Thompson Wants State Board to Prepare Ballots for Electors—Opponents Argue That Solons, Not Act, Deceive People.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Jan. 24.—(Special.)—Legislation amendatory of or supplemental to any of the laws adopted by the people under the initiative stands but little chance of receiving the endorsement of the Legislature.

of the territory, proposed to constitute the new county, has been filed with the Secretary of State. The Governor shall appoint three disinterested residents of the territory, all of whom shall be taxpayers and one of them a surveyor and civil engineer, who shall make an investigation of the territory to be included in the new county. This committee is required to file its detailed recommendations with the Secretary of State. If the committee reports adversely on the creation of the county, that will settle the question.

BILL FOR CONSTABLES LOST

House Also Turns Down High School Fund Measure. STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Jan. 24.—(Special.)—Two bills were defeated in the House this morning. One by Eggleston proposed placing constables in districts having 500 population on a salary of $40 a month and at the same time allow certain fees. The other by Pierce proposed the creation of a high school fund into which all corporation licenses and inheritance taxes were to be diverted from the general fund and apportioned among the county high schools of the state.
