THREATS MADE BY MRS. GLOVER TOLD

Witness for Hattie Le Blanc Says Laundryman's Wife Spoke of Shooting.

LAWYERS HAVE WRANGLE

Counsel for Girl Charged With Murder Wants District Attorney to Testify for Defense, but

Latter Declines. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 8 .- Mrs

Lillian A. Glover three times threatened to buy a revolver and shoot her husband, Clarence F. Glover, a laundryof Waltham, for whose murder Hattie Le Blanc is now on trial here according to the testimony of Mrs. Kate Sampson, of Auburndale, a witness for the defense today.

Mrs. Sampson said Mrs. Glover made these threats while visiting her at Auburndale, and that she appeared enraged because she said, she had found her husband in the bathroom insulting Hattle Le Blanc.

Hattle Le Blanc.

A. Farley Brewer, junior counsel, in outlining the case of the defense today, said Hattle Le Blanc was brought to Glover's home designedly and was sent from there designedly on the night of the murder.

The senior counsel for the defense, Melvin M. Johnson, then naked District Attorney Higgins to take the stand as the first witness for the defense. Mr. Higgins declined, the jury was sent from the room and a heated argument followed. Finally Judge Bond raised that the District Attorney need not take the stand and the jury was recalled. Neighbors and relatives of the defendant were first called.

These witnesses testified that Hattle was one of 15 children, and always bore a good reputation before coming to the United States.

Hattle Le Blanc's stater, Mrs. Irete

Hattle Le Blanc's sister, Mrs. Irete Le Blanc Langely, testified that Mrs. Glover showed her three notes which she had written in which she declared she wished to rid herself of her husband and would do so.

Californians, in Alarm, Plan to Adopt Quarantine Law.

STOCKTON, Cal. Dec. 8.—That the fruit industry of the state of California is in imminent danger of destruction due to the rapidly nearing presence of due to the rapidly nearing presence of the dread Mediterranean fruit fly or ceratitis capitata, was unanimously acclaimed by the State Fruit convention today. Immediate, drastic steps were taken toward accurring protection.

A resolution is now in the course of construction with which a special legislative committee will be armed to secure a quarantine law, a remedy indorsed by the convention as the only one which can flight the peril with any degree of assurance.

The subject of the Mediterranean fruit fly was introduced in a sensational address by George Compere, of the State Commission of Horticulture. Mr. Compere deciared that the peril was only six days distant from this state. He said the fly was being introduced in the personal baggage of simmigrants, and in the fruit supply of ships.

Russo-Chinese Bank Defaulter Decides to Tell All.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 .- E. J. Wider NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—E. J. Wider told the District Attorney today what became of the missing $740,000 of the $540,000 which he confessed having stolen from the New York bank of the Emso-Chinese Bank, while its cashler. After his arrest in July, he accounted for all the money except $240,000, and pleading guilty, asked several times to be sentenced. But the District Attorney, hoping to trace the unaccounted funds, had Wider held unsentenced in the Tombs. Today, upon advice of counsel, he decided to confess in the hope of a lightened sentence. The confession probably will be made public Saturday.
