TEXAS GUINAN IS NOT STAGEY OUT OF THEATER

Prima Donna of "The Kissing Girl" Does Not Ladle Out Prepared Interviews or Display Scrapbooks Full of Boosts.

ACTRESS and actresses invariably say that they dislike being interviewed, that it is an ordeal to be compelled to reel off platitudes, that no writer clever though he or she may be, can discover aught of the interviewed one's personality in a half-hour conversation. To prove all this, they meet the pencil-pusher more than two-thirds of the way, armed with a fat scrap-book of favorable press notices (never see any other kind in an actor's scrap-book), and a notebook in which they have jotted down a few observations. "I'd like your readers to have," or "a few things I've thought out."

Miss Texas Guinan, comedienne in the musical play, "The Kissing Girl," at Heilig Theater.

"After, too, they spring that perennial, "Since I have been so 'cro-o-ridy' misquoted out here in the West—I say it as if we were aborigines—I have had my stenographer (note the possessive) take down a few notes for you. Kindly return them to me, as the San Francisco papers are clamoring for them also, and if you'd be so kind as to send the office boy up with the proofs of this interview so that my secretary can correct them, I will consider you and the paper you represent still overwhelmingly indebted to me."

Which prologue is all to lead up to the simple statement that pretty, plump, and altogether jolly Texas Guinan (pronounced Gy-man), star of "The Kissing Girl," current at the Heilig, isn't like any of these. She is, in fact, so un-stagey and absolutely human in appearance that for a minute I fancied I'd stepped into the wrong room when a starchy-eyed, rosy-cheeked maiden all bundled up in a wet raincoat opened the door in response to my knock.

"She had just come in from a horseback ride, she said. A horseback ride, she further inferred that had consumed most of her morning, and that had taken her over all the prettiest spots of Portland. She trailed about the room, divesting herself of her wet garments.

verbal fling with the average talker, but being interviewed is not a grand passion with me. Probably it's because I realize that whatever I think has already been thought of; whatever I say, someone else has already said, and far better than I could put it.

"I'm going into vaudeville next Spring. That's real art. In April, I close with this company in Chicago, and open probably May 1 on the Orpheum circuit. Then I'll be back out here again. I'm a regular Coast defender. Why, I've just bought an apple-orchard in the Yakima valley, and intend to spend my middle-age right out here. This part of the world is like that phrase the novelists dwell on so much, 'God's country.'"

JAPANESE SLAYER CAUGHT

Morimoto Much Emaciated After Trip Through Woods.

After killing his housemate at Orling, Wash., and wandering about without food in the woods nearly two weeks, Toyji Morimoto, a Japanese, came into Portland yesterday and was taken into custody by Police Sergeant Keller and Patrolman Epps. He did not know that the man he had shot was dead until informed by the officers. He wept when he heard the news.

IRATE WOMAN CALLS HELP

Police Berated for Lack of Enthusiasm in 95-Cent Case.

"Send some policemen and detectives to 184 Eleventh street, right away, quick," said an excited female voice at the other end of the telephone, at the police station yesterday morning.

"What for?" asked the unemotional Desk Officer Harms.

SIGMA CHI IS FIFTH

FRATERNITY TO INSTITUTE CHAPTER AT UNIVERSITY.

Six Portland Boys Are Members. Oregon Alumni Will Attend Ceremonies at Eugene, Saturday.

Six Portland students will be charter members of Sigma Chi Fraternity, to be established at the University of Oregon Saturday, November 25. This will be the fifth National Greek Letter fraternity for Oregon, the others being Sigma Nu, Alpha Tau Omega, Kappa Sigma and Beta Theta Pi.

Installation of Sigma Chi at the Oregon will be conducted by Grand Tribune Trimpe, of Chicago, who will pass through Portland today from Seattle with the degree team and members of the chapter at the University of Washington. There will be a smoker at the Koda Khan house in Eugene tonight. The installation will take place Saturday night, followed by a banquet. Monday there will be a luncheon for Oregon Grills in Portland, when Grand Tribune Trimpe will be guest of honor.

Members of the Portland Alumni Chapter who will attend the installation ceremony at Oregon will leave for Eugene Saturday afternoon. The alumni members are: J. G. Beach, J. F. Belcher, V. P. Harris, M. L. Holbrook, E. G. Chamberlin, P. M. Dintick, W. S. Gaylord, P. Holman, H. B. Humphrey, R. P. Hurst, O. P. M. Jamison, C. W. Linebaugh, Lyman Couvert, G. E. Hogan, N. Marcus, W. W. Sigma Chi fraternity was founded at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1855. Among some of the fraternity members are George Ade, J. T. McCutcheon, Judge Ferris, and Governor Harmon, of Ohio.

Farmers' School to Be Held.

FOREST GROVE, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—A farmers' school, to be conducted in Forest Grove under the auspices of the Horticultural Society, the County Dairy Association and Gales Grange will be held December 6 and 7, inclusive. The meetings will be held in Knights of Pythias hall, and classes will be conducted in horticulture, dairying and general farming and domestic science. Austin Buxton, ex-state master of Oregon State Grange, is making the preliminary plans for the session, which promise to be well attended. It is probable that members of the State Agricultural College will be here to conduct the classes.

Orrine Does Cure DRUNKENNESS

This is a positive fact known to tens of thousands of wives and mothers of this land. They know Orrine is a reliable remedy for the cure of drunkenness, because it has restored their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness. Everyone of these women bought Orrine with full confidence that it would effect a cure or their money would be refunded to them if it failed. This guarantee is in each box. No other remedy for the cure of drunkenness is sold with this liberal guarantee, but Orrine has been so uniformly successful that the makers want the buyers to know that they have full protection if it should fail in any instance. We never publish letters of patients, but recently this letter came to us from Dr. Noite, 8th and Race Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. Read it and you will readily appreciate why Orrine is so well thought of.

"I have had a remarkable case of inebriety under my personal observation. The patient drank heavily for fifteen years and reached a degraded condition, which caused the breaking up of his family and separation from his wife. Every hope was given up of ever saving the man from his strong desire for drink, and only a mother's interest finally persuaded him to voluntarily take treatment for his diseased condition. It was my pleasure to recommend Orrine, your liquid habit cure, and the treatment was taken faithfully. This was two years ago and the patient is now in a healthy condition and still abstains from the use of stimulants. I have sold Orrine for a number of years and have always found it to be satisfactory. I believe you have an unusually good treatment for this disease.

Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. Orrine No. 2, in pill form, is for those who wish to cure themselves. Orrine costs only $1 a box. The guarantee is in each box. Write for Free Orrine Booklet (enclosed in plain sealed envelope) to Orrine Co., 730 Orrine Building, Washington, D. C. Orrine is for sale in this city by Siddons Drug Co., 151 Third St., and 373-374 Morrison St.

They know Orrine is a reliable and efficacious remedy for drunkenness and they will not offer you a substitute.

Not One Drop of Alcohol In This

The endorsement of your doctor will certainly greatly increase your confidence in Ayer's Pills as a family laxative. Liver pills. All vegetable. Ask your doctor about them.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic and alterative, free from alcohol.

What is a "tonic"? A medicine that imparts strength or tone; a medicine that builds up, gives vigor and power. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Ayer's Sarsaparilla does all this without stimulation. Never take a medicine your own doctor cannot endorse.
