Tacoma & Seattle Streetcar Systems Lose in Long Fight to Avoid Paying Taxes When Electron Plant Is Seized.

TACOMA, Wash, Nov. 15.-(Special.)-A tie-up of the streetcar system of Tacoma and Seattle was averted at 5:45 o'clock today, after deputy sheriffs, scting under orders of County Treasurer Ed Meath, had selzed the Puget Sound Power Company's plant, at Electron, when James B. Howe, of Seattle, gen-gial counsel for the Stone & Webster in-terests, paid $122,154.74 in cold cash into

The hands of the County Treasurer.

The amount included taxes due the county from the power company for 1987, 1968 and 1969, and the interest on the amount delinquent, some $10,000, and the roots of selling the big power plant. Payment and the roots of selling the big power plant. ment was not made until representatives of Stone & Webster had exhausted every other means to settle the matter. Deputy sheriffs were sent to Electron this morning to selve the plant and were met with barricades which prevented en-trance. During the afternoon the barricades were removed by the company's men, on advices from Tacoms, and the piant was selred and the power necessary to run the Taconn and Seattle streetcar systems had to be generated by the auxil-

SALOONKEEPERS URGED TO OBEY SUNDAY CLOSING.

Brewers and Wholesalers Insist That Violation Should Mean Loss of License.

The Oregon State Brwers' Association, The Oregon State Breers Association, and the Oregon State Retail Liquor Dealers' Association, at a joint meeting yesterday afternoon recommended that the penalty for saloenkeepers keeping open Sunday, selling liquor on Sunday and violating other laws regulating the liquor traffic be revocation of the license, and the City Council is urged to take this drastic action.

The fellowing statement, prepared by Paul Wessinger, president of the Oregon State Brewers' Association; S. Julius Mayer, president of the Oregon Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association, and C. D. Elder, secretary of the Oregon State Retail Liquor Dealers' Association, on Monday, was approved by the joint conference: the Oregon Wholesale Liquor Dealers

Monday, was approved by the joint conference:

The man Kalmbach, who threw open his salien on Sunday and soid liquor in defiance of law, was either a simple fool, the toy of Probibitionists, who, in the chagrin of siefeat are seeking to embroil unsuspecting selections, or a man willing to break the law for a fleeting profit. In either event he deserves no sympathy and will receive note from the organized liquor interests of Orogon. We respectfully urge the City Council to cancel this man's license. We respectfully urge the City Council to cancel this man's license. We respectfully urge the City Council to cancel the Sunday closting law or any other law regulating the liquor traffic.

If this man Kalmbach was misled or misinformed for the purpose of procuring a violation of the Sunday closing law, we respectfully urge that the proper authorities prisecuts the person or persons who so misled or misinformed lim. If, as has been stated, such person was an officer of the law, he should be summarily removed. But even these externating circumstances, if they obtained, should not entitle Kalmbach to consideration. If a salconkeeper who has passed through the recent campaign in the State of Gregon docent know enough to inform himself regarding the law, he should not be allowed to keep a salcon, but the punishment should not stop with a fine the license should be revoked. Revocation of license is the only adequate remedy for violation of the liquor laws. We urge the vigorous prosecution according to law of every person or persons who in any manner violate any law regulating the liquor traffic.

We invite the co-operation of all persons who in good faith, desire to bring about better enforcement of laws regulating the liquor traffic.

"Beer will not hurt anyone if used in a reasonable manner, on the contrary it has a very considerable food value. Of course, it will intoxicate if people drink too much of it, but why condemu beer wholesale because a few people make hogs of themselves? We are gomake hogs of themselves? We are going to try, as we have in the past, to make the saloonkeepers understand that they should sell beer to their patrons instead of strong drinks, which we call 'booze' and also that they should be careful to work for their own interests that their patrons may not become intoxicated."
