Druhpt, W. C. Harrington, Ivan Peter-sen and J. W. Boyd. Barne', Locrume is Press-Philip S.

seen and J. W. Boyd. Bates' LECTURE IS FREE-Phillip S. Bates, publisher of the Pacific Northwest, will lecture at 8 o'clock tonight, in the auditorium of the Lincoln High School, Pourteenth and Alder, on "Advertising." He will treat the subject not from the technical side, but rather as the story of an interaction and discussion of the story technical side, but rather as the story of an interesting and diversified nuverils-ing life. The lecture on "The Machinery of a Department Store," by J. R. Camp-bell, of Meler & Frank's, which was scheduled for tonight, has been post-poned one week. A musical programme will be rendered in addition to Mr. Bates" talk and an entertaining evening is prom-ised. Administon is free and everybody ised. Admission is free and everybody

Board. Rose City Park GETS SCHOOLHOUSE.-Rose City Park will get the first rein-forced concrete schoolhouse. The new building will contain eight rooms and will be two stories with the usual bass-ment. Cost is estimated between 550,000 and $50,000. The eight-room frame build-ing completed at Lenis cost $52,000. The district owns a block near East Fifty-seventh and Thompson streets, where the new building will be put up. For the present the pupils are guartered in three temporary structures and the surroundtemporary structures and the surround-ngs are anything but pleasant.

Man POINTS GUN AT WOMAN.--Charging attempt to kill, Viva Deneen, attendant at a Burnside-street shooting gallery, at a Burnside-street shooting gallery, caused the arrest, yesterday morning, of Loy Clare, who, she says, pointed a target rifle at her and was prevented from firing it only by her grasping the harrel and wrestling with the man until Patrolman Toevin cams to her assist-ance. Clare stepped up to the booth and signified his desire to shoot at the targets. The girl loaded a rifle and handed it to him, when he pointed it at her, with his finger on the trigger. She grappled with him, at the same time cailing for help, and he struck her with his fist in trying to wrest the rifle from her. The police believe that Clare is mentally unbalanced. HALBOAD MAN INJURED.-While alight-RAILROAD MAN INJURED.--While alight-ing from his train at Coyote. Sunday afternoon, William Maher, a passenger conductor of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. fell and broke his shoulder. He was brought to this city and was sent to St. Vincent's to this city and was sent to St. Vincent's Rospital, where he is resting comfort-

Orpheum.

A NOTHER case of "It never rains but it pours" at the Orpheum, and there's a deluge of good things. With the audience, Julius Tannen, the chatterbox, divided blue ribbons with Jones and Deeley in a "Hotel St. Rockless" episode, although the featured act, Lilllan Burkhart & Company, in a miniature drama, was deservingly appreciated. ture drama, was deservingly appreciated. Tannen is a monologist, a wit and an excellent mimic. From entrance to exit he chatters with Marathonic persistency and has his audience in the last stages of hysterics when he cracks his last joke. George W. Jones and Ben N. See-ley are the Big Boys in a melange of conversation tied together with dandy fine singing, which they have labeled "Hotel St. Reckless," because it affords Seeley an opportunity to pull out fat Booley an opportunity to pull out fat plums as a "cullud" bolhop, with Jones second-fidding as the officious cierk. Both sing delightfully, Sceley's warble about being "fullsh," earning a dosen re-calls yesterday afternoon.

In a thumb-nall etching called "What Every Woman Wants." Lillian Burk-hart, a clever actress, assisted by an able company, tells a simple little story with a directness that is appealing, of the temptations that come to the woman who is left too much alone. Excellent opportunity is given Miss Burkhart in a role of her housemaid to evidence her ability as an actress of emotional roles. Out of the ordinary and exceptionally meritorious is the cycling act presented by the Five Auroras. Their wheeling maneuvers are strikingly original, and they introduce hair-raising features that hold intense interest for the onlooker. ised. Admission is free and everybody is welcome. DB. NICHOLS ACTS ON BOARD.—In the examination of a large batch of applicants for medical licerses Dr. H. S. Nichols will act this morning as a member of the Oregon State Medical Board. It is reported that he is to receive from Acting Governor Bowerman a permanent appointment on the Board to succeed the late Dr. Osman Royal, Mr. Bowerman is new at his home in Eastern Oregon, but upon this return it is said on good au-thority that he will issue the appointment of Dr. Nichols, who has been strongly recommended by other members of the Board.

The bill opens with the two Gee Jays, George and Ida, in a grotesque novely in the form of a stage on the stage. Both sing well and their songs get over with a dash.

Grand.

N INETEEN hundred and eleven and the Sullivan and Considine vaudeville managers have opened the year at the Grand Theater with a tip-top show the Grand Ineater with a tip-top show that is hard to beat. For setting and quick change the Four Charles are the topliners beyond question. Their act is clearly divided into two parts, a kitchen scene, in which they appear in appro-priate costume and perform marvelous priate costume and perform marvelous acrobatic and juggling stunts, and a gorgeous arrangement of scenery and cos-tume with electrical introductions. tome with electrical introductions. Their best features, however, are their acro-batic feats. Rivaling the Charles family are Car-roll and Cooke, whose songs and jokes are of a wholesome and clever variety which can not fall to win throughout the week the same just applause which yesterday's performances merited. McDonald and Huntington are good to see and hear. In line with these two are another man and woman who are well McDonais and planting on the good to see and hear. In line with these two are another man and woman who are well deserving of favor. They are Peters and Nettie, good-looking and with fair volces, who give impersonations of sweethearts in the Isle of Erin, as well as in the Bowery districts of New Yerk. Remaining on the bill are two acts which, though left to the end, are none the least important. Josephine Ainslee, bright, pretty and well dreased, sings a round of catchy and witty songs. The playlet conducted by Eisle Ridgely and her company is good. Miss Ridgely is a fascinating exponent of the drama and her portmy of a woman and the at-tempt which she will make to keep her hold on the affection of the man she particularly cares for is most human. She is well supported.

BETTER SERVICE WANTED

Lents Residents to Ask for Through Cars From Firland.

At a well-attended mass meeting of the At a well-stiended mass meeting of the people of Lents, held last night in the Grange Hall, it was decided to demand that botter car service be given on the Mount Scott line, that the pay-as-you-enter cars be taken off that route and that cars on that run be provided with heatered

Ward B. Swope made an extended statement, asserting that the service was not as good as it was before the Hawthorne bridge was opened. It had been reduced from 16 to 15 minutes, with a tripper to Firwood, he said. It was decided to appoint a committee of five to wait on the streat railway company and ask for a through car without stops from Firland and also that the company set apart a day every quarter to hear and adjust complaints. In the matter of heating the cars, it was decided to wait the action of the company, and if the cars are not heated, complaint will be made to the Railroad Commission. The proposed public serv-ics commission was indersed, as was also a resolution indersing the centennial celebration at Astoria.
