GOOD ROADS MEN WIN FIRST FIGHT

Highway Commission Amended, Accepted by Senate Committee of Whole.

MOVE TRICKY, SAYS DIMICK

Proposed Law, as Amended., Makes County Courts Advisory Constructors and Provides Highway Commissioner at $4000.

Among those who spoke in favor of the measure, outside of the Senators were Dr. Andrew C. Smith and ex-Judge Lionel R. Webster, of Portland, both explaining to some extent details of the bill and its objects.

Barrett of Washington, Barrett of Umatilla, Nottingham of Multnomah and Dimick of Clackamas were all lined up against the commission plan and led the fight in that direction. Dimick was the most active opponent. Oilver moved to secure an amendment to one section to provide for one commisaloner east of the Cascade Mountains. and Dimick moved to amend by striking out the whole section relating to the reation of a commission. Dimick's moon was declared out of order and Oliver's amendment prevailed.

Selling Roads' Champion.

Selling, who retired as chairman when the Senate became a committee of the whole, yielding the chair to Mil-ler, spoke forcibly in answer to some of dek's and Barrett's assertions. Nottingham opposed the commission plan.
"When a new commission is created." he declared, "very soon members and officers get tired and cry for more dep-uties and assistants. This is true in every department of the state, and consequently we are continually being ore and more overloaded with a horde chairwarmers." Opposition to the bill on the voting throughout generally mustered a total strength of eight votes, this varying at times, no rollicall being taken in committee of the whole.

CANNERYMEN OPPOSE FISHERS

Former Want No Joint Commission With Washington.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Jan. 24. —(Special.)—Cannerymen and up-river men clinched with fishermen of the Lower Cojumbia tonight before the Senate resolutions committee when the time-worn question of a joint commis-sion with the Washington Legislature to collaborate on the fishing laws of the Columbia was under discussion. Up-river and cannerymen were strong in their opposition to such a commission, declaring that the laws as enacted by the two sessions in 1869 have proven eminently satisfactory to all concerned and have brought nearer to solution the fishing problems than any laws enacted

On the other hand the fishermen were en to secure a reconsideration and open anew the question in its en-

Cannerymen were represented by Frank Scufert, F. M. Warren, F. M. Warren, Jr., and Joseph Burke. Ole J. Settem and H. M. Lorntzen were the Astoria fishermen present. The resolutions committee reached no conclusion upon the resolution calling for a call to confer with a similar committee from Washington Legislature.

The resolutuions committee also decided to report favorably on the joint memorial of Burgess, asking Congress to re-enact the law which provides that 50 per cent of the receipts from National forests shall be returned to the state from which such receipts are

LEGISLATURE CALLS JUDGES

Multnomah Circuit Jurists Asked to Explain Need of Two More.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem. Or., Jan. 24. -(Special)-Through a resolution of-fered in the House by Bigelow of Mult-nomah today, the five judges of the Multnomah County Circuit Court will be requested to appear before the House some time next Tuesday and explain the need for the two additional Judges in that county provided for in a bill by Representative Collins.

Bigelow's resolution frankly recites that the members of the Multnomah delegation, as well as the other members of the House, are not informed as to the needs of the enlarged judiciary and are seeking information on the and are seeking information on the Bigelow also introduced a resolution today proposing a preliminary examina-tion of the practicability of an inter-state highway bridge across the Wil-lamette and Columbia rivers connecting Portland and Vancouver, Wash. Representative Friends of Bowerman Rally to His Support to Block West and Kny's Antagonism.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem. Or., Jan. 34. (Special.)-Rumblings of an approach-ig tempest were heard in the House this morning when the bill of Repre-sentative Johnson, of Marion, providing for another state building at Salem, came back from the committee on capcame back from the committee on cap-tial buildings and grounds. After con-siderable discussion the bill, which car-ries an appropriation of $150,000, was referred to the committee on ways and West's Land Involved.

The committee, in reporting Johnson's bill, was div'ded. Johnson, as chairman of the committee, submitted a majority report favoring the passage of the hill. Huntington filed a minor-ity report against the measure and started the fireworks when he moved the substitution of the minority for the najority report.

Johnson endeavored to head off any discussion by requesting that the bill be referred to the ways and means com-mittee, but Huntington insisted on a consideration of his motion.

"Just because the Governor and some ther parties have some land on a block adjoining the Statelouse grounds which they wish to sell to the state is not necessarily a reason why the state should be in any great haste to buy this land," said Huntington.

Governor Doesn't Fix Price.

Replying, Johnson admitted that Governor West owns a one-fourth interest in one block of land which was one of the tracts of land being considered as "The Governor, however, is not anxious to sell, but has informed the committee that he will not place a price on the property, leaving that to be done by the State Board," said Johnson.

This brought Thompson, of Lake, to his feet.

"Before any further buildings and appropriations are provided for Salem." he said, "I would like to see some of the promises made by Salem carried out. For instance, two years ago we were promised a pure supply of water for the Capital City. At any rate, before the State Board appraises this particular block of land or any other land to be purchased by the state, I would like to see a third member on the board.

Bowerman's Friends Fight.

"A bill has been introduced in the Senate providing for a Deputy Secretary of State to serve as a member of the State Board during the absence of the Secretary of State. This bill had no sooner been introduced in the Senate. when the two present and active mem-bers of the board began vigorously to fight it.'

· A vote being taken, Huntington's mo-tion for a substitution of the reports prevailed by a strong vote. On motion of Thompson the bill was then sent to the ways and means committee for fur-ther consideration and report.

ther consideration and report.

The purpose for which the bill was introduced in the House by Dr. Smith, of Josephine, is the acquisition of sufficient ground for a building of sufficient size to accommodate the state library, Supreme Court, Railroad Commission, Attorney-General and Library mission, Attorney-General and Library Commission. Among the sites available is the half block just east of the Cap-Itol grounds.

Governor West owns one-quarter of the full block, or one-half of the prop-erty being considered by the state as a erty being considered by the state as a purchase. Dr. Fletcher Homan, president of Willamette University, owns a part of the other quarter.

Today's development is accepted as conclusive proof that Bowerman supporters are not without a good fighting organization in the House. In this way they expect to be able to secure favor-STATE CAPITOL. Salem. Or., Jan. 24.

Records Show That Sallor Boarding-House Measure Was Indefinitely Postponed. .

John C. McCue, of Portland, formerly a member of the Legislature from Clat-sop County, last night made a vigorous denial to the charge made by Senator Selling that he had stolen the sailor boarding-house bill in the House two years ago. Mr. McCue produced the of-ficial calendar of the House showing that the bill had been indefintely postponed by the House on February 20, 1909, the by the House on February 20, 1209, the last day of the session. Mr. McCue therefore considers an apology is due from Senstor Selling and last night wrote him the following letter:

For instance, this clam chowder or sirloin steak or even the lobster would be just as wel-come to my stomach as your crackers and milk. You don't realize how this dyspepsia business is robbing you of your spirit, of your energy and ability to think quickly. I can't help notice it. You haven't the cheer and sociability you had three months ago. Now I'll tell you what to do," and thereat the cheerful Mr. White took a vial from his pocket and extracted a wee tablet "There, there is a tablet that contains an ingredient, one grain of which di-gests 1000 grains of food. I am at an utter less to understand how you can correctly be quoted as making any such statement and, I take it, assuming that you were correctly quoted, that you are either absolutely ignorant of the facts reintive to your bill of last session or else you are deliberately, wiifully and maliclously stating something which you should know—and probably do know—to be untrue. If you have made the statement that is attributed to you, inadvisedly, and in the heat of argument before the committee, I believe that I have a right to insist that before you comment upon my action in the former session, you at least advise yourself as to the true facts in relation thereto, and if you have not taken the pains to know what the facts are in connection with Senate Bill 247 of last session, I now beg to refer you to the records of the session of 1909, as contained in the Senate and House Journals and Calendars of that year. If you will take the pains to refer to the Senate Calendar of 1909 under the heading of "Senate Billis," on page 2s thereof, you will find that Senate Sallor Boarding Houses at Points on the Columbia and Williamette Rivers," was passed by the Senate on February 12, 1909, and if you will then refer to the House Calendar for the session of 1969, on page 115 thereof, under the heading "Senate Billis in the House," you will find that Senate Bill 247, introduced by Senator Selling by request, a "Bill for an Act to License Sallor Boarding Houses at Points on the Columbia and Williamette Rivers," was passed by the Senate on February 12, 1909, and if you will then refer to the House Calendar for the session of 1969, on page 115 thereof, under the heading "Senate Bills in the House," you will find that Senate Bill 247, the said bill last referred to and which passed the Senate February 1909, and that on the 20th day of February, 1909, and that on the 20th day of February, 1909, and that on the 2
