Major Kennedy Tells of Effort to Secure Withdrawal From Race.

BUS C. MOSER GO-BETWEEN

funicipal Judge Says He Only Intended to Reimburse Kennedy for Losses, but Latter Says Part of Salary to Be Paid Regularly.

Charges that Gus C. Moser offered Major H. B. Kennedy a financial consideration to withdraw from the race for Municipal Judge to succeed Judge Taxwell, whom Mayor Simon has threatened to remove from office, yesterday were made by Kennedy, admitted by Taxwell and not denied by Moser. This Judge Taxwell declares, was after Mayor Simon had vainly tried to persuade Kennedy to accept a financial settlement for the loss which he may have sustained in resigning the secretaryship of the Civil Service Commission. Later, according to Judge E. V. Littlefield and broached the subject, but nothing came from his effort there, it is reported.

"About the time Kennedy resigned from the secretaryship of the Civil Service Commission I saw Mayor Simon at his office in the City Hall," said Judge Taxwell. "The Mayor told me then that Major Kennedy felt that he had been put to financial loss and went himself into Major Kennedy a office. Returning, Mr. Simon made the statement that nothing could be done with Major Kennedy. He advised me to try to arrange an agreement with Kennedy.

"Later I went to see Gus Moser, and he asked me if I would like to have him call and see Major Kennedy with a message from me that I would reimburse him for any monetary loss he might have incurred in expectation of getting the judgeship. No specific sum was named. I merely authorized Mr. Moser to say that I would stand by Major Kennedy financially."

No Amount Specified.

No Amount Specified.

Major Kennedy confirms Judge Taxwell's statement to the effect that no special amount was mentioned, but says he understood from Mr. Moser's conversation that a certain amount monthly would be paid to him until the expira-tion of Judge Taxwell's term in June and that the payments would continue and that the payments would be suc-

Judge Tarwell has not yet decided, he says, what action he will take if the Mayor carries out his avowed intention to remove him against his will, other than that he will not make a scene it from Seattle—C. D. Hamel, G. Albers, he arrives at Police Headquarters and finds Major Kennedy on the bench. He realizes that Chief Cox will probably obey Mayor Stmon's instruction not to recognize him longer as Municipal Judge.

Judge Taxwell will today advise with friends and map out his course of ac-tion. He declares that it might be possible for him to get an injunction fore-stalling the Mayor's proposed action but, in view of the fact that the courts inclined to be sensitive about issuing injunctions, he says he is not much inclined to that course.

He points out that he would have the right to bring quo warranto proceedings after his removal, that is he could question the right of Major Kennedy let and Craddock upon suspicion of to hold the position. In this connection he declares that Mayor Simon is disappearance of Anton Nunvar, an reating him unfairly in alleging the failure to file written complaints as a reason for his removal. This duty, he contends, is strictly that of the Prosecutor from the City Attorney's or Dis-trict Attorney's office.

He also says that Mayor Simon knows that he paid half of the late Judge Bennett's campaign expenses on the agreement that the money which Judge Bennett earned as judge was to be divided, as well as all other money according from their legal part. money accruing from their legal part-nership, and that Judge Bennett wished Judge Tarwell to succeed him on the Municipal bench in case Judge Bennett had been elected Circuit Court Judge.
"I did not know that I would get mixed up in this case," said Moser last

Thousands of visitors called at the booth and admired the collection of samples of the products of the fertile Oregon soil. Numerous inquiries were received relative to securing acreage in the state. It is expected that thousands of settlers will come to Oregon as the result of this one display.

Show Is Important.

The show at Columbus is of much greater importance than the one at comaha for the reason that coincidently a number of smaller meetings will be held in the same city. The corn show opens today and will continue for two weeks. During the time it is in progress the Ohio Corn Improvement Association, the ohio Conservation Congress, the National Rural Life Congress, the Ohio State Dairymen's Association and a number of lesser bodies will assemble with large numbers of delegates present.

Not being able to obtain enough space in the convention hall the Great Northern has contracted for a storeroom convenient to the place in which the meetings of the various organizations will be held but at a much more desirable loca. The show at Columbus is of mu tion. A fresh supply of Oregon products has been received there and will be shown to the visitors. A large number of applicants for farm lands in this state are expected.

The same method was pursued at the land show recently held at St. Louis. The Great Northern display room, a block from the convention hall, actually attracted more visitors than did the main feature itself.

Tour Evokes Enthusiasm.

According to reports received by F. W. Graham, Western industrial agent for the Great Northern 'n this city, the tour of the exhibition cars through the Eastern states have developed into or continuous run of Oregon enthusiasm. The attractions and lectures are said to The attractions and lectures are said to be equal to those of some shows for which admission is charged. At some places the cars have been compelled to show in opposition to high-class the trical attractions and have scored wonderfully well in comparative attendance.
