Yes He Had Seen Kelly.—Kelly is a great clubman. He believes a stout club shaken at the proper angle helps his "argyment." "Do you sell coldstorage fish?" asked a man of him. "See here," said Kelly, as he took the fellow in one hand and grabbed a six-foot pole in the other. "See here," and he led him to the front door, "Don't you see the name of Frank L. Smith over the door? That means there's no over the door? That means there's no cold-storage fish, nor cold-storage turkeys, nor cold-storage eggs, nor cold-storage butter, nor cold-storage anything around here." "That's just what thing around here." "That's just what I thought too," said the other, "and that's why I came in—but I wanted to be sure." Kelly amiled and honor was satisfied. Kelly is to be seen every day at Smith's big market, 226 and 228 Alder street, selling Smith's fresh salmon direct from Seaside for 12½c per pound. Meadow Harvest butter and Ferndale butter for 60c per square; Buttercup butter for 70c a square and Norway butter and Oaksquare and Norway butter and Oak-farm butter for $50 per square.

COMPLETE INFORMATION FOR NORTHWEST GIVEN.

Book Just Off Press Has Business Directory of Cities in Oregon and Washington.

Commercial institutions of the city are receiving the annual state gazetteer of the R. L. Polk & Company, which is out for the states of Washington and Oregon. It is the most complete work Oregon. It is the most complete work of its kind ever issued in the Northwest. It contains an accurate business directory of Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Portland and every other city, town and village in the two states. It also contains the names and addresses of country merchants and professional men, lumbermen and others, who are located

There is a complete list of the Government officials, commissioners o rnment officials, commissioners of leeds, state board and statutory provisions and terms of court, names of postmasters, postoffices, express, teleplone and telegraph offices, justices of the peace, a list of the daily and weekly newspapers, and a world of information carefully compiled. A short descriptive sketch of each town and much valued data is given.

An important feature of the publica-tion is the classified business directory, which enables the seeker of information to ascertain at a glance names and adto ascertain at a glance names and addresses of all of the different firms engaged in any given line of business. The directory has been compiled to meet the wants of the business community and has been thoroughly inspected for the discovery of any errors which might exist. No publication in this section will supply the exacting demands of business life like this one just from the press. It was only by the expendithe press. It was only by the expendi-ture of a large sum of money that the facts were gathered in the form that they were. The data is absolutely reliable, so that it is perfectly safe for a concern to issue its list of circulars, daily letters and prove any address de-sired by referring or compiling such line as they wish from the book. The official data with reference to the list of Government, state and county officials will be found to be especially valuable. It is corrected so that the results of the last election are all in and in consequence the book is thoroughly up to date.
