OREGON CITY, OR., DEC. 11.—(Special.)

According to prominent members of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of this city, scant credit is being given by the congregation to the story that Rev. Charles U. Robinson, rector of the Church of the Evangelist in Philadelphia, who has been called to the local pulpit, was forced to resign.

WE HAVE NO INTENTION

"We have no intention," said John R. Humphrey, one of the vestrymen of the church, "of being influenced in regard to our new rector."
