Speaker of Denver, leading with 25 and ex-Governor Alva Adams, of Pueblo, second with 20. J. W. McCreery, Casimiro Barela and J. G. Northcutt were dropped from the Republican candidates today, much of their strength going to Joel F. Vaino, who received 15 as compared with 10 yesterday. It is freely predicted tonight that there will be a break, probably tomorrow or Friday, in the complimentary Democratic votes, which so far have been registered for favorite sons. But no one will venture a statement as to how they will be divided as between Spear and Adams.

WALSH LOSES TWO PARTISANS

First Break Occurs in Forces of Leading Candidate.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 25.—The first break in the forces of T. J. Walsh, the leading Democratic candidate for Senator, occurred today when two Representatives deserted his camp, one going to W. L. Conrad and the other to Dr. G. E. Blackburn. Representative Duffey, who yesterday voted for the first time for Walsh, today voted for Conrad. Dr. G. E. Blackburn, a Democrat, dean of the House of Representatives, today began to loom prominently as a dark horse with four votes. The Carter vote was cut by two. One of his supporters went to Congressman Pray and another was absent. The Walsh men, unable to secure sufficient signatures to the call, have abandoned their plan of trying to force a caucus.

Alabama Elected Twice.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 25.—John W. Bankhead, Democrat, was elected United States Senator to succeed himself in April, 1913, in a joint session of the Alabama Legislature today. This is the second time he has been elected by this assembly. The first time a mistake was made. To make matters sure the Legislature decided to go through the proper forms again.

NEGROES LYNCH NEGRO

MAN RIDDLED WITH BULLETS WHILE KIDNAPING CHILD.

When Neighbors Come to Wife's Aid, He Shoots and Volley Pours In, Fatally Wounding Him.

MARION, Ill., Jan. 25.—Walter Harris, a negro miner, was shot six times and probably fatally wounded at Dewanda, south of here, tonight by a crowd of enraged negroes, while he was attempting to kidnap his own child. Harris had gone to the home of his wife, from whom he is separated, and force a passage, taking the child, a 10-year-old girl, away with him. The woman objected and a quarrel followed, during which Harris got hold of the cabin door with her before him. A crowd of the woman's friends had collected in the street and, in order to force a passage, Harris fired several shots above the heads of the people. The girl broke away from him and ran down the street and when Harris followed her, other negroes turned upon him with their pistols. Their shots took effect in his arms, legs and head.

TWENTY-TWO ARE ROBBED

(Continued From First Page.) tour, had not reached Mitchell when the latter was shot. Harlan then drew his revolver under cover of his coat and fired through the doorway. Instantly the smaller of the two robbers rested and let his weapon fall. Blood spouted from holes in both cheeks, showing that Harlan's bullet had gone through his face. He grasped an arm of his companion and both raced through the car to the front and leaped off. As they fled Motorman Schaefer started his car toward Tokio, where a message was telephoned to the Sheriff. After that the car was started with all speed toward this city, eight miles distant, in order that Mitchell might have surgical attention at once.

Amount Taken Not Known.

It is not known how much the robbers took from their 22 victims. Estimates run up from several hundred to several thousand dollars. The holdup tonight was the fourth streetcar robbery here in less than a month.

It he refused and lost the nomination. How far the new situation will carry the inquiry is not known. Every public official in Vermillion County admits he knows of vote trafficking, some of it by personal observation, but none have expressed willingness to give this information unless it were agreed that all would turn in and make a "cleaning up."

Judge's Guns Turned on Himself. When Judge Kimbrough appears to testify, he will be under fire from the body he himself directed to do the firing; he will be examined by an officer of his own court—State's Attorney Lewman—and incidentally Lewman will be asked questions which open up his own campaign for inspection. And the grand jury, in theory, is a part of the court it will be questioning.

Miss Susan Hurbut Mason, daughter of Frederick Mason, of the Holly, Mason & Marks wholesale hardware company, and Charles Albert Bartleson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bartleson, were married tonight in the All Saints Cathedral in the presence of 300 guests, the Very Rev. William C. Hicks, dean of All Saints Cathedral, officiating.

The wedding attendants were Miss Helen Mason, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Miss Clara Hughes and Miss Edith Brown, bridesmaids, and C. F. Smith, best man.

The ushers were John Doran, Frank Gavin, Howard Zimmerman, Seth Richards, Dr. Frank Hinman and L. S. Hazkin.

The wedding gown was a beautiful white crepe meteor satin creation, trimmed with point lace, border of white fox fur and sprays of orange blossoms. She wore a full tulle veil with the spray of orange blossoms and carried lilies of the valley in a shower bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartleson left tonight for a wedding trip to California and after March 15 will be at home in Spokane.

Mrs. Bartleson has long been a favorite in Spokane society circles and is well known in Portland.

Only relatives attended the wedding, which took place at the Ingleside apartments. Mr. Robertson is a prominent member of Rev. Mr. Foulkes' church.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—In reply to a cabled inquiry regarding the status of the negotiations for the leasing of the Galapagos Islands to the United States, President Alfaro, of Ecuador, has sent the following personal cablegram to the Herald: "Guayaquil, Jan. 24.—A committee of representative men will meet in Quito

It was alleged they carried four sacks containing $6000 in silver on the first trip and three sacks containing $3000 on the second trip. The money was said to have been obtained at the First National Bank Earl Chambers, a local garage keeper acknowledged having driven the automobile. Neither Judge Kimbrough nor Mayor Platt would affirm or deny the story.

Judge's Instructions Ignored. Many subpoenas were issued in defiance of the instructions of Judge Kimbrough, who told the grand jurors they were empowered only to investigate alleged vote traffic during the last 18 months. The court's interpretation of the law, which exempted his own election, became a matter of public interest. The order also excluded from investigation the election of State's Attorney John H. Lewman and Mayor Platt. The subpoenas were issued following hard upon the appearance before the grand jury of Charles Knox, unsuccessful candidate for Sheriff at the primary.

Among the witnesses before the grand jury today was Peter Sanichas, a colored politician, who has considerable influence among the people of his race here. He spent an hour and 10 minutes before the questioners and had announced he would tell all he knew, which, he added, smiling, was nothing. This is the customary announcement of witnesses before the grand jury.

Cost of Nomination High. Another witness was Charles King, unsuccessful candidate for primary for the nomination of Sheriff. He was prepared to explain the rumor that he had approached the head of a local political organization, not identified, and had been told it would cost him $3000 for the organization and $4000 for that body to "spend." The report had tomorrow to decide on the action to be taken regarding the proposal of the United States to lease the Galapagos Islands to the United States for ninety-nine years. Right-minded public opinion here recognizes the unquestionable merits of this proposal to both countries, as it would bring about closer friendship and more intimate relations, which the United States evidently desires. BULLETIN NO. 23

The Prevention of Accidents

BY FOREST GOBIN. Conductor Portland Railway, Light & Power Company.

Look out for the cars. Don't take too many chances. Of course, we all enjoy taking a chance now and then. What would life be if we couldn't run a risk once in a while? But don't take the big unnecessary ones.

Of course, you're in a big hurry sometimes, but you can usually spare half a minute in waiting for a car to pass if you only think so. You come strolling down Washington street; you have promised to meet your girl friend at 2 o'clock to go to the matinee. At Fifth a car is turning the corner and you dash in front of it as though your very life depended on getting across ahead of that particular car. My, what a thrill runs through you; you barely escaped. Then you glance up at a clock in front of a jewelry shop across the street and it's just twenty minutes to two. Why not look at the clock first? Think of what the consequences might have been if you had stumbled just in front of that car. Your girl friend might have gone to the matinee alone. Of course, the motorman would have stopped his car if you had given him a chance, but you didn't give him any chance at all. The first thing he sees of you, you are right into the front end of his car and he hardly has time to think before you are being scraped up by the fender and that often means a broken arm or leg and always plenty of serious bruises, scratches and torn clothing; and it may easily mean instant death or being maimed for life.

And then there is the fellow who is so busy thinking that he walks directly in front of a rapidly approaching car. Don't ever allow yourself to think so hard that you can't hear a car coming. It's dangerous to say the least. When passing behind a car or vehicle always keep a sharp lookout for vehicles or cars approaching from the other direction.

Teamsters and chauffeurs should be on the lookout at car tracks and avoid running in front of an approaching car whenever possible. Give the car the right of way when you can and it will not only be a big benefit to the car service but will greatly lessen the number of accidents. Often in case of a slippery rail, where you could easily stop within a few feet, it is impossible for the motorman to stop his car after he sees you are going to cross ahead of him.

SCHOOL CHILDREN. Never play in the immediate vicinity of car tracks. Never cross the tracks without first looking both ways for cars. Never dare each other to stand on the track longest or run across nearest an approaching car. Never go near a car unless you wish to ride and then when you're on go inside and sit down. Then if there's an accident, no one can blame you.

We take care of your eyes in the way of lens changes for one year from date of purchase.
