

OROZCO DELAYS JUAREZ ATTACK

Rebel Chief Will Not Immediately Bombard Town, Is Official Belief.

HIS CAMP WITHIN 10 MILES

Force Before Beleaguered City Is Said to Have Been Augmented by the Arrival of General Sanchez' Troops.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 6.—The belief prevails in official circles tonight that General Pascual Orozco has abandoned, for the present at least, his plans to attack Juarez. This has relieved the acute tension which has existed across the international border for the last four days, but Mexican and civil officials have not abated their vigilance.

No definite knowledge is obtainable here tonight as to the exact location of Orozco's forces. Mexican officials declined to credit the report that the insurgent chief had retired to Samalayuca, his supply camp, to effect his long-delayed junction with General Blanco's 700 troops.

Orozco Is Near Juarez.

Contradictory advice today from the insurgents' junta here state that Orozco is camped 10 miles west of Juarez, within easy striking distance. The same source reports that he was joined by General Jose de la Luz Sanchez and a considerable force of rebels. As to the immediate plans of the campaign, advice are equally conflicting. One report says that Orozco plans to go south tonight to meet General Navarro's federal troops marching overland from Chihuahua to the relief of Juarez. Another states that Juarez is still the objective of Orozco and that he is planning a surprise attack.

Although business in Juarez was partially resumed today there is considerable nervousness among residents. A train, with an escort of 400 men, was reported to have left Juarez last night. He had a sharp skirmish with a band of 200 federalists last night. The federalists retiring in the face of such overwhelming odds.

Navarro Is Juarez' Hope.

Should Navarro succeed in getting into Juarez with his forces, the insurgents will have their work cut out for them. For Navarro's men are veterans, seasoned by hard campaigning. Indeed, Mexican officials are confident that the city, protected by 600 soldiers, is now safe from assault and that the campaign of the young revolutionist leader will soon end in his defeat, and the scattering of his followers.

All this, however, is prefaced on the belief that General Navarro will succeed in reaching the Rio Grande with his troops. Had Orozco succeeded yesterday in holding off Navarro's forces, no such meeting could have saved Juarez from the hands of the revolutionists.

Whereabouts Is Mystery.

But with his troops within the city, Orozco and Alamo now have before them the well-armed regulars, and Juarez, it is felt, will, it is believed, fall only after bloody fighting.

The whereabouts of Orozco and other rebel leaders and commands is puzzling the federal officials. Members of the insurgent junta declare the rebels are out of food and water, and had to withdraw, but will attack soon, and that Orozco will be reinforced by men from Ojinaga, east of here, and from the vicinity of Galeana and Casas Grandes south. With fear of immediate attack, the tension of Juarez relaxed this morning and business generally was resumed.

The insurgent junta in El Paso announced this morning that Orozco and his force had not retired to Samalayuca, but had taken up a position 10 miles west of Juarez, within easy striking distance of the town.

AEROPLANES WILL SCOUT

They Will Fly Along Border in Aid of United States Troops.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The capture by the Mexican revolutionists of San Ignacio, town opposite Fort Hancock, Tex., was reported to the State Department in a telegram from the American Consul at Ciudad Juarez. It is believed an aeroplane can discover, General Hoyt, the commander of the Department of Texas, will probably be in a position soon to determine the exact location of the activities of the insurgents along the Mexican border.

At present, owing to the conflicting reports and absurd and extravagant claims on the part of the rebel leaders and their public mouthpieces, the United States Army officers, who are doing their best to maintain the neutrality law in force on the Mexican border, find the task difficult, and the troops are continually making wide-groove chases after military expeditions reported to be crossing the Rio Grande, which rarely materialize. In the meantime, when the troops are on these false scents, it is presumed that armed bands of rebels are crossing the river at unguarded points.

Today General Wood, chief of staff, let it be known that at least one aeroplane would be employed in observation work along the Rio Grande. This decision was reached after a consultation with General Allen, chief signal officer, who is in charge of the aeronautical service of the War Department, and John Barry Ryan, president of the United States Aeronautical Reserve.

The War Department has accepted Robert Miller's offer of one of his new Wright biplanes, which is now in New York, and this will be rushed to the Mexican border by express and turned over to General Hoyt. The reserve prepared to furnish other machines for military use at short notice, and if the Collier biplane proves to be of real service it will be supplemented by at least half a dozen others.

With a number of machines soaring constantly over the crooked channel of the Rio Grande and back into the country where illegal expeditions may be organized, it is believed the military will be able practically to establish an impenetrable patrol along the border.

MEXICAN APPEAL IS REFUSED

United States Troops Will Not Handle Prisoners of War.

DOUGLAS ARIZ, Feb. 6.—The commander of the Mexican government troops in Agua Prieta, across the border from Douglas, appealed to the United States troops on this side last night for assistance in handling prisoners held in the Mexican jail but was denied. Captain Barrado, of the Mexican ### Five Killed in Battle.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 6.—The total casualties in Sunday's fighting at Rosche south of Juarez were five dead and 29 wounded. The federalists lost one man and two women according to Dr. L. J. Bush of the insurgent hospital corps, who remained on the field when the rebels left.

The insurgents lost two dead and three wounded. Of the federal wounded, 24 are now in a hospital at Juarez, six of them women and 20 soldiers. The wounded and dead women were camp followers, wives of the federal soldiers.

The federal reinforcements from Chihuahua could not come within that distance of Juarez by rail. The federal reinforcements from Chihuahua could not come within that distance of Juarez by rail.

Diaz Denounced in Texas.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Feb. 6.—The first open anti-Diaz meeting on record in Eagle Pass was held here last night in celebration of the adoption of the Mexican constitution. Senor Paulino Martinez, of San Antonio, the principal speaker, declared the rebels have usurped rights guaranteed by the constitution. He pleaded for the ballot, personal liberty, freedom of speech and freedom of the press.

Repair Trains Sent Out.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 6.—Repair trains were sent out from Juarez over both the Northwestern and Mexican Central lines this afternoon to repair bridges. Twenty-four bridges have been destroyed by rebels south of Juarez as far as Mochisuma, a distance of 112 miles. The federal reinforcements from Chihuahua could not come within that distance of Juarez by rail.

WAGE WAR—FRAUD OF COUNTY AMENDMENT SCORED.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—Due for a grilling, single taxers will receive a scolding and denunciation on the floor of the Senate when the resolutions prepared by the committee on assessment and taxation are reported back. This may be tomorrow, or it may be later. Senator Kelshner of a Senator from the very hotbed of the single taxers—Senator Walter Dimick, of Oregon City, behind blow to be dealt law and others to wage war—fraud of county amendment scored.

Home Produces Foe.

The single taxers who aided and abetted in securing the passage of the county tax amendment under an assumed title will fall under the knife at the hands of a Senator from the very hotbed of the single taxers—Senator Walter Dimick, of Oregon City.

There promises to be interesting information divulged before he concludes his speech. His statements will be in favor of the resolutions being in committee, these resolutions being in the shape of constitutional amendments to be submitted to a direct vote of the people.

Fraud Is Denounced.

Dimick is warm in denouncing the methods adopted and means pursued in gaining the end toward opening a way for single taxation and will not doubt be emphatic on the floor of the Senate.

He Declares that the manner in which the amendment received the sanction of the people has been determined as such a palpable fraud that the people are disgusted and a continuation of such tactics will result in an overthrow of the whole system which has been secured in this state in advancing the power of the people.

It is also probable that Dimick's statements will be backed up and supported by other members of the senate who object to the single tax idea and to the manner in which it is made possible in the state of Oregon.

COLUMBIA FIGHTS DIVISION

Grange Has Senator File Resolution Against Joseph's Plan.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Feb. 6.

SINGLE TAX JABBED

—(Special.)—Members of the Columbia County Grange are up in arms over the apportionment bill as prepared by Senator Joseph and through Senator Markley this morning had resolutions read in the Senate protesting against the provisions of the bill.

They declare that the bill gives Columbia but one joint Senator and one Representative and say that this is merely a subterfuge. They declare it will give Columbia County representation in the Senate by a non-resident only and that the provisions of the bill are an injustice. They request fair treatment.

Judicial Powers by Board of Control Are Opposed.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—Proposed changes in the water code are still subjects of wrangling before the committee, but tonight, from what can be gathered, the committee will hold to its revised bill and report it in practically intact.

Oliver Morton, of the legal Department of the Reclamation Service; Lionel R. Webster, R. P. Montague and Railroad Commissioner Miller, were before the board tonight, arguing against the proposed change, while ex-Associate Justice King favors the committee plan.

Mr. Morton declared that it is not good law to give a body of this kind judicial and administrative powers at the same time, the same contention being made by Mr. Montague. Mr. King was of the other opinion, and members of the committee seemed to be of Mr. King's opinion as well.

CATTLE PROTECTED FROM DOGS

Proposed Law Provides License to Form Insurance Fund.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—What is the nature of a livestock insurance to protect domestic animals against dogs is provided for in a bill introduced by Senator Carson this morning.

The bill requires a license of $2 on all male dogs and $3 on female dogs, the money so derived to be placed in a separate fund for payment of claims of those who have lost animals by attack from dogs.

DRUG PEDDLERS' TAX KEPT

Senate Defeats Measure Reducing Present $100 License.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—Attempt to lower the license on itinerant drug vendors from $100 a month to a graduated scale of $5, $10 and $15 monthly for different classes of such vendors failed in the Senate this morning by a vote of 11 for the bill to 15 against. The bill was introduced by Senator Barrett, of Washington, but was materially changed in committee.

Bills indefinitely postponed were: H. B. 215, Hollis—Removing protection from beavers.

H. B. 123, by Miller of Columbus—Relating to additional cost in action for wages.

America's share in the commerce of Liberia is extremely small.

PROTEST IS MADE

Idaho Legislature in Arms Against Forestry Service.

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 6.—(Special.)—The Legislature is up in arms against the policies of the forestry service in barring and discouraging settlement in this state, as shown through two resolutions of protest passed by the House today. The first petitions the Idaho Congressional delegation to urge Congress to remove immediately the blanket protest of the forestry service filed against homesteaders and entrymen on the Coeur d'Alene National forest, thereby holding up their title regardless of the fact they filed and lived on the land before the forest was created.

Congress is petitioned

Lawmakers Ask That Homesteaders Be Permitted to Hold Lands on Coeur d'Alene Forests. Burned Timber Needed.

The House is also memorialized to abolish all rules of the forestry service governing the removal of dead and burned over timber so that settlers can remove it and realize some profit before it is ruined. A third memorial urges cutting of homestead residence from five to three years.

SHOW EXHIBITS WANTED

S. B. RICABY HERE AFTER OREGON PRODUCTS FOR DISPLAY.

Los Angeles Making Great Preparations for Pacific Land and Products Exposition.

S. B. Ricaby, representing the Pacific Land and Products Exposition which is to be held in Los Angeles, March 13 to April 7, is at the Imperial Hotel, and will remain here several days, soliciting exhibits for the show. The Commercial Club, Chamber of Commerce and big lead owners, as well as communities, will be asked to exhibit the best they have of their resources, the only restriction being that no exhibit must be for personal advertising purposes.

"If the exhibit is more representative of the resources of the community than personal it is acceptable," said Mr. Ricaby last night, "and if the exhibitor gets anything out of it, he is welcome to it. The exposition is a public affair and no personal interests enter into it. We are making an exhibition for the entire Pacific Coast and want all the best the Western states afford. The exhibition will be held in the Shrine Auditorium, where there is room for all. Tourists are now arriving in Los Angeles at the rate of 2000 a week, and while the exhibition is on, colonist rates from the East will be in effect as well as half rates, and we are endeavoring to obtain half rates from the exhibiting states."

From here Mr. Ricaby will go to Washington, Idaho and Utah.

Suit Halts Woodcutters.

OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—Charles Olson has filed suit against William S. Rayhouse to recover $5000 on a promissory note and $500 attorney's fees. It is charged that the note was executed at Woodburn, Or., December 29, 1907, and that no part of the principal or interest has been paid. The note was secured by a mortgage on 80 acres of land, of which 15 acres have been released. A motion has been filed to restrain the defendants from cutting merchantable timber on the land.
