NEW YORK, Nov. 24-A manifesto

NEW TORK, Nov. 26—A manifesto credited to and signed by Francisco I. Madero, calling on the people of Mexico to rise against the government of General Porficio Disk, was made public here tonight by friends of Madero, who said that it had been received today.

The manifesto is dated San Luis Potosi, Mexico, October 5, 1910. A footnote asserts that the call is for private circulation up to November 15, and that thereafter it is to be circulated broadcast.

"In their uninterrupted struggle for the triumph of the ideals of liberty and justice, peoples are compelled at certain historical moments to make the greatest historical moments to make the greatest sacrifices," the manifesto begins. "Out beloved fatherland has reached such a stage. A despotism such as we Mexicans have not been accustomed to bear since we procured our independence oppres to much a degree that it has become

People Are Dissatisfied.

The manifesto then recites that a feel ing of unrest has pervaded the republi because of this avetem of governm grown because of the effects of General Diaz to saddle on the Nation a successor of his own choice.

This, it is declared, decided many Mexicans to undertake the struggle for a recovery of popular sovereignty. The antire-election national party was organized for this purpose. It named Madero and Dr. Francisco Pasquez Gomez for the offices of president and vice-president.
The manifesto states that General Diaz, realizing the conditions, had Madero imprisoned before the elections.

The elections took place, it is said, the Madero Speaks of Himself.

This unlawful and ruthless situa-tion cannot longer subsist," the mani-festo continues. "I have thoroughly comprehended that, if the people have designated me as a candidate for the presidency, it is not because they have discerned in me the gifts of a states-man or ruler, but the manliness of a patriot, determined, if necessary, to sacrifice himself, provided liberty can be achieved.

'In virtue of the above and as an echo of the National will, I declare now the past elections to be lilegal and the republic to be without lawful govern-ment and I assume, provisionally the presidency of the republic until the people will designate its rulers in con-formity with the law. To attain this end, it is necessary to remove from nower the audacious usurpers, that, as sofe title of legality, display scandal-

There is no trouble in the states of Durango, Zacatecas, Sinaloa and Aguns Callentes. The excitement caused by the outbreak is subsiding and today business in this territory has been resumed

The fighting at Gomez Palacio resulted from an attempt by revolutionists to loot from an attempt by revolutionists to look the tax collector's office. Early Monday morning 80 rebels attacked the police quarters at Gomez Paiacio, which was guarded only by Commandant Eucario Ruiz, an adjutant and five policemen. The revolutionists opened fire and the officers answered in kind, but the latter were soon out of ammunition and were compelled to retreat. The rebels thereupon took possession of the police quarters, opened the prison, liberating a few prisoners and robbing several houses.

During the fight the adjutant, a citizen helping in the defense and a revolution. He attempted to fly back from Creland to Philadelphia in the same Bleriot monopiane in which he reached a height of 9570 feet yesterday. He became lost and was forced to land in Trenton Junction, four miles from Trenton, N. J. Oreland is about 13 miles from Philadelphia, but Drexel in his flight of one hour and ten minutes traveled 20 miles.

Mr. Drexel landed because of a shortage of gasoline. He mistook the Delaware River for the Schuylkill and traveled north instead of south.

Claude Grahame-White and several zen helping in the defense and a revolu-tionist were killed. A policeman who was wounded died later. Several of the attacking party were wounded, but they were carried away by their comrades.

After routing the police the rebel band, now grown to the number of 200, entered the government pawnshop and opening the vaults seized a supply of arms. They then marched to the tax collector's office and demanded $5000, promising to re-imburse the collector when the cause of Francisco I. Madero, the rebel leader, triumphed. Under threats the collector of Francisco I. Madero, the rebel leader, triumphed. Under threats the collector opened his safe and the invaders seized $400.

Leaving the tax collector's office, the rebels encountered a party of rurales under command of Chief of Police Zuniga. The rebels were forced back and dispersed. A small band of rurals from Lerdo arrived on the scene during the fighting and engaged a group of the rebels. The rurales were outnumbered and fell back. Another fight occurred in front of the city market, during which two rurales were wounded by machettes, and the second collector of the city market, during which two rurales were wounded by machettes, and the second collector of the united States Army. General Allen was taken around the field several times at a height of several hundred feet. He was so much at ease that he was taken for a trip over the Philadelphia Navy-yard, which is about a mile from Point Breeze. two rurales were wounded by ma and Felly Chaver, the rurale chief, was killed. Another rurale who was wounded died later. Rebels robbed Chavez's body

The rebels retreating barricaded them-selves behind a bridge, where in another skirmish two soldiers were killed. After this encounter the revolutionists fled to
