Dedicatory Exercises Held in Presence of Over 600
People.

COST EXCEEDS $125,000

Tribute Is Paid to Mrs. Anna M.
Mann by Whose Munificence Institution Is Completed—Rev.
W. R. Hinson Speaker.

Made possible by the munificence of Mrs. Anna M. E. Mann, widow of Peter John Mann, the beautiful Old Peoples' Home building, a three-story brick, semi-fireproof structure located on a seven-acre tract at Sandy road and East Thirty-second street, was yesterday formally dedicated and the deed to the property was turned over to the trustees of the Old Peoples' Home Corporation, C. A. Dolph, Charles E. Ladd, Richard Williams, Tyler Woodward and Martin Winch. The building and grounds represent an investment on the part of Mrs. Mann of approximately $125,000.

The dedicatory address was delivered by Rev. W. R. Hinson, pastor of the White Temple. Bishop Scadding offered prayer. Mayor Simon spoke briefly, felicitating the trustees upon the generous gift which had been turned over to them and praising the generosity of Mrs. Mann. Dr. Luther R. Dyott, pastor of the First Congregational Church, formally turned the deed over to Cyrus A. Dolph, who accepted it on behalf of the board of trustees. Fully 600 were in attendance.

Mrs. Mann Congratulated.

Mrs. Mann was congratulated on all sides. At her express request her name was mentioned very little in the address, but she was unable to get away from the enthusiastic groups which gathered around her after the ceremonies were over. Many old people who contemplate taking up their residence in the building were present and their thanks should be made beautiful and peaceful for those in advanced years. It is especially fitting that this home should be for both men and women, as it will permit of a husband and wife not being forced to sever their relationship until they pass on up to the Gates of Pearl.

Philanthropist Is Praised.

"The good wishes, the good will and the prayers of aged people will follow the donors of this building throughout life and even to death. I have been prohibited from saying much of a laudatory nature, but I will say that I can conceive of no greater philanthropy than the providing of the comforts and necessities of life for those in less fortunate circumstances than ourselves."

Rev. William M. Foulkes read from the Scriptures, selecting the following passages: Psalm 91; Isaiah 40; Matthew, 11:28-30; John 3:16-17; Revelations, 21:1-4 and 22:1-5 and 17-21. The acceptance of this generous gift on behalf of the Home and its trustees, I beg to assure you it will be forever held as a trust sacred to the glory of God and the benefit of mankind, said C. A. Dolph. "It may not at all times be wisely administered, for to err is human, but however it may be administered, it will remain an everlasting monument to the name of the generous giver."

Founder Is Eulogized.

"It was a happy thought which inspired John Mann to say, 'No home is complete that does not admit men as well as women.' All honor to the noble women who planned the Old Ladies' Home, but it was a broader and better philanthropy which impelled Mrs. Mann to open its doors wide enough to admit both men and women. Hither in future years will come husband and wife, or brother and sister

EMILIO GOGORZA SINGS TONIGHT.

CELEBRATED BARITONE WILL GIVE PROGRAMME AT THE HELIG THEATER.

At the Helig Theater tonight Gogorza and Schmitz, his pianist, will give the second of the Lois Steers-Wynn Coman subscription concerts of the season.

"Not since Caruso came to San Francisco and thrilled the public has the singing voice of a man aroused such enthusiasm as did Gogorza," says the San Francisco Chronicle. "Nature has indeed lavished gifts upon him. He has temperament, sympathy, intelligence and a handsome presence with rare vocal power. If a man with a voice of velvet, a big, round voice of remarkable range, can sing in the very mood of the composer, now ringing with the buoyancy of 'The Toreador,' now softening to the tenderness of the lullaby and win the hearts of men and women alike—if he can do all this on a bare unadorned concert stage, what might he not do to electrify his hearers in the glamor of the operatic stage?"

The song recital at the Helig tonight will open at a quarter past eight, the programme being the same as was published yesterday, with the substitution of "Mother o' Mine" for one of Von Flitels.

It may be, to find shelter, protection and repose while they together go down to where life's evening shadows wait on night."

Sod Turned March 9 Last.

The first sod in the construction of the building which was yesterday dedicated was turned March 9. The cornerstone was laid May 9 by Mayor Simon. Many rooms in the building have already been furnished. Among those contributing furniture are: Mrs. P. G. Egert, Mrs. A. Saldger and Miss Rose M. Avery, Mrs. H. L. Pitcock, Mrs. Hannah Robertson, Mrs. H. C. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Deick, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pape, Mrs. C. W. Eurrage, Mrs. Sigmond Frank, Mrs. S. Furrel, Mrs. H. S. Gile, John C. Carson and J. G. Mack.

Among the articles of furniture in the building are some which belonged to David C. Lewis and Rebecca Lewis, Mrs. Mann's father and mother, pioneers of Oregon, and to Dr. McKinnel, the first homeopathic physician to practice in the state. A silver tea set which belonged to Dr. McKinnel is in the main dining-room and the office furniture which he used has been installed in one of the rooms to be used as an office at the home.

Many other people have offered to furnish rooms. It is anticipated all will be in readiness for occupancy before the arrival of Summer. The trustees will hold a meeting this week, at which rules regulating entrance to the new home will be formulated. It is Mrs. Mann's wish to have the institution appear as little as possible as a charity, but still to have no regulations which would bar deserving people who may not be able to pay. The trustees will probably adopt the policy of passing upon each application for admission separately.

First Guest Arrives.

What is now the Old Peoples' Home was organized in 1902 as an Old Ladies' Home. During his lifetime P. J. Mann was considering endowing a home for aged people of both sexes, but he died without leaving any provision to that effect in his will. Mrs. Mann, however, determined to respect his wishes. The name of the Old Ladies' Home corporation, to which considerable property had already been bequeathed, by Mrs. Amanda W. Reed, Mrs. Hiram Smith and others, was changed to the Old Peoples' Home and Mrs. Mann then had the new building dedicated yesterday, erected and donated to the trustee body of the new institution, the personnel of which was the same as that of the Old Ladies' Home corporation.

At their meeting this week the trustees will arrange for the employment of people to take charge of the new building and its inmates. Several old people who are now in the home on Second street, the old Reed dwelling, will then be transferred to the new structure.

BABY GIRL DOING WELL

Stray Bullet Imperils Life of Mother and Child.

Shot and dangerously wounded by a stray bullet fired by a New Year's celebrant early Sunday morning, Mrs. Rosa Perry, wife of an Italian laborer, living at 308 East Seventh street, gave birth to a thriving baby girl at Good Samaritan Hospital yesterday, and unless septic infection sets in, will recover rapidly. The case was reported to the police yesterday by Dr. Fred Gullette, the attending physician. In scant hope that the one who fired the bullet may be found, Mrs. Perry, dangerously ill, was lying in her bedroom, about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, when the bullet entered a window, struck her in the right hip, emerged again, entered the abdomen and passed around its wall, coming out a second time and finally lodging against the femoral artery in the left groin. She was taken to the hospital, where Dr. Gullette removed the bullet and a little later attended at the birth. The physician says the wound was so near the artery that its throbbing was very evident and that the slightest deviation would have made death almost certain.

Five perforations were made by the ball, yet the woman lost little blood and is well on the road to recovery. The infant is also doing well. No report of the shooting was made to the police at the time, as it was thought impossible to run down the offender. The ball was from a .32 caliber revolver.

Y. M. C. A.'s of Pacific Northwest
May Hold Membership Campaign.

H. W. Stone, general secretary, and J. H. Meehan, membership secretary, of the Portland Young Men's Christian Association, left last night for Tacoma, where a conference of the general and membership secretaries of the associations of Portland, Spokane, Tacoma and Seattle will be held today. As a result of this meeting, it is expected that a general membership campaign will soon be inaugurated in which the Y. M. C. A.'s of the four cities will participate. It is proposed to make the campaign competitive. It will extend the same length of time in each city, and at night the number of members gained by each association will be telegraphed to the other three. This would serve to make the contest one of municipal rivalry. Portland, with its 403 members, has a big lead over each of the other cities. It is believed by the local secretaries that it would be comparatively easy to increase the membership to 5000 here. The secretaries will also consider other problems, such as the growth during the past year and the assimilation of members into the life of the Y. M. C. A. The assimilation of members is considered more important than the mere increase in enrollment.

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.
