcar. Should a young man take a young woman in Rose City Park to the theater, which sometimes happens, the young woman must provide herself with 19 cents before she starts. Although the money in a family goes into and comes out of the general fund, when it comes to streetear riding each member must have a nickel to give the conductor to Rose City Park cars has greatly in-creased, due to the fact that persons loyal to the agreement have been taking loyal to the agreement have been taking pains to obtain correct change before boarding the cars. The conductors have grown correspondingly indolent, on account of lack of exercise in making change. This is an effect not anticipated when the reform system was inaugurated, but members of the association hope to supplant the deficiency felt by the conductors by inducing them to help women and babies on and off the cars. When all the residents of Rose Clty Park are broken into the habit of not paying the fare of anyone or allowing anyone to pay their fare, the association proposes to broaden the scope of the reform movement by extending it to the cigar stores, carsty shops, restaurants cigar stores, caused shops, restaurants and, eventually, to have everybody chewing his own gum.

When a remedy has lived for over thirty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their very lives to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great

We challenge the world to show any other one remedy for a special class of disease which has attained such an enormous demand and maintained it for so many years as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the famous woman's remedy for woman's ills. Unless it is a very good medicine and the claims made for it are honest, such a record would have been impossible—fraud or misrepresentations would long ago have been detected and the business gone into oblivion. Read this unsolicited letter:-

Corry, Pa. - "I am happy to write you about the benefit I received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before my marriage two years ago, I suffered something awful every month with pains and other distressing symptoms, and I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in dry form. Since then I have never been troubled with pain, not even a dull backache or headache, and it has helped me a good deal before childbirth. I recommend your medicine wherever I go." -Mrs. E. E. Ross, 112 E. Church St., Corry, Pa.

When a woman like Mrs. Ross is generous enough to write such a letter as the above for publication, she should at least be given credit for a sincere desire to help other suffering women. For we assure you there is no other reason why she should court such publicity.

We say it in all sincerity and friendship—try this medicine.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
