so-called "Tobacco Trust" began late today in the Supreme Court. As a year ago, when the dissolution suit was argued for the first time before the court, so today J. C. McReynold, special assistant to the Attorney-General, made the opening address.

He had not concluded his remarks when court adjourned until Monday. By arrangement, counsel on both sides agreed to conclude their arguments in 12 hours. This will bring the close of the presentation about 2 P. M. next Wednesday. At that time the Standard OII dissolution suit will be taken up for oral argument. for oral argument.

One Result Important.

At least one important result was accomplished in the first few minutes that Mr. McReynolds spoke.

He surprised some members of the court by saying the dissolution was asked not only under the Sherman anti-trust law, but under the Wilson fariff

Phrase Is Discussed.

Much discussion had taken place in the "trust" cases as to whether the phrase "restraint of trade" as used in the Sherman anti-trust law, was equivalent to "restraint of free competition."
Mr. McReynolds pointed to the Wilson act as the Congressional Interpretation of the Sherman act, passed four years previous, in which all doubt as to the meaning had been removed by using the phrase "restraint of free com-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.-The official report of Captain Robert E. Captain Peary selected December 18, 19 and 29 for the Government test. Wealthy Brother of Alfred Wright Leaves Him Estate in England.

ABERDEEN, Jan. 6.—(Special.)—"It is the first letter I have received from home in many long years," said Alfred Wright, a local logger, yesterday as he tore the end of an official-looking envelope post-marked Liverpool, England. "Guess it must be a belated Christmas gift from the folks at home."

The message from England represented a little the best Christmas present ever received by Wright, for it contained official information from Friend & Davis, barristers, 35 Queens Way, Liverpool, of the recent death of his brother, a wealthy planter of India, and that a large porthe recent death of his brother, a weatty planter of India, and that a large portion of the deceased brother's estate had been left to the Aberdeen logger. We Must Depend on Native Troops to Defend Islands and Scouts Form Good Nucleus, WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 .- Should an emergency arise in the Philippines, the United States would have to depend upon native troops for defense of the islands and the Filipino would be a loy-al soldier, according to the annual re-port of Brigadier-General John G. Pershing, commander of the Depart-ment of Mindanao.

"The difficulty and expense of maintaining a large force of American troops here for defense against for-eign invasion is evident," says General Pershing, "but that we should have a force ready for such emergency needs no discussion. Should the emergency arise, we should have to depend upon native troops.

"The authorized strength and organization of native scouts should be utilized as a nucleus to train a native army for this purpose. It would be an easy matter to inaugurate a scheme, em-bracing two years' service with the colors and a longer period with the re-serve, that would provide within a few years an adequate and reliable force for

As a force that might be called upon to assist in defending the islands, the Philippine scouts would acquit them-selves with credit, the report says. In regard to the faithfulness of the scouts to the United States, General Pershing adds that the officers who have had the largest experience with them express a firm belief in their loyalty. General Pershing suggests that the term of duty of American troops in the Philippines be made four years, as in two years the soldiers hardly get acquainted with the people and conditions in the vicinity of their posts. Service in the Philippines is no more arduous than service in Texas or Arizona, he adds.
