Better late than never. Here is a treat to my old customers as well as to new patrons. While I was in London last July, buying my woollens, I went also to Huddersfield, England, and made a large purchase of woollens, which goods were to follow me; but by misdirection these goods were shipped astray to Portland, Maine, instead of Portland, Oregon. These goods arrived here November 11, three months too late.

I therefore refused to accept this late shipment. Negotiations followed. In order that I accept this shipment of goods, the manufacturers have allowed me 37 1/2 per cent discount. Now, I want my patrons to receive the benefit of this large discount. These goods should sell from $40.00 to $55.00 per suit at regular price; but in order to give you the benefit of this large discount I will give you your unrestricted choice of this lot of suits or overcoats made to your order with extra pants absolutely free of charge from $30.00 to $35.00.

I do not have to brag of my reputation for making clothes. The years I have been in business in Portland, with thousands of suits that I have made, is enough to testify to my integrity in doing business. Bear in mind that my store is one of the largest Tailoring Establishments in Portland, and carries the largest stock of imported woollens in the city. All garments are cut by me personally, and every detail is carefully watched and all our goods are made on the premises under my personal supervision.

LURID TALES TOLD

Daughter in Court Learns of Mother's Life.

LAWYERS SPARE NOTHING

Girl Leaves Room as Opposing Counsel in "Lucky" Baldwin Will Contest Turn Light on Woman's Alleged Dark Past.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Beatrice Anita Baldwin, the Boston girl who is trying to break into the Baldwin estate, heard the lurid story of her mother's life today for the first time, as it was related in court.

There were two versions of it. One pictured her mother as an unscrupulous, cold, unfeeling, and unscrupulous woman who had married women were wedding rings; a girl deceived to California by a designing old millionaire and deceived by "Lucky" Baldwin into living as his wife under the fake contract of marriage.

The other version presented her mother at the age of 31 as a hardened adventuress, mistress of a Boston millionaire, forced by the disturbance in his family to seek new fields and new victims in California. "Lucky" Baldwin was pictured as her prey.

The girl sat wide-eyed and wondering through the recital of version No. 1 as her attorneys related it to the jury in Judge Rivers' court. When the opposing attorneys in their opening statement began to turn the red light on her mother's alleged sordid past, she left her seat and, with her chairmen, left the courtroom.

When her mother goes on the witness stand tomorrow she will not be present. Her attorneys have arranged that she shall spend the day at the beach. It was expected that Mrs. Turnbull would be placed on the witness stand this afternoon, and the courtroom was jammed.

$6.50 IS CAUSE OF ARREST

Man Who Conducts Alleged Adjustment Company Is Held.

A. E. Valencia, who conducts an "adjustment company" with offices in the Westland building, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Wagner upon complaint of Fred Wunder. Involving the sum of $6.50, said to have been advanced as costs for the collection of a bill, the proceeds of which had not been turned over to Wunder by Valencia.

Other complaints against Valencia, under similar circumstances, are pending. Valencia came here recently from Los Angeles, where he was party-teller in the First National Bank. He established the Merchants Adjustment Company and took offices, in which, says Constable Wagner, the only equipment was the sign. He advertised for delinquent accounts to collect and secured an assignment from Wunder. Valencia says that he secured a note from the debtor in settlement of the claim, but he had not turned the note over to Wunder. Several weeks ago he dropped out of sight and was not located until picked

JURY LIST BEING DRAWN

Doctors, Lawyers, Women, Clergymen and Firms Exempt.

Two young women, deputies under County Clerk Fielda, are drawing the names of citizens from the personal property tax roll to serve as jurors in the Circuit Court during 1911. One of the deputies is checking the roll with the list of 1910 jurors, so that none of those who served in 1910 will be drawn to serve in 1911.

Seventeen hundred names will be taken off. From these the County Court will expunge the names of exempt firemen and city, county or state employes, and if more than 1200 names are left, will then cut the list to that number.

The tax list contains 22,322 names. Of the "A's" there are 122. The deputy taking off the names has instructions to take the first 62 names under this letter, eliminating as far as possible all doctors, lawyers, women, clergymen and firms.

The occupation of the persons selected will be inserted by another deputy, and the list then turned over to County Judge Cleston.

BOWERMAN TO PICK SITE

Acting Governor to Select Ground for Branch Asylum.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Acting Governor Bowerman, accompanied by a real estate expert and an engineer, left tonight for Eastern Oregon, where he will investigate thoroughly the question of where to locate the site for the new Eastern Oregon branch asylum, which was voted upon favorably by the people at the last general election.

H. D. Scudder, soil expert of the Oregon Agricultural College, expects to leave Corvallis tomorrow to join Mr. Bowerman and will assist in the location of the site.

REGISTRATION HIT AT

LEGISLATOR WANTS PRESENT LAWS ABOLISHED.

Senator Carson Will Present Bill "Putting It Up" to County Assessor to Get List of Voters.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Abolishing the registration laws of the state and encouraging voters to appear at the polls to cast their ballots, is the substance of a bill which State Senator-elect Carson of this city is preparing to present at the next Legislature and one which he intends to fight for.

His plan to "put it up" to the County Assessor of each county to secure a list of voters each year when the assessment is made throughout the respective county divisions. This list will be printed and copies will be posted in a conspicuous place in every precinct.

Early in August a court of revision, including the Clerk, Sheriff, Judge and Assessor of each county, will meet at the county seat and announce the year before this court of revision to request that a name or names be added to the list, or he may report people who are dead or have moved away and the names will be stricken off.

Following the meeting of the court of revision the list as revised will become the official list of voters and will be turned over at the proper time to the judges and clerks of election for use on election day.

If at that time there happens to be any qualified elector whose name fails to appear upon the list he may cast his ballot, providing he has the affidavit of one freeholder. This freeholder must be some one known personally known to any one of the judges or clerks of election in the precinct where the elector wishes to cast his ballot. It is believed this plan will reduce fraud to a minimum.

"Under the present system of registration and the necessity of securing six freeholders to swear in the elector who has not registered, voting takes on more the aspect of a crime than it does a privilege," stated Senator-elect Carson today. "It is little wonder to me that the vote in Oregon is small."

MANY JOBS AT SALEM

Secretary of State's Office Flooded With Applications.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Applications for positions during the Legislative session have flooded the Secretary of State's office during the past few days. There are now on file 47 written applications for janitorships during the session and as many verbal applications have been made.

Requests for clerkships, positions as doorkeepers and pages have also been rolling into the Secretary's office, but as these positions are all given out by the Legislature, the applications have been referred to the proper channels.

Statue to Gambler Protested.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 14.—The question of accepting a $500,000 bequest for the erection of a memorial fountain at Belle Isle Park, to be surmounted by a life-size statue of the late James Scott, a wealthy and somewhat eccentric citizen of Detroit, was laid over by the Board of Aldermen last night until next week's meeting.

MEANWHILE SEVERAL PROMINENT CLERGYMEN ARE LEADING A CAMPAIGN TO HAVE THE BEQUEST REFUSED ON THE GROUND THAT SCOTT WAS A GAMBLER AND THAT IF THE CITY PARTICIPATED IN THE ERECTION OF THE MONUMENT TO HIM IT WOULD MEAN THE SETTING OF A BAD EXAMPLE TO THE YOUTH OF THE VILLY.

Roseburg Votes 10-Mill Tax.

ROSEBURG, Or., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the City Council last night, a tax of 10 mills was levied on all assessable property in Roseburg. According to a statement of the County Clerk there is $2,105,000 of assessable property in Roseburg, not including the holdings of the corporations, the valuations of which is fixed by the State Tax Commission. It is estimated that the city will have about $25,000 with which to meet the current expenses during the year 1911. This is an increase of $1000 over the year 1910.

SWIM COURSE IS OUT

100 YARDS TO BE DISTANCE OF CHRISTMAS DAY EVENT.

Multnomah Club Members Sign Petition Protesting Pool Construction of Too Small Area.

Frank E. Watkins, chairman of the swimming committee of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, and Arthur Cavill, swimming instructor of the club, accompanied by E. O. Gloss, in the latter's launch, yesterday visited the Willamette River and finally decided upon the course of the Christmas-day swim.

The swimmers who will compete in the competition this year will be required to swim but 100 yards, and the course is from a point near the west pier of the new Hawthorne-avenue bridge to Kellogg's boathouse at the foot of Salmon street. This route was measured yesterday and found to be the exact distance wanted, and both Watkins and Cavill decided on this question immediately.

The Stephen T. Britten cup, won by Phil Patterson last Christmas day, was returned to the club yesterday. This trophy has to be won twice before becoming the permanent property of the victor, and Phil Patterson will again compete for the cup. Besides Patterson, the other swimmers who will be on hand again are H. E. Seymour, A. B. McAlpin and Art Allen.

At the meeting of the board of trustees of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club last night a petition signed by over 200 members of the club and the women's annex was presented re-nouncing against the construction of a swimming pool smaller than 100 by 25 feet. The petition was referred to the building committee. The club also decided to give medals for two swimming races to be held by the members of the women's annex in the near future. One of the medals will be for the novice class, while the other will be for the 50-yard championship, which was not raced at Gearhart Park last Sunday.

"Faithful Servants" Get $70,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Stipulating that he "recognized no lines of color, creed or race," George L. Fox, a Brooklyn lawyer who died recently, left a will distributing $1,500,000 among friends and charitable institutions. Faithful servants are rewarded with $70,000. Mr. Fox was unmarried and had no relatives. A park employe whom Mr. Fox used to watch at work from the window of his apartment, receives $2000 "because he was kind and attentive."

We Broke All Records at Morningside

CHAPTER 8

The copy for this ad is being written at 3:30 P. M. on the day of the sale, and up to this time almost 50 per cent of the tract has been sold. It is one of the greatest real estate sales in the history of Portland, proving beyond dispute everything that we have said in favor of this tract.

An interesting fact in connection with this sale is that 95 per cent of the purchasers are home-builders.

One buyer remarks: "I had just such an opportunity to buy Portland Heights property in 1904, and out of curiosity I went out to your tract Monday, and have decided not to lose this chance."

In the excitement of this sale the fact that this tract is along side the new Mount Tabor City Park has been overlooked, which is a most important factor.

So great has been the sale of this property that we are absolutely sure that Morningside is to be one of the greatest residence sections in the City of Portland.

Do not forget that this opportunity is not going to last many days.

The buying has just started. Get in on the ground floor. Buy your lot this week and you will make some money.

We will have some more to say tomorrow.

HOW TO GET THERE

Take the Mount Tabor cars running down Morrison street. They run every 7 1/2 minutes. Return still, come into our office and have one of our agents take you there.
