Though Femininity Is Decidedly Dry. Poll Is Not Strong Enough to Kill Saloons-Defeat Is Third for Drys There.

ANACORTES, Wash., Dec. &-(Special.) -In spite of the woman's vote, which was expected to carry the election today in Anacortes, the next to the largest city in to vote without registering is a most ed question and all the legal authorism interesting campaign in which suffrage ties are at variance. for the fair sex was exercised for the first time in almost two decades.

first time in almost two decades.

Amacortees today polled WS votes. Of this number its were women registered, only about two-thirds of whom took advantage of the right given them by the recent women suffrage amendment and the Governor's proclamation.

The women voters were decidedly dry and upon their assistance much depended to place Anacortes out of the wet column. The great majority of these voting cost their bailots for the Union ticket, which was a combination of the dry and woman-suffrage voters. The citizens' ticket was pronounced a winner critizens' ticket was pronounced a winner after the ballots were cast by a majority ranging between 200 and 250.

Usually but one ticket is in the field and offices go begging. This year the officers regularly nominated by the caucus were opposed by a full ticket. Aside from the curiosity aroused by seeing women going to the polls, considerable excitement was stirred over the question of allowing stock to run at large within the corporate limits, and the slogan. "Cow or no cow," was used by the different factions.

Suffering

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble.

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, but Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a re-markable case of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dys-pepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach. He had pains like in the stomach. He had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, caus-ing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

"I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a 50-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured. "There was no more addity or sour,

"There was no more acidity or sour, watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy fiesh.
