

ORANGE WEEK!

FORTY-FIVE Carloads Coming—Are California's Finest—The "SUNKIST" Kind—ON SALE ALL NEXT WEEK!

Attractive Prices and Special Displays of "SUNKISTS" At All Dealers

Forty-five carloads of famous "Sunkist" oranges—more than 18,000 boxes—are speeding eastward by fast freight, direct from the orange groves of California.

They will be here, on sale at every dealer's next Monday morning. The sale will continue through the week. It will be the biggest affair of its kind in history.

Last year's "Sunkist" Orange Sale was such a huge success, and everybody bought so liberally, that your local dealers were simply swamped with business. They were hardly able to supply the demand. We therefore suggest that you place your order for "Sunkist" oranges as early next week as possible. Then you will be certain of being supplied.

Every orange in every box is sound, tree-ripened and hand-picked—the most luscious, healthful fruit on the market. For "Sunkist" oranges are California's choicest crop.

Five thousand orange growers select their choicest and pack them under the name "Sunkist." Thus every "Sunkist" orange is perfect—solid, sweet and full flavored.

In "Sunkist" wrappers you get tree-ripened, hand-picked oranges of the most acceptable variety. Every orange is picked by a gloved hand. They are shipped by fast freight, and always reach your table in prime condition. Being seedless, fibreless and thin-skinned, there is but very little waste. They are the most economical oranges you can buy. Each one is packed in a germ-proof tissue paper wrapper and bears the label "Sunkist."

people to eat more oranges. We are a nation of meat eaters. And in winter, especially, the system gets clogged, causing congestion, colds, fevers, etc. Those who eat fresh wholesome fruit freely, seldom require medical treatment.

"Sunkist" by the Box

"Sunkist" oranges reach you in such perfect condition, fresh from the orange groves, they will keep for weeks. Your dealer can make you a handsome saving if you order a box or half box. They are cheaper than table apples, and the greatest health food.

SHEEHAN'S HOPE STILL DEFERRED

Baffled Candidate Vainly Pleads With Dix to Do Something.

PARKER'S WORDS WASTED

Self-Denying Judge Asks Legislator to "Vote for Sheehan, Not Me," but "Impossible" Is Reply. Pairs Reduce Total Ballot.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 20.—The third joint ballot for United States Senator today showed practically no change in the rival camps into which the fight to elect W. F. Sheehan has split the Democratic majority.

Put to the test of spending an unexpected week-end in Albany, Sheehan's friends remained and voted, except when able to arrange pairs which left his position unimpaired.

But Sheehan did not gain a single vote although A. R. Parker, his law partner, in a personal letter to Assemblyman Saunders, solicited for him the aid of the seven Assemblymen who previously voted for Parker.

Sheehan Can't Move Dix.

Sheehan returned to New York tonight, but will be back Monday. His departure emphasizes the general belief that the issue will last over tomorrow's session.

Before he departed, he paid his second visit to the executive chamber and made another effort to enlist Governor Dix's aid. All the Governor would say about this conference was that Sheehan showed him a copy of the letter written in his behalf by Parker. The Governor added that his position on the Senatorship was unchanged. He believed it his duty to keep hands off.

The number of Democratic candidates was increased to 19 on today's ballot by votes for Martin H. Glynn, ex-State Controller, and Simon W. Rosendale, ex-State Attorney-General. Glynn quickly declared himself not a candidate.

The result of today's ballot: Whole number of votes, 141; necessary to choose, 71; William F. Sheehan, 69; Edward M. Shepard, 11; John D. Kernan, 4; Alton B. Parker, 3; D. C. Herrick, 2; James W. Gerard, 2; Martin Glynn, 2; Martin W. Littleton, 2; Simon W. Rosendale, 1; Morgan J. O'Brien, 1; Chauncey M. Depew (Rep.), 22.

Parker Pleads for Sheehan.

In his letter to Saunders, Parker says: "You, along with several others, are casting your votes for me for the Senatorship."

"While no one can fail to appreciate the courtesy even of such a complimentary vote, let me say with all possible emphasis that no one is doing me a favor by such an act, but the reverse. "You can, however, if you so choose, do me a favor by casting your vote for Mr. Sheehan. The unjust attacks on Mr. Sheehan should not weaken the support of his friends, but should cement and strengthen their uncompromising efforts for his election.

"Unfortunately in this country altogether too often elections are characterized by undeserved and unjustifiable attacks on worthy candidates. During the campaign of 1901, when Mr. Sheehan ran on the Tammany ticket against Seth Low for the Mayoralty of New York City, attacks on Mr. Shepard were at least as bitter as those now directed against Mr. Sheehan.

"Mr. Sheehan was then denounced by his present strenuous newspaper supporters for taking the nomination from Tammany Hall and particularly for his attitude on the question of 'Deverism,' which was one of the burning issues of the day and the end of his political career was predicted as certain. Their attitude was as unjust then toward Mr. Shepard as it is now towards Mr. Sheehan."

"Mr. Saunders in reply said in part: "I regret that you have thus expressed yourself and beg leave to state that it is not possible for me to act in accordance with your advice. I speak for myself only, although I have no doubt many of my colleagues will also fall to accept your view of the matter."

No Choice Made in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 20.—The Tennessee Legislature took the tenth ballot for United States Senator today, with the following result: McMillan (Reg. Dem.), 56; Enle (Ind. Dem.), 63; Woodbridge (Rep.), 3; McKellar (Ind. Dem.), 8. Necessary for choice 66. No election.

Colorado Democrats Want to Hold Up Selection of Senator.

DENVER, Jan. 20.—Twenty members of the Democratic majority in the Colorado House signed their names to an agreement to prevent the election of a United States Senator until the platform pledges of the Democratic party have been enacted into law.

It is believed the action of today's caucus may delay the choice of a successor to the late Charles J. Hughes, Jr., for 30 days or more, although the official balloting is to begin next Tuesday.

The combination effected today is said to embrace a few of the supporters of all the prominent candidates for the toga, as it was feared refusal to join the movement might affect the chances of the candidates.

Walsh Gains Another Vote.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 20.—T. J. Walsh, Democrat, gained another vote in the Montana Senatorial race today, while Carter, Republican candidate, fell back four from yesterday. The vote: Walsh, Democrat, 35; Carter, Republican, 26; Conrad, Democrat, 15; scattering, 15. Necessary for choice, 51.

Republicans May Provide Control of Senatorial Elections, but This Would Destroy Two-Thirds Majority Necessary.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—For the first time since the report of the resolution looking to the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people that resolution today became the subject of general debate in the Senate.

Rayner was the chief speaker, but the discussion was participated in by Bacon, Borah, Sutherland and others. It grew out of the Maryland Senator's assault upon the Sutherland amendment giving Congress such power to control the time and manner of holding Senatorial elections as is now possessed by it in the election of members of the House of Representatives.

The amendment is giving the friends of the resolution concern. It appeals to many of the Republican Senators, but not to the Democrats. The apprehension is that it may be voted into the resolution and in that event it is probable that the provision as a whole would be defeated. A majority vote would be sufficient to adopt the amendment, while two-thirds would be necessary to insure the success of the resolution as a whole.

SUBSIDY BILL UNDER HOT FIRE

Cummins and Burton Stir Up Gallinger to Its Defense.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Asserting in the Senate that the pending ocean mail bounty bill is a mere eating wedge to a general ship subsidy, which may require an annual expenditure of from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000, Cummins of Iowa, today made vigorous onslaught upon that measure.

Burton, of Ohio, also attacked the bill as calculated to be very expensive and do little good.

Gallinger defended the measure, asserting that it would contribute a much needed stimulus to a decadent shipping. He said that in the pending bill, "the Postmaster-General is given a power of discretion never yet imposed in mortal man."

Declaring that he might not always have a Postmaster-General of the "highest integrity and greatest wisdom," he urged amendments to the measure. He said the language of the bill contemplated compensation for both the inward and outward voyage.

T. R. TO VISIT PORTLAND

Ex-President Will Spend Day Here Early in April.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 20.—Senators Bourne and Chamberlain this morning received a letter from ex-President Roosevelt in which he advises them that early in April he will pass through Portland on his way from San Francisco to New York.

Mr. Roosevelt said he did not want to have Portland people feel that there was any need of preparing an entertainment for him or of having him speak during his visit in Portland, but that he did not want them to think he would go through the city without letting them know in advance. The Senators feel sure that if the commercial bodies shall take the matter up, the ex-President will address the citizens of Portland, and they suggest that some of the commercial bodies take the matter up directly with Mr. Roosevelt, or with him through them, and they will be glad to do what they can to assist in having him entertained while he is in Portland.

Iowa Legislature Can't Elect.

A Remedy That Costs Nothing if It Fails to Do as Claimed

Resorcin is one of the latest and most effective germ-killers discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, also a powerful antiseptic, a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its nutriment, and thus creates a clean and healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpine is a well-known agent for restoring the hair to its natural color, where the loss of color has been due to a disease. Yet it is not a coloring matter or dye.

Delicately formed and gently reared, women will find, in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives or mothers, that the one simple, wholesome remedy which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally, and which may be used with truly beneficial effects, under any conditions, when the system needs a laxative, is—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Only those who buy the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna can hope to get its beneficial effects, and as a guarantee of the excellence of the remedy, the full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co.—is printed on the front of every package, and without it any preparation offered as Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is fraudulent and should be declined.
