WATER MAIN ASSESSMENTS HEAVY.-Property owners on Villa avenue, betwen East Seventy-sixth street and North Mount Tabor are complaining about their assessment for 12-inch water mains. E. W. Burder, who owns two lots of 45-foot frontage each, was assessed $160, and other property owners are assessed in like proportion. As the main is a reinforcing main in which a large district is interested, and is not a main to serve the single street, the property owners contend that they taxed too heavily for the benefit of the surrounding country. Luther Adcox, "white slave" operator, was the offender who experienced this new phase of Judge McGinn's judicial methods. Inasmuch as not a single of-fender had been sent to jail by the court during his term, Adoox evidently ex-pected to receive a curtain lecture and be let off on probation. He freely pleaded guilty, perhaps with the hope of setting off.

getting off.
Adoox' offense consisted in luring 17year-old Isobel Hawlow away from her home and placing her in evil environment for purposes of profit. When asked if he had anything to say, he admitted having done wrong. He said it was true he had boasted frequently of his converse that that have he realised how quests but that now he realized how foolish he had been.

"I want to ask your honor to be len-ient with me," he concluded.
"The statute gives you lenience," re-plied Judge McGinn. "The statute gives work. However, only preliminary works you a great deal more lenience than you are entitled to or than you could expect from me. It is a matter of sorrow to from me. It is a matter of sorrow to me that the strongest sentence I can give you is a year in the penitentiary and a fine of $250. You deserve more. There is no good in a creature of your type. Yours is the lowest form of crime. You are not the victim of weakness, but the creature of viciousness and degeneracy. Jail is the place for you. As I said before, I wish the statute permitted me to send you there statute permitted me to send you there for longer. You have it coming. So the sentence of the court is that you receive the limit of a year imprisonment and pay a fine of $250."

The programme which the great singer will give will be especially beautiful and will have the added attractiveness of being largely made up from the many requests which have been showered upon him since the first announcement of his return. There are some songs and arias which are so intimately connected with the very name of Gogorga that one can scarcely disasof Gogorga that one can scarcely disassociate the two, and evidently many music-lovers are glad to have the chance of preferring requests for the songs they specially want him to sing for them.
