REAL ESTATE.

Acreage.

IN ORDER to protect other interests I am compelled to sell the best 15½-acre tract in Washington County, in five miles of the City Hall of Portland, Or.; first-class graveled road, ½ mile south of Whitford station, on Hillsboro Electric line, improved as follows:

About five acres in full-bearing, about five acres in 5-year-old trees, all good commercial varieties, a few cherry, peach and walnut trees, all kinds of small fruit; four acres sowed to vetch and oats; 1½ acres original growth timber; enough wood to last for all time to come; every foot of this ground is first-class garden soil and will produce anything that you put in it; well drained, about 15 feet fall from the highest to the lowest point; no stones, no stumps, no gravel; buildings as follows:

House 25x50 feet, 6 large rooms and well finished, three bedrooms, each with large closet, large living-room, with fireplace, dining-room and kitchen, bathroom, hot and cold running water, large woodshed and laundry room, barn 24x36, with running water, workshop and chicken-house and other outbuildings; deep well, with gas engine, pump and tank; stock and machinery, good team of horses, two sets of harness, plow, harrow, cultivators, mower and rake, spray pump and all kinds of orchard and garden tools; about 75 chickens, one first-class cow and calf; everything complete to handle the place.

The orchard will pay for the entire place in one-half the time it would take you to bring an orchard to bearing; I will sell this property for less money than it would cost you to produce the same orchard if the land was given you; I will take some city property, some cash and the balance on terms to suit; first-class automobile road to the farm, on R. F. D. and telephone.

I want to deal direct with purchaser. Address me, R. F. D. No. 1, Beaverton, Or., as to where and what time I can see you or call in person Saturday, the 24th, at farm. H. S. Smith.
