United States General Appraiser McClelland and United States Attorney Lawrence, of New York City, who are in Portland on official business, were guests at the Commercial Club yosterday. Mr. McClelland declared that if he were a young man he would not hesitate a moment about coming to the Pacific Coast to live. He said that New York City, although expressing tremendous energy in its business life, was still remarkably conservative, in marked contrast to the great enthusiasm and progress of the Pacific Coast.

FEDERAL ACTION IN MIND

Moritz Thomsen and W. D. Hofius, Chosen by Swigert and Klernan as Nominal Plaintiffs, Unlike-land Commission, and Frank Klernan have started out on a new tack, which consists of attempts to have non-residents of the state apply to the Federal Court for an order restraining the building of the bridge.

Moritz Thomsen and W. D. Hofius, of Scattle, owners of the Seattle Dock Company, in which title to the Chamber of Cemmerce building is vested, had been selected by Mesarz, Bwigert and Kiernan to apply for the order. According to a selected by Messrs, Swigert and Kiernan to apply for the order. According to a statement made by Mr. Hoflus at the Imperial Hotel last night, there is small chance for their doing so. Mr. Hoflus said that neither he nor his partner wished to become embroiled in the Broadway bridge fight.

Mr. Hoflus, on his way from Los Angeles to Seattle, stopped in Portland yesterday. On going to his office in the afternoon he found Mr. Swigert waiting for him. Mr. Swigert, he said, did not do much talking, because John B. Feon and others were in the office, but from what was said Mr. Hoflus gleaned that efforts were being made to have Mr. Thomsen and himself agree, as owners of the Chamber of Commerce building, to apply for a restraining order in the Federal Court, a right which they would have by reason of being non-resident taxpayers of the state.

"From what Mr. Swigert said I judged that he had talked the subject over, with Mr. Thomsen when Mr. Thomsen stopped off here on his way from California to Seattle a few weeks ago," said Mr. Hoflus.

"Mr. Swigert told me in a general way"

Seattle a few weeks ago," said Mr. Hofus.

"Mr. Swigert told me in a general way what was wanted and asked me to talk it over with Mr. Thomsen. He was under the impression at first that I had seen Mr. Thomsen since he had.

"John Yeon told me that Frank Kiernan had been in the office before my arrival, but had left. From what was said I am under the impression that he and Swigert came together. I do not know Mr. Duniway, Mr. Kiernan's attorney. He was not in my office today."

Mor'ts Thomsen will arrive in Fortland from Seattle this afternoon, Although Mr. Hofus has not seen him since they met in Los Angeles a few weeks ago, which was before the time the proposal was made to Mr. Thomsen, he said he felt certain that his partner would not be disposed to conform with the request of Swigert and Klernan.
