Converted to Its Faith and Reduced to Madness, She Is Now Champloned by Her Brother.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 12.—(Special.)—P. E. Fullerton, of this city, swore out a warrant today for the arrest of Nannie A. Brecvynske, the leader of a fanatical religious sect which is making its headquarters near the banks of the Willamette River, charging her stealing $1000 from his sister, Lora Fullerton. Lora Fullerton is well known in this city and at one time served as a stenographer of one of the best known law-yers in Salem. Several months ago she fell in with the religious sect and became a convert to its teachings. According to the information received at the office of the District Attorney, it teaches that complete conversion can only be obtained by giving to the sect all worldly possessions. Miss Fuller-ton, in ogder to be completely con-verted, turned over $1000, which represented her earnings for years. That she was under some hypnotic influ-ence is believed by the Deputy Dis-

Her mind finally began to waver and then her brother took the case before the District Attorney and placed the girl in the care of a physician. According to the report received from the Dis-trict Attorney's office she is almost rav-ing mad and may have to be placed ing mad and may have to be placed in the insane asylum.

Bill Asks Appointment of Examiner Initiative and Referendum Is Issue in Idaho.

Fighting for Oregon Plan, Put Matter Up to Legislature. Stormy Session in Senate.

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 12-(Special.)-That the initiative and referendum will be made an issue during the present session of the Legislature became evident to-day in the Senate, when Senator Horni-brook, of Twin Falls County, president of the Idaho Direct Legislation League, introduced two resolutions calling for submission of constitutional amendments providing for the placing of this power in the hands of the people. Both were referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

Fight to Be Non-Partisan.

It is asserted by the advocates of the so-called reform measures, that they in-tend to make their fight non-partisan tend to make their fight non-partisan and that they already have the guarantee and support of numerous Republicans. Senator Hornibrock announced that tomorrow morning he would introduce a resolution providing for the recall as an amendment to the state constitution.

A fight that broke in the Senate this afternoon caused extreme bitterness. It afternoon caused extreme bitterness.
